

Calendar & Announcements

FINANCIAL AID FOR SCHOOL — EOC (Educational Opportunity Center) has the latest information on federal campus-based and independent aid funds and a counselor available to assist you.

Financial Aid Forms (FAF), Family Financial Statements (FFS) and Basic Grant (BEOG) applications are available at the EOC satellite office, 208 S. Main St., Roxboro. Call your nearest EOC satellite office today: Bragtown Library, 1-5 p.m., Friday, Ms. Dorothy Yarborough; Durham County Library, 1-5 p.m., Tuesday and Thursday, Ms. Elizabeth Davis; Ms. Sheila Smith, W.D. Hill Recreation Center, Thursdays, 2-6 p.m.

FREE MOVIES — The Durham County Public Library presents a feature movie each Saturday at 3 p.m., in the auditorium. No admission is charged. The next scheduled movie, May 29, is "Lost Horizon", directed by Frank Capra, with Ronald Colemand and Jane Wyatt. A plan carrying foreigners out of war-torn China crashes in the mountains of Tibet. The survivors stumble upon the magical land of Shangri-Law, where the weather is always good, disease and hardship unknown, and people gentle and kind. (1937, 110 min., b&w)

DURHAM COUNTY SCHOOLS MENUS MAY 24 - 28

Breakfast:

Monday — Cinnamon toast, applesauce, milk.

Lunch:

Monday — Pizza, lettuce wedge wressing, peach half, cake w/icing, milk.

TENNIS TOURNAMENT — The Durham Junior Novice Tennis Tournament sponsored by the Durham Parks and Recreation Department will be held at the Rock Quarry Tennis Courts June 14-17. Tourney is open to players 12-18 years old. Applications are available at City Tennis Courts or call 683-4355 to obtain one. Entry fee is $9 for singles and $10 for doubles. Application deadline is June 4 at 4:30 p.m.

THE N.C. MUSEUM OF ART, 107 E. Morgan St., Raleigh, is open Tues.-Sat., 10 a.m.-5 p.m.; Sun., 2-6 p.m. (Closed Mondays and state holidays.) Admission is free. For information, phone 833-1935 or weekends, 733-3248.

Through June 13: "Forty North Carolina Artists", an exhibition of paintings commissioned by Philip Morris, Inc.

JOB HUNTING TIPS FOR TEENS Teens looking for jobs this summer should stop first at the Durham County Library to pick up a free brochure, Job Hunting Tips For Teens. Designed as a cooperative effort by Project LIFT and the Young Adult Section, "Tips" gives helpful advice on where to go to look for jobs, how to get a work permit and how to make a good impression at an interview. A list of additional readings is also included.

Copies are available at all branches of Durham County Library, and at Project LIFT (683-2626, ext. 31, or come to the LIFT office, 2nd floor, Durham County Library, 300 N. Roxboro St.) and the Reference Department at the main library.

NCCU ARTISTS: NEW HORIZONS — The North Carolina Central University Museum of Art exhibit, during summer school. Museum hours: Tuesday-Friday, 9 a.m.-5 p.m., Sunday, 2-5 p.m. Admission free.

SUMMER EXHIBITS — Duke University Union Galleries schedule: Bryan Gallery in the Bryan Center-through June 8, Tina Guild and Sandra Milroy, weavers; June 9-July 17-Kate Fetteroff.

HEALTH NIGHT OUT — "Sickle Cell and Thalassemia" is the topic of the June 1 program. Dr. Thomas R. Kinney, assistant professor of pediatrics, will be the resource person. All "Health Night Out" programs take place at 7:30 p.m., in the second floor amphitheater of the hospital's North Division on Erwin Road. Free to the public.

CREATIVE WRITERS' WEEK on the Duke University campus, June 28-July 2, is now accepting applications. The weeklong program includes intensive morning workshops in four areas of specialization: Poetry with James Applewhite, Script Writing with Hal Crowther, Writing for Children with Linda Hirschmann, and Fiction Writing with Lee Smith. In addition to daily speakers series, the seminar includes individual script conference and small group sessions daily. Fee is $135. For an application and further details, write to Ms. Marilyn Hartman, Continuing Education, Duke University, Durham, NC 27708, or phone (919) 684-6259.

CRAFTS CLASSES — The Duke University Craft Center will offer classes or workshops in 12 crafts this summer. The crafts are pottery, photography, silkscreen on fabric, batik, jewelry, weaving, soft sculpture, hammock making, marbled paper, camera use, quilting and basic patchwork.

Registration will be held from 11 a.m. to 5 p.m., Monday through Friday until the date the respective classes and workshops are held. Registration will be in the Bryan University Center's University Union Office.

For further information, call 684-2911 or write Duke Craft Center, Box KM, Duke Station, Durham, NC 27706.

YOUTH ENRICHMENT PROGRAM — Operation Breakthrough is holding registration for its Youth Enrichment Program. YEP is for low-income high school students who want tutorial assistance to improve their school work. If you are having trouble with your school work or if you know someone who is having school work trouble, come by Operation Breakthrough or call Donald Daniels at 683-8731.

DO YOU NEED A JOB? The Job Opportunity Center at Operation Breakthrough can teach you job planning and job hunting skills and offers assistance in finding a job. To find out if you qualify, come to the Intake Office at Operation Breakthrough, South Roxboro and Umstead Streets, or call 683-8731.

THE N.C. MUSEUM OF LIFE AND SCIENCE — 433 Murray Avenue, Durham. 477-0431.

• JUNIOR CURATOR PROGRAM: WANTED: 12 highly motivated junior or senior high students interested in science for the Museum's Junior Curator program. Junior Curators will learn about all parts of the Museum, help with a special project, and take field trips to places such as the N.C. Museum of Natural History, Duke Primate Center, and Bogue Bank Marine Resource Center.

Junior Curators meet weekly through the summer and will continue to meet each month during the school year. Interested students entering grades 7-12 should call the Museum's education department at 477-0431 to apply for the program that begins on June 15.

• PETTING ZOO: The NCML&S offers a closer look at the barnyard animals every Saturday at 10:30 a.m. The Petting Zoo allows children to ask questions about the animals, touch them, and help to feed them.

• EXHIBIT — Visitors can relive an exciting decade on interplanetary exploration in an exhibition of spectacular color photographs of the sun, the planets, and their moons, on display at the NCML&S from May 29 to July 11. "Exploration of the Planets" displays 31 of NASA's most significant and visually stunning photographs resulting from the past ten years of space exploration. Outstanding in the collection are four outsized photographs of Venus, Jupiter, Saturn, and the sun, and a full view of Earth taken by the 1982 Apollo mission. Also featured are views of Saturn from the 1980 flyby of Voyager I. The exhibition was produced by the Association of Science-Technology Centers with the assistance of the National Aeronautics and Space Administration.

Many activities are planned to make "Exploration of the Planets" a more complete experience. For complete information schedule, contact the Museum.

• ROCKET CLUB: Will meet at 10 a.m. on May 29. Members must be at least age 10 or accompanied by an adult. For more information, call Georgia Searles.

LOOKING FOR EXCITEMENT? Why not go to "Chicago"?... the dazzling blockbuster musical, that is. Theatre in the Park (Raleigh) is offering you the hottest ticket in the Triangle Area when it presents the Bob Fosse/Fred Ebb hit musical on May 29, 30 and June 2-6 at 8:15 p.m. Tickets for adults $5; students and seniors, $4. "Chicago" is a stunning musical that brings the roaring twenties back to life with a glamorous, satirical view of a decadent era in our history. Call 755-6058 for your advance reservations today!

THE VOLUNTEER SERVICES BUREAU reports that opportunities are available for youth ages 13 and up as volunteers in the Summer Youth Program. Young people can become involved in a hospital, library, museum, office, and various other areas during the summer months. Helping others is a rewarding experience and volunteer service offers individuals a chance to gain valuable work references for the future.

For more details on this program, call 688-8977 weekdays, 9 a.m.-4 p.m.

NATIONAL YOUTH SPORTS PROGRAM — N.C. Central University, Summer Program is scheduled for June 21-July 29, 11:30 a.m.-5:30 p.m. for ages 10-18.

Program will provide sports activities and enrichment programs daily, Monday through Thursday, at no cost to the children. Physical examinations, t-shirts, two meals daily and insurance will be provided.

Applications may be picked up May 29 and June 5 at NCCU Men's Gym. Physicals will be given both Saturdays from 9-12 a.m.

VOLLEYBALL SUMMER LEAGUE — All girls or girl volleyball teams between the ages of 13-18 interested in a summer league should contact Fredrick Sidberry at the Weaver Street Center at 683-4294.

AUCTION — The fourth annual Partners/WRAL-TV Auction to raise funds for the organization which helps troubled young people will be held Saturday, June 5, at the Kerr-Scott Pavillion, N.C. State Fairgrounds.

Partners recruits and trains adult volunteers to work one-on-one with young people who are in trouble or in need of help.

The auction will be televised live on WRAL-TV, Channel 5, from noon until midnight. Viewers will be able to call in bids on new retail merchandise and services donated by area merchants.

Volunteers are needed to continue support in the Partners programs. Persons interested in learning more about Partners, or the Partners Auction, an call 828-1140.

TEACHERS' SEMINAR — June 7 is the registration deadline for a seminar in Raleigh on "Studies in Renaissance Expression" open to N.C. teachers of grades 9-12. Participation will be limited to the first 100 applicants. Those wishing to participate should mail a check for $35, payable to the N.C. Museum of Art, by June 7 to the Education Department, N.C. Museum of Art, 2110 Blue Ridge Blvd., Raleigh, NC 27607. The fee covers the costs of resource materials and of processing credit renewal.

For details and a brochure, phone the Museum of Art's education department at (919) 833-1935.

SIXTY OR OVER — The Retired Senior Volunteer Program needs you. Volunteers are needed to prepare soup and sandwiches for lunch to be served to the needy at a local church (3 hours, once a week); and drivers are needed to transport the elderly and handicapped to the grocery store, drug store, etc. (approximately 1½ hours, once a week).

RSVP provides travel reimbursement and free insurance. For more information, call Ms. Helen Pressley or Ms. Kathy Walters at 596-9311, ext. 321, Durham Technical Institute.

Kyanize

D. PAINT

For All Your Painting Needs

In the Imperial Bldg
Morris St., Durham, N.C.
Phone 688-2338