

Calendar & Announcements

SIXTY OR OVER* Seniors and handicapped persons in your community are in desperate need of transportation to the grocery store, bank and drug store. If their needs cannot be met, many will have to be institutionalized before it is really necessary. The number of days per month that you drive and the time you give can be arranged for your convenience.

RSVP provides travel reimbursement and free insurance. For more information, call Ms. Helen Pressley or Ms. Kathy Walters at 596-9311, ext. 321, Durham Technical Institute.

GETTING A JOB IS HARD WORK. You need special skills to help. Operation Breakthrough offers classes just for you. If you are unemployed or only working part-time, you may qualify for a two week employment skills class which can help you find a job. If you are interested, call Operation Breakthrough at 683-8731. All applicants must report to the Intake Office. Operation Breakthrough is an equal opportunity employer and program.

JUST OPEN A BOOK is the theme for Durham County Library's summer reading program. Children preschool through sixth grade are invited to sign up for the program at any library location.

Children started reading in the program on Monday, June 14 and will continue through August 7. Reading lists and game sheets featuring JOAB frog and his friends will be given to the first 1400 children who complete and report on a book. Those children completing ten or more books will receive certificates and be invited to an awards picnic.

Children who cannot read to themselves may participate by having someone read to them, then reporting on their books.

Many programs have been planned for children in relation to the theme "Just Open A Book". Programs such as stories, song fests, dramas, and films will be featured at various branches and the Main Library. Contact individual branches or the Main Library for dates and times.

DANCE COURSE — New Performing Dance Company School offers a two-week intensive dance course for students 9-14 years old. Modern and ballet classes will be held every day, July 5-16. Call 688-1138 for more information and registration.

THE N.C. MUSEUM OF LIFE AND SCIENCE — 433 Murray Avenue, Durham, 477-0431.

• PETTING ZOO: Offering a closer look at the barnyard animals every Saturday at 10:30 a.m. The Petting Zoo allows children to ask questions about the animals, touch them, and help to feed them.

• EXHIBIT — "Exploration of the Planets", an exhibition of color photographs of the sun, the planets, and their moons, will be on display at the NCML&S through July 11. In conjunction with the exhibit, special activities have been planned. On July 3 & 4, at 3:30 p.m., there will be Starlab, portable planetarium, programs. On July 9-11 at 3:30 p.m., the 28-minute NASA film "Universe" will be shown. No additional costs other than admission for these programs.

• CLASSES — Interested in using photography to increase your appreciation of the natural environment? Register for the Eco-Photography class at the NCML&S. Class participants, grades 6-8, will do a field study, learn special photographic techniques, and produce a slide show. For complete information and registration, call the Museum at 477-0431.

ALL-CLASSES REUNION — A Durham College All-Classes Reunion will be held Saturday, August 28, 11 a.m.-5 p.m., at the home of Mrs. L.M. Harris, 304 East Umstead Street, Durham.

The event will be in the form of a potluck lunch-dinner on the lawn. All former faculty, graduates and students of Durham College are invited to attend and bring a dish to share. While there are no fees or charges, persons planning to attend are asked to notify Mrs. Gwendolyn Suitt at (919) 544-7459, Durham, as soon as possible.

TRAINING FOR VOLUNTEER COUNSELORS — The Orange-Durham YWCA Coalition for Battered Women is offering a 30-hour training program for men and women interested in becoming volunteer Advocates for Battered Women. The first session, an orientation to the Coalition, will be held Thursday, July 8, 7-9:30 p.m. at the Durham YWCA. Remaining sessions will be held on Tuesday and Thursday evenings through August 10 in Durham and Chapel Hill. There will be one Saturday session on July 24.

"Secret Ingredient" Makes Great Dessert Simple

"Show-stopping" desserts are a must for parties and special family events. Somehow, they need to be homemade — and easy to prepare — and create an impact when served.

Creative cooks depend on quality convenience products to streamline ingredient lists and preparation time, while producing "show-stopping" desserts. Kraft marshmallow creme, for example, contributes a delectable smoothness to frozen confections, produces almost foolproof meringues, and makes a delicious, rich sauce, such as the ginger-flavored dessert sauces served over fruit-filled Ginger Peachy Pancake.

If you have a favorite family recipe made simple with the "secret ingredient", it could earn you $5,000 in the 1982 Kraft Marshmallow Creme "Easy Secret Ingredient" Recipe Contest. Just submit the recipe in one of the three recipe categories — "Make-Ahead Treats", "Special Occasion Desserts", or "Desserts For the Family". Be careful to follow the rules exactly, as an error or omission could disqualify the entry.

Consumers can obtain full contest rules by sending their name and address to: Rules, Kraft Marshmallow Creme "Easy Secret Ingredient" Recipe Contest, P.O. Box 11192, Chicago, IL. 60611.

Ginger Peachy Pancake

1 7-oz. jar Kraft marshmallow creme
 1/2 cup dairy sour cream
 1/8 teaspoon ginger
 1/2 cup milk
 2 eggs
 1/2 cup flour
 1/4 teaspoon salt
 1 tablespoon Parkay margarine
 3 cups peach slices
 1 cup blueberries
 1/4 cup slivered almonds, toasted

Combine marshmallow creme, sour cream and ginger, mixing with electric mixer or wire whisk until well blended.

Combine milk, eggs, flour and salt; beat until smooth. Heat in heavy oven-proof 8 to 10-inch skillet at 450°, 5 minutes or until very hot. Add margarine to coat skillet at 450°, 10 minutes. Reduce oven temperature to 350°; continue baking 10 minutes or until golden brown. Fill with combined fruit; top with marshmallow creme mixture. Sprinkle with almonds. Serve immediately.
