SIXTY OR OVER — The Retired Senior Volunteer Program was designed for you. It's that time of year...school bells are ringing; budgets are right; and volunteers are needed. You can: help make costumes for a play; prepare bulletin board displays; teach elementary students to play the violin; etc.

RSVP provides travel reimbursement and free insurance. For more information, call Ms. Helen Pressley or Ms. Kathy Walters at 596-9311, ext. 321, Durham Technical Institute.

MINI-GRANTS NOW AVAILABLE TO YOUTH GROUPS — Are you a member of a Durham youth group or an organization which is planning an innovative youth program? Would a little money help? Funds are available to assist you.

The N.C. State Youth Council awards $6,500 per year to local organizations proposing worthy projects. Funds will be awarded three times this year in September, November and January.

Applications are screened and awards are approved at State Youth Council Board of Directors meetings. Awards are reviewed by the state Youth Advisory Council before they are granted.

For information and application form, contact the Youth Involvement Office, Elks Building, 121 W. Jones St., Raleigh 27611, or telephone 919/733-5966.

The State Youth Council is a component of the Youth Involvement Office and networks youth councils across the state. Although the council advises existing councils and helps new ones get started, the grants are not restricted to youth councils.

CALL FOR ACTION — Persons who have consumer, housing utilities, educational, welfare or any other problems for which they need a referral may call 688-9306 in Durham or 832-7578 in Raleigh every week on Monday through Friday from 11 a.m. to 1 p.m.

The Durham and Raleigh Call For Action offices are open. Call For Action is a national non-profit referral and action service supported by local TV and radio broadcasters. A unique feature of Call For Action, which distinguishes it from other action agencies, is a callback and follow-up system, whereby return calls are made to check the results of individual complaints. Often Call For Action volunteers make calls for clients to get action for their problems. All calls are free and confidential because they are off the air.

RAPE VICTIMS — Volunteers are available 24-hours a day by calling the crisis line at 967-7273 (967-RAPE), Chapel Hill. A report can be made without the victim identifying himself or herself.

DANGEROUS JOB? Could your job be hurting you health? Need information? N.C. Occupational Safety and Health Project (NCOSH), a non-profit group of labor and health worker volunteers can help, free of charge. If you have questions, or would like a speaker for your group, call 286-9249.

NEW ADULT EDUCATION CLASSES — Do you want to finish your high school education or brush up on your reading skills? Public TV and Durham Technical Institute are offering new adult education classes that you can take at home using special courses shown on public television. Don't let transportation, day care, age or fear of the classroom keep you from a brighter future. Put your TV to work by calling Durham Tech for more information.

CHANGE will help men discover ways to deal with problems and stress without using violence against wives and women friends. Weekly group counseling sessions. Confidential. Call the Durham HELPLINE, 683-8628, and ask for a CHANGE counselor. He will get back in touch with you as soon as possible.
