

NCCU Eagles Look To Rebound Against Morgan State

NCCU and Morgan have two things in common. They tasted defeat last week and each needs a win this weekend. It will be the Bears' Homecoming in Baltimore and nearly 18,000 fans are expected. The Eagles will be out to snap a three game losing skein to Morgan. They haven't won since 1978 when Central shut out the Bears 14-0. Also at stake will be Central's ratings in the NCAA Division II polls. The Eagles are tied for sixth and a win will assure them of remaining in the top ten. The Bears are striving to make the top ten.

Central is led by the multi-talented sophomore signalcaller Gerald Fraylon. Fraylon has completed 55 of 121 passes for 869 yards and 7 tds. He has been intercepted 8 times. He sparks an Eagles offense that is averaging 149.2

on the ground, 186.0 through the airlines and 335.2 totally.

The Eagles are definitely not a one-man team. Ably supporting Fraylon are backs Benny Tate and James Whitaker and receivers Victor Hunter, Audrain Melton and James Foster. Tate has a team high 438 yards rushing in 97 attempts. He has scored a career high 7 touchdowns. Whitaker is second in rushing with 235 yards on 58 carries. Fraylon's favorite receiver is senior wide-receiver Victor Hunter. Hunter has 24 receptions for 457 yards and 3 scores. He is 23 shy of the career record held by the diminutive Carl Sanders (112). Melton has 10 catches for 184 yards (including 5 for 107 against Norfolk). Tight end James Foster has 9 receptions for another 92 yards. Morgan is averaging 277.6 yards in total offense—212.8 on the ground; 64.8 in the air. James Fields leads the Bears with 312 yards on 69 attempts. He has scored five times. Alphonso Harris has picked up 267 yards in 57 carries. Senior quarterback Darrell Coulter has completed 20 of 53 passes for 280 yards. His favorite receiver is Cornelius Johnson. Johnson has caught 13 passes for 214 yards. One of his receptions was for 96 yards.

The Eagles defensive unit, led by ends Nate Johnson and Lorenzo Ingram, has yielded 169.6 in total yardage. Only 53.8 yards has been given up through the air. The Bears are stingy against the run having allowed only 57.8 yards per contest. They have given up 172.2 passing.

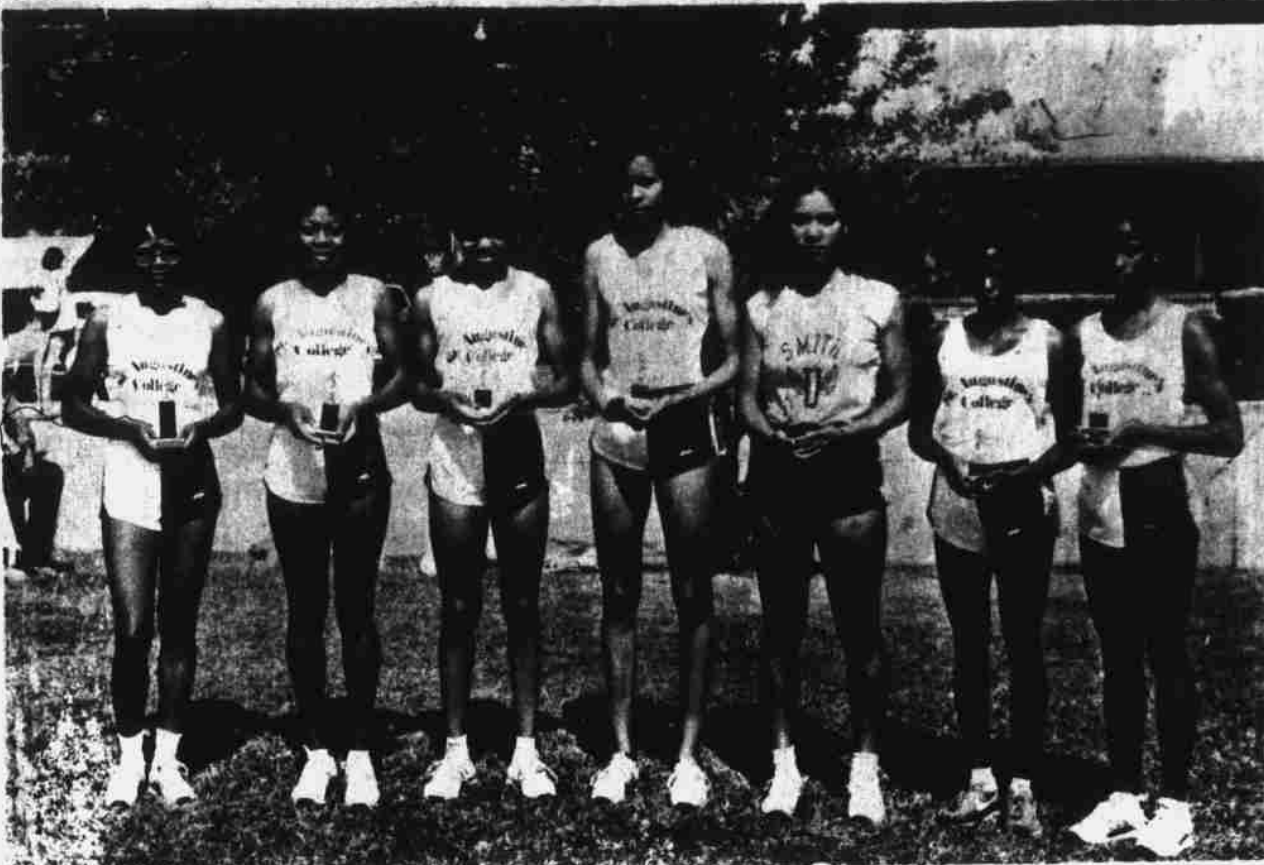

The Eagles and Bears boast good punt returners. Morgan has Anthony Page and his 15.0 average. The Eagles will counter with Charles Newman (14.2), Andrew Riddick (14.0), Clifton Kersey (11.4) and Jeff Purefoy (11.0).

Morgan leads in the series 20-11. There have been 2 ties.

EAGLE NOTES: Gerald Fraylon is now the 4th leading passer in NCCU history based on yardage. He has thrown for 2072 yards in 1 1/2 seasons. 230 more yards will move him into third place ahead of Charles Armwood. Fraylon is also fifth in career total offense at 2400 yards. 77 yards will vault him to third spot ahead of Charles Armwood and Jefferson Inmon.

Victor Hunter is tied with Mahlon Williams with 90 career receptions. Ahead of him are Julian Martin (98) and Carl Sanders (112). Hunter is also fifth in scoring with 112 points. Eric Hines is fourth at 123 and Julian Martin third at 164.

The Lady Falcons of Saint Augustine's College, better known as Falconettes, won the Cross Country Capital Classic held recently at Meadowbrook Country Club. Six of the seven top finishers were Falconettes. L-R: Denise Levy (17:51), Sandra Laing (18:06), Lisa Fennell (18:08), Paula Bente (18:53), St. Aug's, Gwen Spurlock (19:15), JCSU, Liz Murray (19:33) and Angela Dooley (19:44), St. Aug's. Saint Augustine's finished in first place with a score of 17.

Hillside Hornets Buzzing Louder Bulldogs Still Within A Bite

By Elson Armstrong, Jr.

Now that the Durham area high schools have completed the first half of their 1982 football campaigns, a better assessment can be made on where the programs are headed.

Hillside, off to a better start this year, is coming off a heartbreaking 12-9 overtime loss to crosstown rival Northern.

Hornets head coach Sam Jones said, "Last Monday was really rough (following the loss to Northern) but we've got to get ready for Roxboro this Friday. This is our homecoming game."

This week will be Hillside's third straight homecoming game this season. Two weeks ago, the Hornets played Durham High on the Bulldogs' homecoming and last week Northern observed its homecoming with the Hillside game.

Jones, commenting on the HHS season said, "Thus far, we've had an up and down season. We were a little disappointed in our non-conference slate but it was a tough one." Hillside, playing several powerful non-league foes, had a 1-3 mark, but inside the Big Six, the Hornets now have a 1-1 ledger. Overall, the Hornets are 2-4.

Jones added, "We're still in the hunt for a state playoff bid. The Big Six has two spots available this year and we can still aim for one."

Jones said that as tough as the Northern loss was, his squad has got to regroup and get ready for the rest of the season. Basically, what the rest of the season means is that Hillside can hardly afford another loss.

Nevertheless, Hillside has already accomplished one major goal this season. The Hornets had not beaten arch-rival Durham High since 1978 and they made up for past frustrations two weeks ago as the pasted the Bulldogs 31-7.

Durham High Coach "Bump" Elliott has been living through a nightmarish season thus far. The Bulldogs are very young and thin in numbers. Thus far, DHS is 0-6 and things don't appear to be getting easier with foes such as Henderson-Vance and Northern on the horizon. Both of these teams are tied for the top spot in the Big Six with 1-0 conference marks.

Elliott said, "It has really been a long season so far!" "We're improving and optimistic." According to Elliott, the Bulldogs keep coming back to practice hopeful of pulling down a victory before the season ends.

The Bulldogs only had 36-players when the season began and Elliott says that even with the season of adversity thus far, only five have quit.

Elliott says, "Most of our kids are sticking with us because they know that they will all be back and more experienced next year."

The Bulldogs couldn't have picked a worse time to have a lean season because in their first two home games attendance was way up over previous seasons.

There were at least 6,000 fans at the Durham High-Hillside game.

Northern's coach Ken Browning could not be reached, but the Knights are 5-1 overall and it still appears that they haven't completely jelled.

Northern is very talented, but execution and penalties have kept them from looking like a true power house. So far, it seems the Knights have run on superior talent.

The Knights' next big test comes in the conference showdown with Henderson-Vance in a few weeks. This game could very well decide the Big Six Title.

Both coaches at Durham's 3-A schools also could not be reached for interview.

Southern (5-1) suffered a severe blow when it lost a home league game to Dunn last week.

The Spartans who had been on a roll now must win all of their remaining games and hope that some other team knocks off the Dunn Green Wave in order to advance to state playoffs.

Jordan, which has won two games, has already exceeded some pre-season expectations. The Falcons, who have never been a football power, may win a few more but a winning season is not likely.
