

Calendar and Announcements

PUBLIC SERVICE ANNOUNCEMENTS should reach us NO LATER THAN FRIDAY before the desired publication week. Two to three weeks prior is even better! No charge. Mail to:

Calendar
The Carolina Times
P.O. Box 3825
Durham, NC 27702.

Coming Events

AARP FALL FESTIVAL — The American Association of Retired Persons will present a Fall Festival Wednesday, Nov. 17, at Henderson Towers, Duke Street, 1-5 p.m. Music will be presented by the Angelic Echoes. The public is invited.

THE SECOND HEALTH AWARENESS SEMINAR will be held at St. Joseph's AME Church, Sunday, Nov. 14, at 6 p.m., in the W.G. Pearson Conference Room. The seminar will be conducted by Dr. Shirley Tillman and Dr. John T. Daniel, Jr. The topics for discussion will be "Breast Cancer" and "Cancer of the Colon". The public is invited.

28TH ANNIVERSARY CELEBRATION of the East Winston Branch Library, Winston-Salem, will be held on Sunday, Nov. 14, 4 p.m., with a poetry reading honoring Winston-Salem native, Mrs. Mildred Martin Hill. [Mrs. Hill taught in the public schools of Durham for many years.] Poems will be read by Mrs. Mary McCurry. For more information call (919) 727-2202.

BACKYARD BIRDING, an adult class at the N.C. Museum of Life and Science, 433 Murray Ave., for the beginning observer. Learn to know birds by sight and sound; how to choose binoculars and books; how to attract birds to your window for observation and photography. Tuesday evenings 7:30-9:30 and Saturday mornings, 8-noon. $25. Nov. 16, 20, 23, 30; Dec. 4.

THE WOMEN'S HEALTH TEACHING GROUP is recruiting new members for training and teaching. An organizational meeting will be held Monday, Nov. 15, at the Somethyme Restaurant, 1104 Broad St., Durham, at 7:30 p.m. For more information, call 968-4646. This is a group of area women who are concerned about improving routine pelvic examinations given to women. They have formed a group to teach medical, nurse practitioner, and physician associate students as well as first year residents. The group consists of professional and lay women trained to be teachers and models for student learners.

AGGIE DISCO — The Durham Alumni Chapter of NCA&T State University will sponsor a disco on Friday, Nov. 12, 9 p.m.-2 a.m., at "Studio D" on 602 Mangum St. Admission will be by ticket sales only. Call 682-6767 or at the "Studio D" window.

BAZAAR — Friday, Nov. 12, beginning at 10 a.m. Watts Street Baptist Church, corner of Watts St. and Urban Avenue, Durham. Sale will feature all hand-made crafts such as complete baby doll wardrobe, dolls, infant clothing and quilts, children's clothes, framed needlework, Christmas ornaments, decorations, and advent calendars and hand-painted articles. The Kitchen will sell drinks, homemade soup and sandwiches, ham and sausage biscuits, blackeyed peas and cornbread and homemade desserts. A beautiful handmade quilt will be given away at 4 p.m. and a Trash and Treasure section will be open. Also a nursery will be provided for shoppers.

ANTI-PCB BENEFIT — The Southern Student Activist Network and the Club Cameo are sponsoring benefit evenings every Sunday for the Concerned Citizens of Warren County against PCBs. The benefits will be held at the Club Cameo at 1103 W. Chapel Hill St., Durham, and will begin at 7:30 p.m. Each Sunday will feature a different local jazz act. A portion of the proceeds from the evening will be used to help defray the costs incurred in mounting a legal defense of all those who have committed civil disobedience at the dump sites.

LITERARY DISCUSSION GROUP — On Tuesday, Nov. 30, at 7 p.m., the YWCA Women's Center's Literary Discussion Group will hold its first meeting at the YWCA, 809 Proctor St. The group encourages all women with literary interests to attend to share their ideas and help compile a reading list for the Workshop. The time and day for future meetings will also be determined at the initial meeting. Refreshments will be served. Call Monie Warrenfelt at 471-4719 for additional information.

OBEDIENCE CLASSES — Does your dog walk you? The Durham Parks and Recreation Department will offer beginners through advanced dog obedience classes at the West Durham Recreation Center starting Nov. 12, 7-9 p.m.

Your dog will be taught to sit, heel, down, stand, stay, recall, figure eight, stand for examination. Prepare your dog for companion dog degree or just an obedient pet in the house.

Fred Russell, instructor of the class, is a certified instructor by the "North American Working Dogs Association" and has 15 years of experience.

There is a small registration fee. For more information, contact Mr. Russell at 383-4095 or the Parks and Recreation Dept. at 683-4355.

JAZZERCISE — The Durham Parks and Recreation Dept. will sponsor Jazzercise at West Durham and Forest Hills centers, Tuesday and Thursday mornings. For more information, call 683-4355.

FOR SENIORS — "The Teller Of Tales: From Homer's Ithaca to Durham County's Rougemont" is the title of a course in progress at the Methodist Church, Red Mountain Road and Highway 501 in Rougemont, 15 miles north of Durham.

Editor-writer Judy Hogan of Chapel Hill is teaching the course, which aims to bring alive some of the great stories of the past in the hope of stirring the tale-telling impulse in Durham County seniors. Ms. Hogan will be available before and after the talks to write down stories told to her. Authors covered also include Flaubert, Chaucer, Jane Austen, Zora Neale Hurston, and James Agee.

The course is free and anyone may come to any of the talks. Next week's (Nov. 17 at noon) lecture by Ms. Hogan will be based on Jane Austen's "Pride and Prejudice" — What Do We Do When Our Pride Gets In The Way? When someone Else's pride Gets In Our Way? The course is funded by the N.C. Humanities Committee, the Durham County Public Library, and the Carolina Wren Press of Chapel Hill. For more information call the Library 683-2626, ext. 31.

TOY WORKSHOP — Dr. Shary Maskel is coordinating the free workshop for all interested parents on Saturday Nov. 13, 10 a.m.-1 p.m., at Lakeview Community Education Center, 3507 Dearborn Drive. Childcare and materials for the toy-making session will be provided. Call Dr. Maskel at 477-2197 for more information.

1983 BASKETBALL REGISTRATION — Beginning Nov. 15, teams interested in participating in the Durham Parks and Recreation Department's Youth or Adult Basketball leagues, may pick up registration packets at: W.D. Hill Recreation Center, 1308 Fayetteville St., or Edison Johnson Recreation Center, 600 W. Murray Avenue, Monday through Friday between 10 a.m. and 8 p.m., and Saturdays 10 a.m.-3 p.m.

Registration begins on December 3. For further information, call the Athletics Division, Durham Parks and Recreation Department at 683-4355.

FALL MARTIAL ART CLASSES — The Durham Parks and Recreation Dept. will be sponsoring a series of fall martial art classes for all age levels at the East Durham Recreation Center. For further information, contact Antonio Coor at 683-4355.

FALL FILM SERIES — Chapel Hill Public Library, Wednesday evening only at 7 p.m. Nov. 17: Edgar Allen Poe, Francisco Goya, Gian-Battista Piranesi, H. Fuseli, Edvard Munch. Although working in different mediums, these men offer a dark and scary look at the world around them. 101 min.

WINTER TENNIS SCHEDULE The Durham Parks and Recreation Dept.:

The following courts are open for free play from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m.: East End, Southern Boundaries, Whippoorwill, Garrett Road, Elmira, Morreene Road, Forest Hills, Rock Quarry, Northgate Park, Oval Drive Park.

The following locations are open for night free play 5-9 p.m.: Rock Quarry, Elmira, Morreene Road, Forest Hills, Garrett Road.

There will not be an attendant on duty. The lights must be activated by the player turning the light switch up once. The light switch is located near the entrance to the court. The lights will take approximately 10 minutes to come completely on. They will shut off automatically at 9 p.m.

Sherwood Park and W.D. Hill will be closed and nets removed.

If players have any problems with lights or at any location, please call Ronnie Ferrell at 683-4355.

INDOOR TENNIS LESSONS — The Durham Parks and Recreation Department is offering tennis lessons for adult beginners. Registration began on Nov. 8. Classes will be held at Edison Johnson Recreation Center, 600 W. Murray Ave., Tuesdays and Thursdays, 11 a.m.-12 noon, beginning Nov. 30 and ending Dec. 16. Fee for city resident-$16.50; non-city resident-$19.50.

For more information, call 683-4355.

ENRICHING YOUR LIFE IN THE 80'S — Head Coach Mike Krzyzewski leads the community in "A Spectator's Guide to the Basketball Season" in three sessions, including an exhibition game, November 15, 17, and 18. Sessions will meet in Cameron Indoor Stadium from 7:30-9 p.m. excepting for the game.

Preregistration is necessary. Phone the Office of Continuing Education, 684-6259, for fee information.

CULTURE WEEK IN NORTH CAROLINA — You can be a part of it! Nov. 16-20 you can participate in the 69th annual "Culture Week in North Carolina," an observance unique in the U.S. Hundreds of members of art, music, literary and historical organizations gather in Raleigh for annual meetings, various programs and the presenting of prestigious awards. Leading the list of speakers for this year is entertainer Andry Griffith. For details and fee schedules, call Becky Myer at 733-7305 in Raleigh.

COMMUNITY EDUCATION — Planning for spring classes starts now! To suggest a class, send a postcard listing a skill you would like to learn at the Community Education site closest to you — Southern, Carrington or Githens. Include your name and address and if you can suggest an instructor, that will help, too! Mail your postcard to Community Education, Durham County Schools, P.O. Box 3823, Durham, NC 27702.

PLAY BRIDGE — The Edison Johnson Bridge Group plays Thursdays 1-4 p.m., at the Center. The group, mostly senior citizens, plays contract, progressive table Bridge so that a partnership arrangement is not necessary. If interested, phone 477-4563.

PEGGY MANN COOKBOOK COLLECTION — The Durham County Library now houses the late Mrs. Peggy Mann's extensive collection of over 200 books on American cooking, the history of food preparation, international recipe books and over 30 North Carolina cookbooks. With the exception of the N.C. cookbooks, which will be housed in the Dr. Benjamin Powell room, all of the books will be available for check out.

AMERICAN EDUCATION WEEK OBSERVANCES — The Chapel Hill-Carrboro Association of Educators and the school system are preparing exhibits, visits, performances and school sessions for the observance of American Education Week, November 14-20.

An exhibit of written work by local students will be displayed at University Mall.

ST. JOSEPH'S AME CHURCH — "Favorite Recipes And Household Hints" — a Cookbook, compiled by a volunteer committee chaired by Ms. Melzie Elliott, is now available at $5 per copy in the church office.

The first time a baseball player from another city and another team received homage at a major-league baseball stadium was when Roberto Clemente, of the Pittsburgh Pirates, was so honored at Shea Stadium on Sept. 24, 1971.