CHOICES IN CHILDBIRTH, Part 3: The Midwife Option is the topic for discussion for the sixth program of, "The Whole Birth Catalogue" sponsored by the Women's Health Counseling Service. The public is invited to see the highly acclaimed film,

"Daughters of Time" about nurse-midwives. There will also be a discussion by nurse-midwives from the Chatham Family Birth Center in Siler City about their role in the birth process. The program will be held Tuesday, May 11, at 7:30 p.m., at the Community Church in Chapel Hill. $1 donation is appreciated.

For further information call Ms. Nikki Vangsnes at 968-4647 or Ms. Jane Helwig at 929-3616.

YOUTH ENRICHMENT PROGRAM — Operation Breakthrough announces registration of YEP - Youth Enrichment Program. YEP is for low-income high school students who want tutorial assistance to improve their school work. If you are having trouble with your school work or if you know someone who is having school work trouble, come by Operation Breakthrough or call Donald Daniels at 683-8731.

SNOW WHITE GOES WEST, a hilarious musical by Jim Eller and Jeanne Barge, will be presented in the auditorium of the Carrboro Elementary School in Carrboro for two performances Saturday, May 15, by the Fayetteville Little Theatre. Proceeds will benefit the non-profit Art School in Carr Mill Mall. Curtain time: 11 a.m. and 2 p.m. Admission: $2.50.

Billed as "entertainment for all ages," the comedy will feature such talent as Bo Thorpe and Leonard McLeod. They will also be performing the previous evening, May 14, in "Death of a Salesman" at the Art School in Carrboro.

Reservations for one or both performances may be made by calling the Art School, 942-2041.

THE STUDIO DANCE SCHOOL summer school registration has begun. The summer program includes classes in beginning gymnastics, tap, ballet, jazz and aerobics. Reserve a place now. Also ticket information is available concerning the school's 14th annual Youth Dance Revue. Call M-T-W, 5-7 p.m., 682-6382.

TARHEEL STORYTELLING FESTIVAL — May 14-16 at Holiday Inn-North, 3050 N. Cherry St., Winston-Salem. Sponsored by the Tarheel Association of Storytellers, Inc., with the support of the W-S Arts Council and others.

Activities scheduled include workshops on puppetry, religious storytelling, stories with music, children's stories, stories from around the world, and stories for teens; a world myth and music concert featuring Laura Simms and Steve Gorn of New York City; a banquet featuring Augusta Baker and David Holt; and mini-festivals throughout the city.

A $45 registration fee is required. A one-semester hour credit is being offered through Winston-Salem State University for teacher renewal credit or other credit as stipulated.
