

Grand Master Flash and the Furious Five Bring Their 'Rap' To Raleigh Sunday

By Teresa Rose

Grandmaster Flash and the Furious Five bring their Halloween "rapping" rap show to Raleigh's Dorton Arena Sunday, sounding off at 7 p.m. Dorton Arena is on Hillsborough Street.

Also appearing on the show will be Howard Johnson, Zapp, and The Johnson Crew.

Tickets, ranging in price from $8 for advance admission to $9 at the door, can be purchased at several Raleigh and Durham locations. They include School Kids Records on Hillsborough Street in Raleigh and Bob's Gulf Station on Alston Avenue in Durham.

As an added bonus, a $100 door prize will be given for the best Halloween costume at the show.

Grandmaster Flash and the Furious Five have been at the top of national soul charts many times, riding the crest of the new and popular "rapping".

The music "rap" matches short and choppy melodies against a harmonic frame of tight rhythmic lyrics. The lyrics make sense after a line or two if you listen quickly enough. But in the interim, you have to just swing to the beat.

Grandmaster hits such as "Flash to the Beat", "Freedom" and "Message" get top radio airplay and the group has made several national television appearances as well.

The group, one of several rap groups that exploded onto the pop scene about two years ago, features a master "rhythm flasher" and five other dudes who say they are furious.

With their most recent release, "Freedom", certified gold in less than six months, these six "rapping" young men from the Bronx are on the move.

The group's leader is Joseph Saddler, 23, better known as Grand Master Flash.

Other group members include:

* Eddie "Ness" Morris, 20, who has been playing the drums since he was 14 years old.

* Melvin "Melly Mel" Glover, 19, who has been a nightclub disc jockey since he was 15 years old.

* Guy "Raheim" Williams, 17, who began his singing career when he was nine years old.

* Keith "Cowboy" Wiggins, 20, who started his nightclub disc jockey career when he was 16.

* Danny "Kid Creole"

Glover, 20, who has been rapping since 1976. Kid Creole wrote most of the rhymes for "Freedom", and enjoys writing music.

For additional ticket information, contact Dorton Arena in Raleigh at 733-2626.

All About Success For the Black Woman

Black women, now pursuing professional careers, are seeking advice on how to make it to the top. Confronted by many obstacles, how can black women best prepare themselves for what lies ahead in today's competitive job market?

All About Success For The Black Woman provides the first complete and definitive portrait of the opportunities available to black women and reveals essential facts about what it takes to be successful.

Starting with her own unique techniques for assessing goals and measuring motivation, Ms. Sims analyzes job-related issues and occupational opportunities specifically with regard to today's black career woman. Drawing on her own experience — plus the viewpoints of hundreds of successful black women — Naomi Sims offers all sorts of career advice: everything from tips on preparing the perfect resume and guaranteed-to-get-the-job interview tactics to all about negotiating raises and promotions. She tells about minority funding programs you can qualify for that will pay for job training. She shares her strategies for identifying sources of power within the business world and manipulating your way through the corporate jungle. Most important of all are her tips on how to juggle a career with marriage and motherhood — the double lives that black women in particular must often learn to cope with alone.

Naturally, as a health and beauty expert, Ms. Sims has plenty of advice about how to keep your vitality, personality, and looks at peak performance on the job every day, plus special pointers about dressing the part — how to look like a senior executive on a secretary's salary. Complete with a special appendix that evaluates job opportunities in every career field from aerospace to zoology: where the jobs are, how to apply, what salary to expect and what the chances in each are for you, today's bright, beautiful black career woman!

A comprehensive and unique guide, All About Success For The Black Woman breaks through the myths and misconceptions about today's black career woman to deliver an account that is candid and extremely informative.

The price is $17.95 — 312 pages.

Ray, Goodman & Brown

Singing "Special Lady"
"Gambled On Your Love"
"Love On A Two Way Street"
"How Can A Love Be So Wrong"

Ray, Goodman & Brown

LONNIE YOUNGBLOOD

Fri. & Sat. Oct. 29 & 30

STUDIO D

Advance Admission $7.00-At Door $9
Special Rate For Members $6.00

602 N. Mangum St

683-8722 or 683-8655