

Central Faces "Must" Game Against ECSU

By Elson Armstrong
 The State Fair is not the only thing jumping in the Triangle area this weekend. There are two crucial collegiate football games that should keep the afternoon interesting. One is a heated grudge match while the other finds a coach fighting for his football life.

North Carolina Central and Elizabeth City State hit the turf at 1:30 p.m.

There is no love lost here.

In 1980, NCCU entered the ECSU game with an unbeaten conference slate. Central won 28-8. But last year, ECSU got revenge when Central played them in Elizabeth City.

This game is also very important as NCCU, with a 5-1 record, seeks to catch Johnson C. Smith of Charlotte in the run for the CIAA's Southern Crown. Smith is also 5-1. Central plays Smith for Homecoming November 6. Central can ill-afford another loss. A capacity crowd of 12,000 could be on hand if the weather holds out.

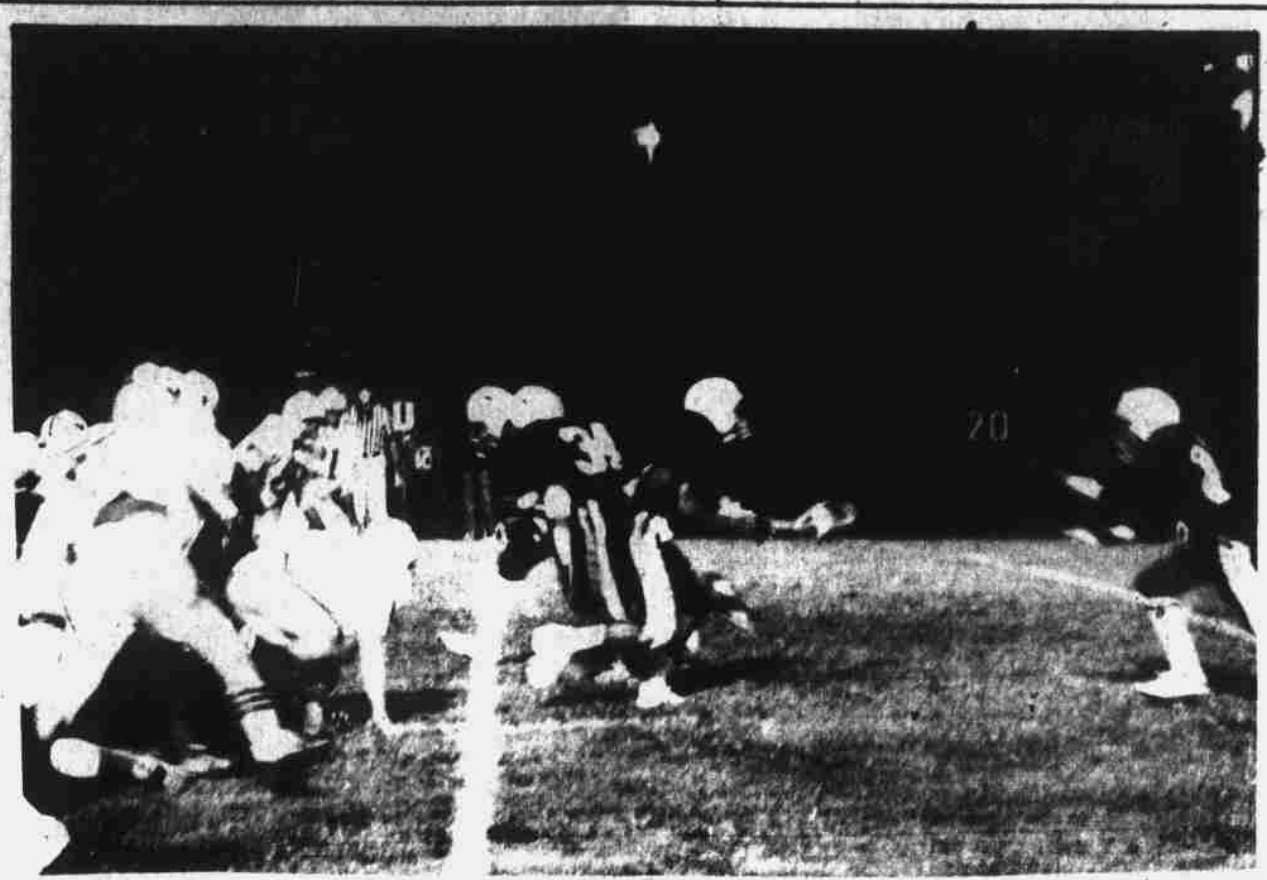

In Raleigh, spirits are really low for fans of N.C. State, despite the Wolfpack's 4-2 record. State is still licking wounds suffered during last Saturday's 41-9 shellacking by arch-rival North Carolina in Chapel Hill.

Things don't appear to be easing up on the "Pack as defending national champion Clemson comes to town. The Tigers punted Duke 49-14 and appear to be back on their top ten roll.

N.C. State fans are down and angry. Another embarrassing loss like last Saturday's and Head Coach Monte Kiffin could be given his walking papers.

State officials advise that all fans planning to attend the 1 p.m. game should leave for the game a few hours earlier than usual. There should be at least 50,000 fans on hand for the game plus another 150,000 attending the State Fair across the highway.

Duke hits the road to Maryland in an attempt to get back into victory lane following three straight losses.

HOMECOMING ACTION — Quarterback David Johnson hands off to running back Stephon Jacobs in Hillside's 20-16 victory over Person High during last week's homecoming game.

Big Six Title On The Line

By Elson Armstrong Jr.

As incredible as it may seem, there are just two weeks left in the local high school football regular season.

In the Big Six (4-A schools), the conference race remains torrid as Henderson Vance, Northern Durham, and Hillside of Durham battle for two state playoff berths.

Northern and Vance collide this Friday night in Durham County Stadium (game time is 8 p.m.). These two old rivals should draw a large crowd because this year more than bragging rights are at stake.

Henderson Vance is undefeated (7-0) and the Vikings have only given up one touchdown all season. They are the No. 1 ranked 4-A team in eastern North Carolina, according to a poll by the Raleigh News and Observer.

Northern which has been getting by on sheer talent in recent games will have to play well for the entire game.

Northern Coach Ken Browning says, "They (Vance) have the finest defensive team in the state. On offense we've got to stop Perry and Thomas, their two fine backs."

The winner of this game will definitely be in the driver's seat for the Big Six Championship because Northern is also undefeated in conference play. Overall the Knights are 6-1.

Across town playoff fever is still alive at Hillside as the Hornets (2-1 in league and 3-4-1 overall) journey to Chapel Hill to take on the Tigers. HHS Head Mentor Jones said "We are very excited, the team knows that if it wins all of its remaining games we can go to the playoffs".

Hillside won its game last week from Roxboro 20-16.

Jones says "We are really playing well. We hadn't beaten Roxboro in awhile".

Jones says that "Brad Sullivan will miss this game but he is expected back for the season ending game against Vance".

The Hillside-Vance game will be played on Saturday October 30 at NCCU's O'Kelly Stadium. Jones says the game was switched for several reasons.

"In the first place it was originally scheduled as a Thursday night game. We don't like for our kids to play on weeknights, if possible".

"Secondly most of our fans live in the vicinity of NCCU, we hope to attract a larger crowd plus Central is away that day and we hope to attract their fans too." Hillside and Vance will kick off at 1:30 p.m. on October 30.

Durham High, which shut out highly ranked Vance on the road in the second half last week, journeys to Roxboro to play Person this Friday. The Bulldogs who are still seeking their first win of the season reportedly played excellently on defense against Vance.

Bulldogs' Coach Elliot says, "We have an unpredictable rivalry with Person. Often the team that's favored doesn't win. We haven't won in Roxboro since 1976."

"It's their homecoming and we expect it to be a rough game. We go in to all of our games with the idea of winning."

WORKING OUT — Eagle football coach Henry Lattimore, (in baseball cap) works out with Central's player during practice this week. The goal is to cut down on the team's mistakes in order to continue its march toward the CIAA championship.
