

Calendar and Announcements

ITEMS for this column should reach us NO LATER THAN FRIDAY before the desired publication week. Two to three weeks prior is even better! No charge. Mail to:

Calendar
The Carolina Times
P.O. Box 3825
Durham, NC 27702.

PRISONER ARTWORK — The Durham Arts Council is presenting a "Special Showing of Prisoner Artwork" through May 16 at the DAC Building, 120 Morris St.

On exhibit are paintings and pottery work by inmates from the Federal Correctional Institution in Butner and from the Guebs Road Prison Unit in Durham.

For more information, call the DAC at 682-5519.

ARCHAEOLOGY FIELD SCHOOL — You can help uncover details of early Afro-American culture at a plantation in Washington County this summer. Enroll in the six week Archaeology Field School beginning June 28 to learn the culture of 18th and 19th century slaves in coastal North Carolina. Somerset Place State Historic Site will be the scene for the annual field school where students will participate in excavation of archaeological sites. For details, contact Historic Sites Section, Department of Cultural Resources, 733-7862 in Raleigh.

HOW TO START A SMALL BUSINESS — St. Joseph's Performance Center and Rick Doble will again offer a course on "How To Start A Small Business". This class is a basic introduction to business. It will begin Tuesday, May 18, 7-9 p.m., in Durham. The course is popular, so sign up early. Call now, at 688-5467 for more information or to register.

YOUTH TENNIS — The Durham Parks and Recreation Department, in cooperation with the South Durham Youth Athletics Association, is offering tennis fundamentals clinics for youth ages 5-12, at W.D. Hill Tennis Courts, May 29, June 5 and 12, 10 a.m. Free.

On-site instruction will be provided. Register at W.D. Hill Center (683-4292) or at the Durham Parks and Recreation Department, 101 City Hall Plaza (683-4355). Parents and interested adults are encouraged to attend.

MAY FESTIVAL — There will be a May Festival at the Berea Baptist Church, 5111 Fayetteville Rd., on Saturday, May 22, 9 a.m.-4 p.m. Food, crafts, old and new clothing, bric-a-brac and junk for sale. There will be a drawing for a Dutch girl quilt. Proceeds for projects of the Women's Missionary Society at the church.

DURHAM CITY SCHOOLS MENUS May 17-21

Breakfast:

Monday — Juice, sausage biscuit or cereal, choice of milk.

Tuesday — Sliced peaches, waffles w/syrup or cereal, choice of milk.

Wednesday — Assorted juice, cheese roll, choice of milk.

Thursday — Fruit cocktail, ready-to-eat cereal, choice of milk.

Friday — Juice, fruit muffin, choice of milk.

Lunch:

Monday — Busy Day spaghetti w/meatsauce and cheese, tossed green salad, whole wheat roll, choice of milk.

Tuesday — Turkey a la king/rice, buttered green beans, peach half, cornbread square, choice of milk.

Wednesday — Pig in Blanket or ham biscuit, macaroni and cheese casserole, steamed collards, pineapple ambrosia, choice of milk.

Thursday — Manager's Choice.

Friday — Manager's Choice.

THE SECOND ANNUAL BLACK ALUMNI REUNION at the University of North Carolina will be held in Chapel Hill Saturday, May 22.

The daylong reunion will feature a picnic, banquet and dance in addition to discussions about desegregation and black student life on campus. Activities will begin at 9 a.m. and will last until midnight.

A panel of Carolina students will share their views on "What it is like to be black at Carolina". Another discussion on "Settling the UNC Desegregation Lawsuit; What Does it Mean for the Future of Blacks?" will be led by Kelly Alexander, vice president of North Carolina NAACP; Mrs. Eva Clayton, N.C. Alumni and Friends Coalition; Hayden B. Renwick, UNC-CH associate dean of arts and sciences; and Cleon Thompson, UNC vice president.

Co-chairmen for the reunion are Ms. Angela Bryant and Richard Epps. Registration for all meals and activities is $20.

For more information, call or write Ms. Linda Carl, director of Alumni Programs, Alumni Association, P.O. Box 660, University of North Carolina, Chapel Hill, NC 27514, telephone (919) 962-1208.

HELP FOR PARENTS OF CHILDREN WITH HANDICAPPING CONDITIONS — A training program for parents and other persons interested in Public Law 94-142; the Creech Bill; Individualized Education Plans; Least Restrictive Setting; Evaluation/Testing; Due Process; Communication with Educators; and Parent Coalitions will be held at the Durham Public Library, 300 North Roxboro St., Durham, Saturday, May 15, 9 a.m.-4:30 p.m. Bring a bag lunch (beverage and dessert provided).

For more information and/or to pre-register, call one of the following: Sandra Belfon, 477-3053 (Durham); Judy Ambrose, 847-9570 (Raleigh); Muriel Jackson, 755-0841 (Raleigh); or Mary Kuhr, 781-5562 (Raleigh).

Workshop is open to any resident of the Triangle Area.

HASSLE HOUSE, Durham's crisis and suicide telephone and walk-in service, is seeking volunteers to participate in the summer training program beginning May 19. There is a particular need for older and/or retired individuals to volunteer their time. The training focuses on teaching volunteers crisis management skills, problem solving strategies, suicidology, and other skills, as well as the provision of information and referrals. To register, or for additional information, call 688-0417. Ask for Dusty Staub or Maureen Byrnes. Space is limited, so please call immediately. Hassle House is a non-profit community organization which provides services through its volunteers.

OPERATION BREAKTHROUGH

• offers low-income residents programs and assistance in Employment Skills, Consumer Education, Crisis Intervention and Youth Education. Applications for these programs are now being taken between the hours of 8 a.m. and 5 p.m., Monday-Friday. For more information, call 683-8731, 682-3209, or 682-4883.

• is now offering home weatherization free of charge to qualified residents. These services include weatherstripping, replacing broken windows, attic insulation, and storm windows. For more information, call the Weatherization Coordinator at 682-0421.

• Agricultural Teams, Inc. will conduct a Peoples Farm to Market Day on June 12 from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m., back of the Old Whitted School Building at 200 East Umstead Street in Durham. Fresh fruits and vegetables may be purchased at one-third below retail price. For more information, call 682-3209 or 682-4883.

Operation Breakthrough is located at 200 East Umstead Street in Durham.

ROSE SHOW POSTPONED — Due to the unusually cool weather, the Chapel Hill Rose Society has postponed the Rose Show previously scheduled for May 28-29. The new dates are June 4-5, when it is expected that roses scheduled for display and competition will be in their prime of development. The rescheduled show will be held in Chapel Hill's University Mall in the west court.

VOLUNTEERS NEEDED — To learn about volunteer opportunities, call the Volunteer Services Bureau at 688-8977, weekdays, 9 a.m.-4 p.m.

Baseball Is Back On Cablevision!

Watch the best in baseball this season on Cablevision's Superstation, WTBS! You'll see all your favorite Major League teams in over 120 games this season.

That means you can thrill to approximately four games each week featuring all the legendary and up & coming teams. Catch all the players and games the networks may not show you — on weekdays and weekends, afternoons and evenings — whenever you feel like watching baseball excitement.

Baseball is back and it's better than ever on Cablevision's exclusive 24-hour-a-day Superstation from Atlanta on cable channel 13.

Exclusive baseball action is another reason why
Cablevision of Durham is
"Television Worth Watching.™"

Call 683-2321