

Calendar & Announcements

JAZZ IN THE PARKS — The second and final concert of the "Jazz in the Parks" series will be held Saturday, July 10, at West Point on the Eno Park (located on Roxboro Road across from Riverview Shopping Center). Featured in this concert will be the Chuck Davis Dancers and Brother Yusuf & Friends starring jazz vocalist Eve Cornelious.

Starting time for the concert is 6 p.m., and the public is cordially invited free of charge to the performance.

For more information, contact Gaston Patterson at the Durham Recreation Department (683-4355) or Richard Lee at the Durham Arts Council (682-5519).

PREREGISTRATION for the 1982 fall semester at N.C. State University ends Wednesday, July 14, at the McKimmon Center, corner of Western Boulevard and Gorman Street, Raleigh. Hours are 8 a.m.-8 p.m., Monday through Thursday and 8 a.m.-5 p.m., Friday. For further information, call 737-2265.

SUMMER PLAYGROUND REGISTRATION - Carrboro Recreation and Parks Department is continuing registration for the Wilson Park Summer Playground Program.

The program is designed for children ages 6-12 and includes activities in arts and crafts, organized and individual sports and games, music, nature study, trips and special events. Supervision and instruction are provided by a supervisor and two playground leaders.

This year's program will consist of two 4-week sessions. Participants may register for Session II: July 19-August 13. Program hours are Monday-Thursday: 9 a.m.-5 p.m., and Friday: 9 a.m.-4 p.m. The program is not held on raindays.

There is a registration fee of $42. A $5 deposit will be required to hold spaces for the second session. All fees once paid are nonrefundable.

For more information, call 942-8541, extension 203.

THE BIMBE CULTURAL ARTS FESTIVAL, a summer tradition in Durham, will expand to a week in length as it moves to the campus of North Carolina Central University, July 18-24. Admission free events include:

- Opening Ceremony with Chuck Davis Dance Company, 5 p.m., Library Bowl, NCCU, Sunday, July 18.

- "Black Images in Film", a film festival with Thalmus Rasulala and Tom Evans, 7:30 p.m., B.N. Duke Auditorium:

- Monday, July 19, "The Battle of Algiers"

- Tuesday, July 20, "Burn"

- Wednesday, July 21, "The Harder They Come"

- Thursday, July 22, "Cornbread, Earl and Me"

- Gospel Extravaganza, 7:30 p.m., University Theatre, Farrison-Newton Communications Building, Friday, July 23.

- Community Festival, with music, crafts, food and children's activities, 1-8 p.m., Library Bowl, NCCU, Saturday, July 24. (Rain date: July 31.)

Bimbe is sponsored by the Durham Parks and Recreation Department, NCCU, and Radio Station WDUR.

OUTDOOR GOSPEL CONCERT — The Durham Parks and Recreation Dept. and WSRC Radio Station will sponsor an Outdoor Gospel Concert on Sunday, July 11 at 6 p.m. Walltown Park and Guess Road. Featuring the Sensational Angels, the famous Jordanaires, and Dave Hall and the Evening Five. Free and open to the public.

FRISBEE CONTEST — For ages 12-15 and 11 and under, boys and girls, starting week of July 12 at summer Recreation sites throughout the city.

Champions can advance to World Finals with a chance at a $1,000 U.S. Savings Bond.

For more information and to enter, call your nearest recreation program site or Gaston Patterson at 683-4355.

THE STUDIO DANCE SCHOOL Summer school program includes classes in beginning gymnastics, tap, ballet, jazz and aerobics. Call M-T-W, 5-7 p.m., 682-6382.

SIXTY OR OVER * Seniors and handicapped persons in your community are in desperate need of transportation to the grocery store, bank and drug store. If their needs cannot be met, many will have to be institutionalized before it is really necessary. The number of days per month that you drive and the time you give can be arranged for your convenience.

RSVP provides travel reimbursement and free insurance. For more information, call Ms. Helen Pressley or Ms. Kathy Walters at 596-9311, ext. 321, Durham Technical Institute.

GETTING A JOB IS HARD WORK. You need special skills to help. Operation Breakthrough offers classes just for you. If you are unemployed or only working part-time, you may qualify for a two week employment skills class which can help you find a job. If you are interested, call Operation Breakthrough at 683-8731. All applicants must report to the Intake Office. Operation Breakthrough is an equal opportunity employer and program.

RECYCLE ALUMINUM — All-aluminum beverage cans, pie plates, foil, frozen food and dinner trays, dip, pudding and meat containers, siding, gutters, storm door and window frames, lawn furniture tubing — can be sold for extra cash.

Effective through September 30, Reynolds will purchase all-aluminum beverage cans and other properly-prepared recyclable aluminum products directly from consumers at Northgate Shopping Center in Durham, Tuesday through Saturday, 9-11 a.m.; in Chapel Hill at Bay City Ice & Party Beverage (Franklin St. at Merritt Mill Rd.), Tuesday through Saturday, noon-1 p.m.; in Raleigh at Reynolds Aluminum Recycling Co., 2807 Industrial Drive, Monday through Saturday, 9 a.m.-4:30 p.m.

Additional information is available by calling toll-free 1-800-228-2525.

THE N.C. MUSEUM OF LIFE AND SCIENCE — 433 Murray Avenue, Durham. 477-0431.

- PETTING ZOO: Offering a closer look at the barnyard animals every Saturday at 10:30 a.m. The Petting Zoo allows children to ask questions about the animals, touch them, and help to feed them.

- EXHIBIT — "Exploration of the Planets", an exhibition of color photographs of the sun, the planets, and their moons, will be on display at the NCML&S through July 11. In conjunction with the exhibit, special activities have been planned. On July 9-11 at 3:30 p.m., the 28-minute NASA film "Universe" will be shown. No additional costs other than admission for these programs.

- CLASSES — Interested in using photography to increase your appreciation of the natural environment? Register for the Eco-Photography class at the NCML&S. Class participants, grades 6-8, will do a field study, learn special photographic techniques, and produce a slide show. For complete information and registration, call the Museum at 477-0431.

- WORLD'S FAIR — Don't miss this chance of a lifetime! Travel through the beautiful Smokey Mountains to Knoxville, Tennessee to the 1982 World's Fair. Fare includes two nights lodging, two days fair admission, luggage tags and porter service. October 8-10. Deposit is required.

- Williamsburg, Va. — Discover early America in beautifully restored Williamsburg historic Jamestown settlement. Scheduled for early fall 1982. Saturday, September 11. Deposit is required.

Reservations for both trips are due August 15. Call the YWCA, 809 Proctor St., for further information, 688-4396.

The name Puerto Rico was changed to Porto Rico when the island became governed by the U.S. in 1899. In 1932, Congress restored the original spelling.

Doug Clark And The Hot Nuts

Will return to Durham Saturday, July 17, showcasing their inimitable musical style in appearance at the Civic Center. Presented by the Ladies' Auxiliary of the Gray Club, Inc., proceeds from the performance will benefit the Lincoln Community Health Center Building Fund. Individual and group ticket arrangements may be made by calling Mrs. Barbara Lassiter, 477-9140; Ms. Brenda Riley, 477-0710 or Mrs. Millie R. Snider, 471-8031.