Calendar and ## Announcements

THE N.C. MÜUEUM OF LIFE AND SCIENCE - 433 Murray Avenue, Durham. 477-0431. - FUNFEST: The Fourth Annual Funfest at the N.C. Museum of Life and Science will be held on Sunday, May 16, 1-5 p.m. During this free open house, there will be treasure hunts, balloons, computer activities, snake demonstrations, train rides, puppet shows, crafts, music and more. And to help avoid traffic congestion, shuttle service on the London us will be provided from the Stadium lot to the Museum for 104 one way. Raindate is May 23.

- CLASSES: Summer classes, daycamps, and workshops for all ages can be found at the NCML&S. Three daycamps for grades $1-6$ are being offered this year: Starworks, Bodyworks, and Earthworks. A sampling of the classes for varied ages include Animal Doctors; Creative Nature Crafts; Sketasaurus; Water, Water, Everywhere; Indians of Long Ago; Photography; Field Naturalist; and Feathered and Furry Animals. Workshops for telescope building and a rocket building are planned, as well as computer classes. A special week for preschoolers, Young Einsteins, is also scheduled.
SIXIX OR OVER? The Retired Senior Volunteer Program needs volunteers to drive senior citizens and handicapped persons to the grocery store, drug store, laundry, or shopping in general. You can help prevent the institutionalization of those who need this service just by giving 2 or 3 hours of your time once a week.
BSVR provides reimbursement for travel and three types of free insurance. For more information, call Ms. Helen Pressley or Ms. Kathy Walters at 596-9311, ext. 321, Durhan Technical Institute.
"YOUTH COACHES NEEDED - The Volunteer Services Bureau says youth coaches are needed to demonstrate and coach "community league" softball for teams of $6-10$ year olds. Male or female, 16 year and older, who have some free time this summer are welcome to participate. A knowledge of softball skills and rules is required.
A tutor in chemistry is needed for a 17 -year-old foster youth. She must pass this course in order to graduate and requires assistance through the re-mainder of this semester and summer.
If you are willing to help, call 688-8977 weekdays, 9 a.m. 4 p.m.

TARHEEL STORYTELLING FESTIVAL May 14-16 at Holiday Inn-North, 3050 N. Cherry St., Winston-Salem. Sponsored by the Tarheel Association of Storytellers, Inc., with the support of the W-S Arts Council and others.

Activities scheduled include workshops on puppetry, religious storytelling, stories with music, children's stories, stories from around the world, and stories for teens; a world myth and music concert featuring Laura Simms and Steve Gorn of New York City; a banquet featuring Augusta Baker and David Holt; and mini-festivals throughout the city.
A $$ 45$ registration fee is required.
A one-semester hour credit is being offered through Winston-Salem State University for teacher renewal credit or other credit as stipulated.

For additional information contact Mrs. Shirley Holloway, 818 Woodcote St., Winston-Salem 27107, (919) 727-2203 or 788-8948.
