De-Wrinkle Garments

Even the best permanent press and synthetic garments get a few wrinkles when packed in a storage boxes or left in a suitcase or crowded closet for a while. In most cases, they can be "de-wrinkled" by a good tumbling in the dryer, for about 10 minutes on the permanent cycle, says Dr. Judith Mock, extension clothing specialist at North Carolina State University.

Garden Clubs Celebrate 32nd Anniversary

All charter members, "at-one-time" member, and representatives from the garden clubs of Durham, fellowshipped with the Lyon Park Garden Club as its members celebrated their 32nd anniversary at the Lyon Park Center recently with Mrs. Louise Banks presiding.

Aunt Jemima® Heritage Corn Bread Dressing

1 cup chopped onion	2 cups celery slices
1/2 cup margarine	2 to 2 1/2 cups chicken broth*
1 pan corn bread, cooled, crumbled (see package recipe)	2 eggs, beaten
6 cups soft bread cubes	4 teaspoons poultry seasoning
3 cups fresh mushroom slices	1/2 teaspoon salt

Sauté onion in margarine; add to combined remaining ingredients. Toss lightly, mixing well. Place in 3-qt. casserole; cover. Bake at 325°F. about 1 hour. Or, lightly stuff dressing into body cavity and neck region of a 16- to 18-lb. turkey; roast according to standard roasting directions. Makes about 3-qt. dressing.

*NOTE: When baking dressing in casserole, use 2 1/2 cups broth; when baking dressing in turkey use 2 cups broth.
