HOT DOG AND BAKE SALES — The Garner Road (Raleigh) YMCA Daycare Organization, Parents in Planning, will host a bake sale and grilled hot dog sale, along with selling raffle tickets for fundraising purposes at 2235 Old Garner Road, Raleigh, May 8, 15 and 22. Grand Prize: $100 worth of groceries. Drawing will be held June 1.

THE COUNSELING SERVICE FOR ADULTS at Duke University Office of Continuing Education offers guidance and support to individuals who are unemployed, returning to work, or changing jobs. For information or an appointment call 684-5259.

THE N.C. MUSEUM OF LIFE AND SCIENCE — 433 Murray Avenue, Durham. 477-0431.

• FUNFEST: The Fourth Annual Funfest at the N.C. Museum of Life and Science will be held on Sunday, May 16, 1-5 p.m. During this free open house, there will be treasure hunts, balloons, computer activities, snake demonstrations, train rides, puppet shows, crafts, music and more. And to help avoid traffic congestion, shuttle service on the London us will be provided from the Stadium lot to the Museum for 10¢ one way. Raindate is May 23.

SIXTY OR OVER? The Retired Senior Volunteer Program needs: a volunteer from the South Square Mall area to drive an elderly person to and from the grocery store once a week; and volunteers who can type and/or perform other clerical duties for a department of the local judicial system.

RSVP provides reimbursement for travel and free insurance. For more information, call Ms. Helen Pressley or Ms. Kathy Walters at 596-9311, ext. 321, Durham Technical Institute.

YOUTH COACHES NEEDED — The Volunteer Services Bureau says youth coaches are needed to demonstrate and coach "community league" softball for teams of 6-10 year olds. Male or female, 16 year and older, who have some free time this summer are welcome to participate. A knowledge of softball skills and rules is required.

A tutor in chemistry is needed for a 17-year-old foster youth. She must pass this course in order to graduate and requires assistance through the remainder of this semester and summer.

If you are willing to help, call 688-8977 weekdays, 9 a.m.-4 p.m.

DO YOU NEED A JOB? The Job Opportunity Center at Operation Breakthrough can teach you job planning and job hunting skills and offers assistance in finding a job. To find out if you qualify, come to the Intake Office at Operation Breakthrough, South Roxboro and Umstead Streets, or call 683-8731.

TENNIS LESSONS — The Durham Parks and Recreation Department is offering group tennis lessons on a monthly basis this spring and summer for youth and adults at courts throughout the city. For more information on costs, location, times and registration, contact the tennis director, 683-4355.

May is Trails Outdoors Month and North Carolina citizens have a variety of opportunities to see the state while hiking, biking, horseback riding and canoeing the more than 2,000 miles of trails in the state.

Riders, hikers and paddlers can join the first ever Mountains-to-Sea Trek. The North Carolina Trails Association is promising nine fun-filled weeks of hiking, bicycling, horseback riding and canoeing from the Blue Ridge Mountains to the Outer Banks.

Pack your gear and join the Trek, which began during April, at any of the following locations:

- May 8 and 9 for the second annual Stokes/Surry counties Trails Extravaganza with games and events at Pilot Mountain state Park;

- May 15 is the date when Guilford County Trekkers will have breakfast and tour the Natural Science Center before hiking to downtown Greensboro for the dedication of the first urban historical trail in North Carolina. The historical trail will lead trekkers to the campus of Greensboro College for a noon lunch, and on to High Point for an overnight stay at Oak Hollow Campground. For information, contact Willie Taylor at (919) 855-9399.

- May 22, the trek will be in Sanford at Buckhorn Trail to the campsite at the Deep River. A wagon train will be the feature of this section of the trek.

- May 27, the trek moves from the N.C. State Fairgrounds via Hillsborough Street to the Capitol for a noon meeting with Governor Jim Hunt. The trekkers will spend the night at Clemmons State Forest near Clayton.

Additional information on the entire Mountains-to-Sea Trek may be obtained from Kay Scott in Raleigh, Division of Parks and Recreation at (919) 733-7795.

If the idea of hitting the trails does not meet your fancy, there are plenty of other events in Outdoors North Carolina during May.

Horselovers should mark May 8 on the calendar for Tanglewood Steeplechase in Clemmons. More than 15,000 people are expected at the 15th annual sanctioned steeplechase that offers a $25,000 purse.

The races begin at 2 p.m., but the gates open at 10 a.m. for picnickers. Admission is $45 for a reserved space for six people to a vehicle or $5 per person at the gate. For more information, contact Rogers Lemmons, Tanglewood Park Director, (919) 766-6421.

Many more events will occur in May. To find out what is happening, or to get additional information, contact Melba Strickland, Department of Natural Resources and Community Development, P.O. Box 27687, Raleigh, or call (919) 733-6376.
