YOUTH TENNIS — The Durham Parks and Recreation Department, in cooperation with the South Durham Youth Athletics Association, is offering tennis fundamentals clinics for youth ages 5-12, at W.D. Hill Tennis Courts, June 5 and 12, 10 a.m. Free.

On-site instruction will be provided. Register at W.D. Hill Center (683-4292) or at the Durham Parks and Recreation Department, 101 City Hall Plaza (683-4355). Parents and interested adults are encouraged to attend.

SUMMER PROGRAMS — The W.D. Hill Recreation Center will be offering summer programs and classes for all age groups.

Adult classes will include ceramics, aerobic slim-nastics, photography, beginning sewing, modern and African dance, crafts (crocheting or macrame), lamp shade designing, and Kung-Fu.

Pre-teens may take modern and African dance, gymnastics, and baton twirling.

Senior citizens classes will include physical exercise, advanced macrame, ceramics, crocheting, and flower arranging.

Teens may register for the Summer Teen Camp which will include swimming, physical exercise, tennis, crafts, and photography classes, trips to the Asheboro Zoo, Busch Gardens and others.

For more information, call 683-4292.

YOUTH TENNIS — The Durham Parks and Recreation Department is sponsoring youth tennis clinics to begin in mid-June. Participants will be registered on a first-come, first-serve basis until all classes are filled.

The focus of the classes will be on fundamentals and skills rather than competition. Youth age five (5) through twelve (12) will be included. The clinics will be located at Whippoorwill Park. Please contact the Durham Parks and Recreation Department, 683-4355 for further information.

Deadline for application is June 18.

GENEALOGY FOR BEGINNERS CLASS — There are still a few vacancies in a free Genealogy for Beginners class to be held at the Durham County Library on three Thursday evenings, June 10, 17 and 24, from 7:30 to 9 p.m., in the third floor Conference Room. To register, phone Ms. Anne Berkley, 683-2626.

RAPE VICTIMS — Volunteers are available 24-hours a day by calling the crisis line at 967-7273 (967-RAPE), Chapel Hill. A report can be made without the victim identifying himself or herself.

BEVERLY COTTON IN CONCERT — The Durham YWCA will present Beverly Cotton, singer, dancer and banjo player, in concert on Tuesday, June 22, at 7 p.m. Miss Cotton, who has appeared from Carnegie Hall to the Spoleto Festival, is a talented performer. Her unique performance was recently featured on a PBS television special, in which she represented North Carolina's traditional music and dance. As she plays the banjo, sings and dances, she encourages her audience to participate. She has them on their feet as she guides them through the dances of their grandparents — with exotic names such as the "wagon wheel", the buck-dance and the flat-foot. Others are ready to learn to play the spoons they've brought along. Her performance is truly an entertaining evening for the whole family!

The show will be held on the YWCA grounds at 809 Proctor Street. Admission will be $3 for adults and $2 for children. Bring a blanket or lawn chair. Refreshments will be available. Call 688-4396 for further information.

SUMMER FILM SERIES — begins at the Chapel Hill Public Library, 523 East Franklin Street in June. Admission is free. All films are shown on Tuesday and Wednesday, beginning at 7 p.m. Please use Boundary Street entrance for parking.

June 8-9: "Foreign Correspondent", (1940, 120 min., B&W). Director: Alfred Hitchcock. Doesn't that tell you everything except: a) it's based on the book by V. Sheean; b) whodunit?

TAKE A VACATION AT THE LIBRARY — A travel film series at Durham County Library on will continue through the end of July. Films will be shown at 7 p.m., on Wednesday and at 10:30 a.m., on Thursday mornings in the Main Library Auditorium. The series is free and the public is invited.

DO YOU USE VIOLENCE TO SOLVE PROBLEMS you and your wife? Your girlfriend? You don't have to. There are alternatives to mate abuse and there are people interested in helping you learn. CHANGE: a men's counseling program on domestic violence offers counseling to men who are violent against their mates. Call Hassle House in Durham at 688-4353 and ask for a CHANGE counselor.

FINANCIAL AID FOR SCHOOL — EOC (Educational Opportunity Center) has the latest information on federal campus-based and independent aid funds and a counselor available to assist you.

Financial Aid Forms (FAF), Family Financial Statements (FFS) and Basic Grant (BEOG) applications are available at the EOC satellite office, 208 S. Main St., Roxboro. Call your nearest EOC satellite office today: Bragtown Library, 1-5 p.m., Friday, Ms. Dorothy Yarborough; Durham County Library, 1-5 p.m., Tuesday and Thursday, Ms. Elizabeth Davis; Ms. Sheila Smith, W.D. Hill Recreation Center, Thursdays, 2-6 p.m.

FREE MOVIES — The Durham County Public Library presents a feature movie each Saturday at 3 p.m., in the auditorium. No admission is charged. The next scheduled movie, June 5, is "Open City", directed by Roberto Rossellini with Anna Magani. Classic example of Italian neorealism, in which a Resistance leader and a sympathetic priest are haunted by the Gestapo. Passionate and intense, the film derives its power from its skillful blend of documentary and fictional techniques and an extraordinary performance by Anna Magnani.

DURHAM COUNTY SCHOOLS MENUS JUNE 1-9
