Fayetteville Happenings

By Mrs. T.H. Kinney

Spec. 5 Trudy Vango has been recognized as a successful achiever. She joined the Army not really believing she would make it. But with the encouragement of her husband, her mother, and a friend, she joined anyway. She is at the top of the promotion list now for E-6. She became known at Fort Bragg as the "super troop." She won the 18th Airborne Corps Distinguished Soldier Award for superior performance in soldiering and in her job as a clerk-typist. She is one who works hard and gets results. She has two children, Ray, 3, and Mesha, 2. Mrs. Vango and her husband have always been stationed together in the Army. They attended junior high school together in Norfolk, Va. They have been married for 13 years.

Michele Yvonne Carter, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert L. Carter of Fayetteville, and Michael McCrimmon, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles McCrimmon of Fayetteville, were married July 17, at 3 p.m., at East Kingdom Hall of Jehovah's Witnesses with Minister Carl Averette officiating.

A reception was held at Tokay Recreation Center after the reception.

The bride is a graduate of Cape Fear High School. The bridegroom is a graduate of E.E. Smith High School and is employed with Daniels International Construction Company in Apex. The couple will live in Fayetteville.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Cates of Hope Mills announce the engagement of their daughter, Myra, to Johnny Antwon Hall, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Johnny Hall of Immokalee, Florida.

The wedding is planned for August 28 at Parkton First Baptist Church.

The bride-elect is a graduate of Southview Senior High School and North Carolina Central University. She is employed by Blue Cross/Blue Shield Insurance Co.

The prospective bridegroom is a graduate of high school at Immokalee, is a student at Fayetteville Technical Institute and is in the Army stationed at Fort Bragg.

Mrs. Daisy L. Raines of Fayetteville announces the engagement of her daughter, Charlotte, to Larry Robinson of Evergreen, son of Mrs. Roberta Bullock and Franklin Gerald of New Haven, Conn. An October 30 wedding is planned at John Wesley Church.

The bride-elect is a graduate of Methodist College. She is employed with Kroger-Sav-On on Ramsey Street. The prospective bridegroom is also a Methodist College graduate. He is a physical education teacher at Purvis Elementary School in Rowland.

Many enjoyed Sunday In The Park with food and good entertainment at Rowan Street Park in Haymount.

Aesop's Fables is on tour at recreation centers during this week.

The Hale family had a safe trip to and from the World's Fair last week.

The Joneses gathered for their annual family reunion on Saturday and Sunday.

The Bish family has returned to their home.

Think! Macaroni and cheese is budget-sparing meatless main course that's off limits for waistline watchers. You might want to try some this week. It's low cal and low cost.

Feasting on raw foods can be fun. There's a book by Charles Gerras. It's a good key!

The Parkers, Hayes, Greens, Thompsons all enjoyed their stay while home visiting their N.C. relatives and friends.

Happy birthday anniversary to Ms. Shelia Parker.

Funeral services for Mrs. Daisy Dixon, 88, of Route 6, were conducted Monday afternoon at Piney Grove Free Will Baptist Church. She is survived by three daughters, Mrs. Mabel Elliott, Mrs. Alice Utley and Mrs. Ruby Finch, all of Fayetteville, and a son, Moses Dixon of Fayetteville.

Harrison B. McDowell, 95, of Route 5, died in Camden, N.J. Funeral services were conducted Wednesday afternoon at Greater First Baptist Church in Cedar Creek. He is survived by five daughters and three sons.

Funeral services for Alfred Evans, 61, of 1112 Henderson Avenue, were held Monday afternoon in Paye Funeral Home. He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Lena Evans, two sons, a daughter and other relatives.

Sincere sympathy is extended to Mrs. Lizzie Cooper in the death of her son and to Mrs. P.L. Faison in the death of her brother.

Funeral services for George L. Rhone, 71, were held Monday afternoon in Locks Creek AME Zion Church. He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Fannie Rhone, two daughters and two sons.
