Youth

SUMMER PLAYGROUND REGISTRATION - Carrboro Recreation and Parks Department is continuing registration for the Wilson Park Summer Playground Program.

The program is designed for children ages 6-12 and includes activities in arts and crafts, organized and individual sports and games, music, nature study, trips and special events. Supervision and instruction are provided by a supervisor and two playground leaders.

This year's program consists of two 4-week sessions. Participants may register for Session II: July 19-August 13. Program hours are Monday-Thursday: 9 a.m.-5 p.m., and Friday: 9 a.m.-4 p.m. The program is not held on raindays.

There is a registration fee of $42. A $5 deposit will be required to hold spaces for the second session. All fees once paid are nonrefundable.

For more information, call 942-8541, extension 203.

JOIN THE FUN CARAVAN - Durham's Mobile Day Camp program for 5-12 year olds provides sports, games, music, drama, arts and crafts. Also a special preschooler program for five year olds.

Program begins at 8:30 a.m. with registration each Monday morning. Supervised activities begin at 9 a.m. Children are grouped according to age and each group participates in arts and crafts, group games, landsports and music and drama at some time during the day.

Participants must provide their own lunch complete with beverage. No glass bottles please. For more information, call 683-4355.

Week of July 19-23 - Beat The Heat Week - Fun Caravan units will be located at Garrett Road Park, Walltown Park, Red Maple Park, Sherwood Park.

YOUTH FOOTBALL REGISTRATION will continue through August 13 at Carrboro Recreation and Parks Department. A parent/guardian must accompany each youth for registration and birth certificate must be on file. $5 fee per individual. For more information, call 942-8541.

YOUTH SOCCER - The Durham Parks and Recreation Department is organizing Youth Soccer to begin in September for children 5-12 years of age. League playing sites will be Whippoorwill Park and Hillside Park. Interested youth and adults who want to participate or coach may contact their local recreation center or call the Durham Parks and Recreation Department at 683-4355 from 8-4:30, Monday through Friday. Registration deadline is July 31.

THE N.C. MUSEUM OF LIFE AND SCIENCE - 433 Murray Avenue, Durham. 477-0431.

• PETTING ZOO: Offering a closer look at the barnyard animals every Saturday at 10:30 a.m. The Petting Zoo allows children to ask questions about the animals, touch them, and help to feed them.

• CLASSES - Interested in using photography to increase your appreciation of the natural environment? Register for the Eco-Photography class at the NCML&S. Class participants, grades 6-8, will do a field study, learn special photographic techniques, and produce a slide show. For complete information and registration, call the Museum at 477-0431.

"YOUTH FEST" - The Third Annual "Youth Fest", a drug prevention activity, will be held on Saturday, August 14, between 1 and 5 p.m., at the West Durham Park on Hillsborough Road.

Youth of all ages are welcome. There will be free food, soft drinks, entertainment, games and prizes. Bring all the family.

Sponsored by the Prevention Division of the Drug Counseling and Evaluation Services.

CLOTHING CAMP - The 4-H component of the Durham Agricultural Extension Service will be holding a 4-H clothing camp on Friday and Saturday, August 13-14, at the Hill Demonstration Forest in the northern section of the county. It is open to all youth, both boys and girls, 9-13 years of age. Enrollment, limited to 45, will be on a first come basis.

During the weekend, there will be opportunities to learn more about the 4-H clothing project, how to do fabric applique, crafts, grooming, and recreation. Cost: less than $10 per person; deadline July 26.

Volunteers

BIG BROTHER NEEDED - The Volunteer Services Bureau reports that an 11-year-old boy needs a big brother to take him places this summer. He enjoys playing and attending sporting events.

For more information, contact the Volunteer Services Bureau at 688-8977, weekdays, 9 a.m.-4 p.m.

SIXTY OR OVER - The Retired Senior Volunteer Program needs you. Volunteers are needed to drive patients to medical appointments; meals to a nutrition site; or senior and handicapped persons for groceries and other necessities.

RSVP provides travel reimbursement and free insurance. For more information, call Ms. Helen Pressley or Ms. Kathy Walters at 596-9311, ext. 321, Durham Technical Institute.

THE BATTLE OF ALGIERS

is a reconstruction of the Algerian rebellion against the French between 1954 and 1957. Amidst elaborate stagings of riots, attacks on the rebels in the Casbah, and bombing in the European sector of the city, director Gillo Pontecorvo focuses on the ideological clash between Ali, the revolutionary leader, and Colonel Mathieu, the methodical Frenchman who attempts to quell the rebel activity.

BURN

explores the Portuguese rebellion against the British in the 1840s. Marlon Brando gives a deeply felt performance as an adventurer hired as a mercenary by the British. Ultimately, he realizes the futility of opposing a guerilla movement.

THE HARDER THEY COME

is a Jamaican film which powerfully relates the ambitions and struggles of a young musician. Running marijuana to support himself, the musician (Jimmy Cliff) kills a policeman during a drug bust. He is hunted and hounded by the police and the local syndicate just as his record tops the charts, and he becomes a local folk hero. The film's authentic reggae soundtrack received critical acclaim.

CORNBREAD, EARL AND ME

focuses on Cornbread (professional basketball player Jamaal Wilkes), a young man with a one-way ticket out of the ghetto—his ability to play basketball. First, Cornbread has to cope with the pressures and demands of his inner-city environment. Just as he is about to make things better for his family, tragic circumstances develop. The film features Thalmus Rasulala and a sound track by NCCU music instructor Donald Byrd.

THE PROGRAM IS FREE, OPEN TO THE PUBLIC, AND WILL BE HELD FROM 7:30—10:30 P.M. IN NCCU'S B.N. DUKE AUDITORIUM, NEAR THE CORNER OF FAYETTEVILLE AND LAWSON STREET.

THIS PROGRAM IS SPONSORED BY NCCU CONTINUING EDUCATION AND THE N.C. HUMANITIES COMMITTEE.

FOUR EVENINGS OF FILM WITH COMMENTARY BY THALMUS RASULALA, FEATURED PERFORMER IN "ROOTS," "SOPHISTICATED GENTS," AND "THE AUTOBIOGRAPHY OF MISS JANE PITTMAN"
