Kiddie Kollege Holds Graduation Ceremony

It was a big night for a lot of little people as Kiddie Kollege Day Care Center recently presented its annual pre-kindergarten graduation program entitled, "We Know Our Stuff" at the St. Joseph's Church auditorium.

The bright-eyed tots proved to a proud audience just how much they did know. They said a prayer, alphabet, poems and songs aplenty, and not a word was missed as the Pledge of Allegiance to the Flag was belted out.

Then, there was silence and thundering applause for the crowning of King Kenneth Beckford and Queen April Adams, for highest candy or ticket sales. Runners-up were Carlos Sanford and Kinetta Cagle with an honorable mention for Monique Hedgepeth.

To highlight the evening, five little graduates in yellow academic caps and gowns marched to the tune of Pomp and Circumstance as, Center Director, Mrs. Lorraine J. Stith, awarded diplomas to Kenneth Beckford, Nikia Thomas, Tara Umstead, Marcus Vann and Desmond Yarborough.

Mrs. Sonja Beckford, president of the Parents Group, was awarded an honorary diploma for her outstanding leadership and enthusiasm as a parent and as a friend to Kiddie Kollege.

Mrs. Beckford then presented gifts to all candy sale and program participants.

Another big event at Kiddie Kollege this year was a recent trip to the North Carolina Museum of Art in Raleigh, followed by a picnic at Pullen Park for the children and their parents, teachers and friends.
