

SANCTIONED TOURNAMENTS

Highlight Arthur Ashe/UNCF Championships

ST. LOUIS—John McEnroe celebrates the U.S. Davis Cup quartifinal victory at the Checkerdome with trainer Bill Norris and Arthur Ashe, captain of the U.S. team. The match that McEnroe thought would never end was history after 6 hours and 39 minutes and 79 games. McEnroe defeated Swedens' Mats Wilander 9-7, 6-2, 15-17, 3-6, and 8-6. UPI Photo

NEW YORK — Over 500 tennis players from around the nation are expected to compete in the Arthur Ashe/United Negro College Fund Championships and Junior Championships which will be held Monday, August 2-Saturday, August 7 at the USTA National Tennis Center in Flushing Meadow, Queens.

Sponsored by Miller "Lite" beer, the Championships prelude the 8th Annual Arthur Ashe/United Negro College Fund National Tennis Classic that begins at noon, Saturday, August 7. Admission to the preliminary matches, Monday-Friday, is free of charge. Tickets are on sale for the Saturday Classic.

The AA/UNCF Championships is one of the largest USTA-sanctioned junior tournaments in the Eastern Division. Age brackets for the Junior Championships tournaments are 10-12-14-16-18. Last year's champions, Carole Watson of Queens, Rene Vidal of Springfield Gardens, Charles Blackman of the Barbados and Phillip Williamson of Mount Vernon will return to defend titles won in 1981. Finalists in the Junior Championships will be awarded trophies.

The adult bracket of the AA/UNCF Championships will include players from the greater New York area as well as from other parts of the country. Tennis pros and amateurs competing in this tournament will be seeking a $10,000 purse provided by "Lite".

"UNCF, which supports 42 historically black colleges, is providing a great service to our community with a week-long tennis competition," said Arthur Ashe, founder of the AA/UNCF Championships and the National Tennis Classic and currently serving as captain of the U.S. Davis Cup team. "I hope the young people who come out to Flushing Meadow to watch the competition will also learn more about the importance of a college education."

At noon on Saturday, August 7, the 8th Annual Arthur Ashe/United Negro College Fund National Tennis Classic will begin. This tournament features top pros and celebrities playing mixed doubles and singles. Celebrities expected to participate in the exhibition matches include: Marilyn McCoo and Billy Davis, Jr., actor Cleavon Little, Dina Merrill, Dabney Coleman who co-starred in "On Golden Pond", basketball great Walt Frazier and George Plimpton.

Tickets for the August

STOCKHOLM—Here a young peanut vendor is offering South Africa's Sydney Maree some peanuts after Maree's excellent run on 1,500 which he won, clocked for 3:32:89, the best time this year at that distance. Maree is now running for the USA and will soon be a USA citizen. UPI Photo

7 events are $10, $25 and $100. For ticket information, call UNCF at (212) 644-2299. Tickets are also available at all Ticketron outlets or by calling CHARGIT, 944-9300. Spectators may watch all preliminary matches, Monday-Friday, free of charge.

The United Negro College Fund raises funds for 42 private, historically black colleges and universities. There are currently some 50,000 students enrolled in UNCF institutions. Ninety per cent of these young people require financial assistance to underwrite their college expenses.

The United Negro College Fund is known by its motto: "A Mind is A Terrible Thing to Waste."

A FUN NEW KOOL-AID® RECIPE

1/2 teaspoon Kool-Aid® Brand Unsweetened Soft Drink Mix, any flavor

2 tablespoons sugar
1/4 cup water
1/4 cup milk

Dissolve soft drink mix and sugar in water in glass. Stir in milk. Serve at once or chill and stir before serving. Makes 1 cup or 1 serving.

©1982 General Foods Corporation. Kool-Aid, and the Smiling Pitcher Design are registered trademarks of General Foods Corporation.

We do more than play the best music

Saturday, July 24
10:30 A. M.

Cash Michaels and C. Warren Massenburg will interview Sheriff Bill Allen and Roland Leary, candidates for Durham County Sheriff.

Saturday, July 24
2:00 P. M.

The Durham Chapter of the NAACP and WSCR-Radio are sponsoring a Membership Picnic at Frazier Lake on Cook Road. C. Warren Massenburg, Cash Michaels and Monika Gunn-Holloway will broadcast live from the picnic. Free food, drink and records will be given to all persons attending.

Monday, July 26
7:30 P. M.

C. Warren Massenburg will interview H.M. "Mickey" Michaux and I. T. "Tim" Valentine, candidates for the Democratic nomination in the second congressional district.

Tuesday, July 27

On the scene coverage of the run-off election.