

Miss Angela Brunson Wins Miss Honeydoll Title

Little Miss Angela Brunson was crowned Miss Honeydoll 1982 last month when Alpha Theta Chapter of Eta Phi Beta Sorority, Inc., held its annual Honeydoll Pageant at Shepard Junior High School Auditorium.

Fifteen girls between the ages of 8 and 12 participated. Runners-up were: Miss Sharon Fozard, second place; Miss Rhonda Alston, third place; Miss LeQuenta Manley, fourth; Miss Michele Harris, fifth; and Miss Katrina Boykin, sixth.

Other participants were Misses Kimberly Burnette, Jeneane Jones, Mary Bell, April Mickens, Nakeia Owens, Tenia Harris, Willie Bass, Renee Rogers, Jennifer Paris.

Each Honeydoll received a gift and a trophy. The "dolls" enjoyed a variety of activities which included a skating party.

The Honeydoll Pageant is the annual fundraising project of Alpha Theta Chapter. Proceeds are awarded to local high school seniors as scholarships and to a student at a local college; and are used to give financial assistance to the Sara Barker Center, Murdock Center, Butner; and to the Shelly School in Raleigh. The National and Local Project is the support of mentally retarded citizens.

The theme for the Honeydoll Pageant this year was "Awake, 'Tis Spring". Narrators were Sandy Bass and Tammie Hamilton. Program coordinator was Mrs. Clara Jones. Entertainment was presented by the Shepard Dance Group, a tumbling class from Club Boulevard School and dance groups from Burton School.

Music was provided by Ms. Brenda Lovely.

College View Bridge Club

Winners in the College View Bridge Club on May 6 were: First place, Mrs. Mary Duncan and Douglas Kennitz; second place, Mr. and Mrs. Curtis Norris; third place, Mrs. Hedy Echard and Tom Hunt.

Nursing Graduates To Organize

Alumnae and alumni of the department of nursing at North Carolina Central University will meet to organize a departmental alumni association at 4 p.m., Friday, May 14, at the university's Alfonso Elder Student Union.

The group will receive a draft of a constitution and by-laws for the new organization, which will be open to all holders of baccalaureate degrees in nursing from NCCU. The proposed organization will be an affiliate of the university's general Alumni Association.

Information is available from Mrs. Lauretta Hayes at (919) 688-5441 and Mrs. Gwen Jones at (919) 683-6322.

WSSU Chancellor Named To CASE Board

WINSTON-SALEM — Dr. Douglas Covington, chancellor of Winston-Salem State University, has been elected to the Board of Trustees of the Council for Advancement and Support of Education (CASE). He will begin his two-year term as a trustee-at-large at the CASE annual meeting in July.

As a CASE board member, Dr. Covington will help develop policies and programs for the organization which has 2300 member institutions. Dr. Covington also serves on the Board of Directors of the American Association of State Colleges and Universities and the Board of Directors of the Winston-Salem/Forsyth County Red Cross, W-S/FC United Way, W-S/FC Chamber of Commerce and North Carolina Health Commission. He has been chancellor at Winston-Salem State since July, 1977.

Baby Contest Winners

A baby contest was sponsored by Mrs. Jo-Anne F. Jones, 1982 NAACP Mother of the Year, in an effort to raise funds for her campaign and in support of the Durham Branch NAACP. The winner was Master Philip Liverpool who is seven months old; second runner-up was Master Travis Sentel Mercer, two years old; and third runner-up was Little Miss Martina Fuller, nine months old.

The winner and second runner-up were presented a Certificate of Appreciation and a trophy and the third runner-up was presented a Certificate of Appreciation in recognition of their dedicated contributions. These presentations were made by Mrs. Jones on Sunday May 9, at Union Baptist Church where Dr. Grady D. Davis is pastor.

Other participants in this contest were Little Miss Alison Clement, Master "Herbie" S. Jones, Jr., Master James "Jamie" Jones, Little Miss Ebony Nisbett, Master Tarik Totten, Little Misses Dwanna Lea and Leyanna Denise Walters.

Congratulations were extended from Dr. Davis and the Union Baptist Church family and Mrs. Jones to all participants and their parents for an outstanding job.

Mrs. Edith M. Johnson Gets Durham Delta Honor

Mrs. Edith Malone Johnson was awarded The Merrick-Fisher-Spaulling Award, the highest honor that the Durham Alumnae Chapter, Delta Sigma Theta Sorority bestows upon a member in recognition of outstanding volunteer public service in the community; for her faith in youth, compassion for her fellowman, and her devotion to Delta. The award was presented by Soror Beatrice Allen during the annual May Week Observance Banquet held at the W.G. Pearson Cafeteria, North Carolina Central University, Durham. Mrs. Johnson is a teacher and coach at the Shepard Junior High School. She is the daughter of the late William and Mrs. Ruth Malone.

Mid-50's Aggie Omegas Reunite

Brothers of Omega Psi Phi Fraternity who attended North Carolina A&T State University (Greensboro) during the mid-Fifties met in Washington, D.C. during April 23-25 for a Fraternal Re-Union. Believed to be the first undergraduate fraternity reunion and called a "Mu Psi Happening (55-57)", after the chapter's name and year(s) in which each brother was an undergraduate member, many of the brothers had not seen one another in over 25 years. Called together by Warren E. Williams, president of the Washington, D.C. Chapter of NCA&T State University Alumni, the Omegas chose to attend the Annual Tri-Alumni Scholarship Dance as one of their many social functions. The Tri-Alumni Dance, with this year's "Let's Go Western" theme, is held each Spring and is sponsored by the alumni of NCA&T State University, Hampton Institute and Morgan. The dance was attended by more than 3500 alumni, friends and guests of the three schools.
