

Educator's Sorority Observes Founders' Day

Beta Zeta Chapter and sister chapters — Alpha Iota of Concord, and Beta Lambda of Winston-Salem — celebrated Founders' Day on May 23 with morning worship at St. Titus Episcopal Church. The Reverend Calvin R. Griffin is rector.

An afternoon program was held at the Ramada Inn. Invocation was given by Mrs. Catherine S. Barnes, M.Div., St. Titus Episcopal Church. Soror Julia W. Harris, founder of the local chapter, read the Founders' Day Message from Supreme Basileus Rubye Couche and Regional Director Juanita High. Other sorors participating in the program were: Hazel Lipscomb, presiding; Maggie Henry, Beta Zeta Basileus; Frances C. Waddell, Alpha Iota Basileus; Daisy Staton, Beta Lambda Basileus; Wilhelmina Bridges, Rubestene Potter, Junitruella Tharrington, Jessie Giles and Lula Warren.

Special guests were Lenzie G. Barnes and Attorney Henry D. Gamble. Husbands of members attending were Aaron C. Armwood, J.E. Cromartie and J.H. Solice.

Soror Maggie Henry presented ceramic ashtrays to the husbands and jewelry boxes to the sorors.

The closed candle lighting service, which is the rededication of members to the principles of the national sorority, ended the day's observance.
