

Entered as second-class matter February 28th, 1910, at the post office at Ahooskie, N. C., under the Act of March 3, 1879.

The name of the city in which the Mexican convention was held is "Hot Water." There was a fire in the name for Mexico has been in hot water for several years, and there seems to be little immediate prospect of getting out of it.

The war in Europe plays on and down with trade and commerce in this land. In some things the nation stands to win, and in others it is bound to lose. In the long run all nations suffer industrially when two or more nations engage in war. This is inevitable for war means a lessened ability to buy inasmuch as it impoverishes the people.

There seem now to be two good reasons to believe cotton prices have reached the bottom and will gradually go upward. First—Export movement has begun, and is expected to increase. Second—The holding movement will have a tendency to strengthen the market. The farmers through the south are holding cotton as never before seen.

We once knew a man who used to sit on his counter and with a pen in hand write down his money he had taken in during the day week. That man never advertised which fact accounted for his poor luck. The man who bought him out made a big success of the business, partly because he had more of the business instinct, and partly, and probably chiefly, because he advertised freely in the local paper and had the good to back up his statements.

"God First" is an excellent motto to keep steadily in view in all the relations of life. We think you do well to keep it in view in the home life, where it is so vitally important. With regard to the asking of a blessing at meals, it is a good plan to train the children to do it. We know of families where "grace" is very sweetly sung, and others where the children have been trained to respond promptly to a request to ask the blessing. Ordinarily, the husband, as the head of the household, performs this duty. If he be a Christian he will do it without urging. If not, then the duty devolves upon the wife, whose example may be the means of ultimately winning over the husband.

Mr. Rockefeller is coming to the relief of the war stricken inhabitants of Belgium. It is stated that the Rockefeller foundation has chartered a large vessel at the cost of two hundred and seventy-five thousand dollars, and loaded it with 4000 tons of provisions for Belgium relief. It is expected to sail this week direct for Rotterdam with a certificate from the British consul that its cargo is for use of the Belgian non-combatants only. These supplies will be distributed by the Belgian relief commission. Mr. Rockefeller has made it clear that the steps taken by the foundation will be "absolutely neutral." Mr. Rockefeller in making this big donation to suffering humanity is being guided largely by the statement of affairs in Belgium as given out by Ambassador Page at London. Mr. Page says it will require a million dollars a month for several months to prevent starvation, and indeed many will starve now before food can reach them.

We are glad indeed to report Mr. W. M. Rowe improving after a serious illness of hemorrhagic fever.

We were glad to have Mr. J. R. Modlin, of Norfolk, (but formerly of our town) in our midst last week.

Mr. C. W. H. attended the Quarterly Meeting at Powellsville Monday at the M. E. Church.

Mr. William Smith and daughter Miss Lizzie, of Rocky Hook, visited his brother Mr. J. L. Smith last week.

Everybody seemed to enjoy the association last week, if the weather was a little unpleasant, there were large crowds each day and especially on Wednesday. The next association goes to Jackson.

Mr. Charlie Callis, of Colerain, spent Sunday with his brother Mr. E. J. Callis, also attended services at the Baptist Church.

We are so glad to see Mr. B. F. Williams come up to his store a short while each day, and hope he may soon be able to resume his active duties again.

Miss Ethel Baker, of Richmond, Va., is the guest of Miss Eunice Downing.

Winborne-Vann.

Aulander, Oct. 30.—On Wednesday evening, October 28th., a quiet marriage was witnessed in the home of Mrs. Tom Vann, near Aulander, when Mr. Lambert H. Winborne, of Colerain, took Miss Nancy T. Vann to be his bride.

The ceremony took place at eight o'clock. All the family were present, also several from Colerain, chaperoned by Mrs. Sitman. Among those present from Aulander were Mr. and Mrs. O. W. Mitchell, Misses Gurtha Mitchell and Brunice Jenkins, Messrs. Walter Evans and Lucy Early.

Rev. C. L. Dowell performed the ceremony. The bridal party left for Colerain on automobiles.

SIUO REWARD, $100

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known for the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing her work. The proprietors have no much faith in its curative powers that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials. Address: F. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, O. Sold by all Druggists. 75c. Take Hall's Family Pills for constipation. Adv.

Wake Forest News.

Society day at Wake Forest College was celebrated on Friday, October 30th. This occasion has been made a holiday by the college faculty.

The Annual Junior-Senior debate was held by the Philotheas and Euzelean Literary Societies at 3 o'clock. The subject debated was, resolved that suffrage in N. C., should not be restricted on account of sex. The affirmative was upheld by Messrs. W. S. Burleson and F. M. Barnes. Both of these speakers produced very convincing arguments, and spoke in masterful style. Messrs. J. Grady Booe and Barril M. Boyd opposed the above gentlemen, defending with great force the present laws regarding suffrage in North Carolina. The judges consisting of five members of the faculty awarded their decision in favor of the negative.

On Friday evening the semi-annual senior speaking took place at 7 o'clock. The speakers and their subjects were as follows: G. H. King, "Anniversary Peace," R. L. Brown, "The Rural Problem," J. N. League, "Finding One's Self," and T. A. Avera, "Humanizing The Law."

Immediately following the senior speaking the crowd repaired to the spacious Gymnasium, where the Annual Bazaar Banquet, formerly Baraca Banquet was held. The presence of the Senior Class of Oxford College, and large numbers of girls from other colleges added to the gaiety of the evening.

From eight o'clock till midnight the time was spent in conversation, and sumptuous reports prepared by the Bazaar. During the evening Dr. E. W. Sikes, the present teacher of the Bazaar class, a beautiful gold watch charm, a gift of the class as a whole. Prof. Highsmith on behalf of the class, in turn presented to Dr. Sikes a Bazaar class scarf pin.

The pleasure of the evening was further added to by several humorous stories recited by Miss Woodal, of the Oxford College faculty. Miss Poole, voice teacher at Meredith College, also rendered several vocal selections. Just before the crowd dispersed each lady was required to register her name upon a large book, and in return was presented with a small college seal as a memento of this occasion.

A great many of the visiting young ladies remained over till Saturday night in order to witness the football game between Roanoke College and Wake Forest. The football game was one of the best played and most exciting games ever played on the home field. Wake Forest by the skillful manipulation of the forward pass, won out by score of 19 to 6.

On Saturday night, from 8 to 12, Miss Helen Potent gave a Halloween party in honor of several of her school mates from Meredith College. It proved to be quite a gorgeous affair, and eclipsed by far any previous social function of the year.

Mid term reports are out, and work of the second semester has begun. Only seven more weeks of actual classroom work now remain before the end of the fall term, and students as well as instructors realize that much hard work must be done in this short time. Classroom work has been broken up for the past two weeks on account of holidays, and this work must be made up before end of the term.
