

Carowinds Plans Special Events For Fourth of July 4

CHARLOTTE — In celebration of the 4th of July, Carowinds will be extending park hours and hosting special events which include a circus, added paladium entertainment and a fireworks display.

Park officials stated that operating hours will be extended through July 4 with the park staying open from 10 a.m. to 10 p.m.

Carowinds, normally closed on Fridays, will be open on Friday, July 2.

Paladium entertainment

during this weekend will include The Temptations with Roger and Zapp on July 2, T.G. Sheppard with the Wright Brothers on July 3 and the Osmond Brothers featuring Donny and Marie Osmond on July 4.

Special circus performances will be presented daily at Carowinds through July 11.

The performances in the County Fair section of the park will include clowns, animal acts, comedy routines and a daring high wire performance by the famous Tino Wallenda. Admission to the circus will be free to park guests once inside the park.

The Temptations, who've been recording for over two decades, will perform one show in the Paladium on Friday, July 2 at 8 p.m. The group has won three Grammys and several gold and platinum awards for such hits as "The Way You Do The Things You Do", "My Girl", "Get Ready", "Ain't Too Proud To Beg", "Can't Get Next To You" and "Papa Was A Rolling Stone".

T.G. Sheppard, performing in the Paladium at 3 and 8 p.m. on Saturday, July 3, began his recording career in 1974. Since joining with Warner Brothers in 1977, Sheppard has had a string of number one songs on the country charts including "Loved 'Em Every One", "Only One You" and his latest crossover hit "Finally".

The music of the Osmonds is known nationwide to all ages. Since 1969 when Donny joined his brothers and formed the "Osmond Brothers", the group has appeared in sellout world tours, performed for the Royal Family and received numerous awards and honors for such songs as

"Down by the Lazy River" and "Make The World Go Away".

Today the Osmond Brothers consist of Alan, Wayne, Merrill and Jay. Donny and Marie Osmond will be appearing with the Osmond Brothers in their July 4 Paladium shows at 2 and 7 p.m.

Admission to all concerts during Fourth of July week is $3 in addition to regular park admission of $10.95. Tickets are sold at Carowinds on the day of the show on a first-come, first-served basis.

Concluding the day's activities on the 4th of July will be a spectacular firework display at 10 p.m.

Carowinds, located on I-77 at the North Carolina/South Carolina border, is now open daily (except Fridays).
