Hupmobile

Value

You get your money's worth and more in the Hupmobile.

To begin with, you get high grade steel, exact manufacture, advanced design. But Hup value doesn't end there, by any manner of means.

You get continuous, day in and day out service—that's value.

You get freedom from repair bills; you get low gasoline, oil and tire cost—that's value, too.

And you still have a car of real value, when you're ready to sell your old Hup and buy a new one.

For second-hand Hups command a higher price, the country over.

Service from your car, service from us—that's the value you get when you buy a Hupmobile.

Give us a chance to tell you why we're willing to back the Hup to the limit.
