Hupmobile

The car of the American Family

Design

The Hup was the first American car to introduce the body design now called "streamline"—two years ago.

The Hup was the first American car to have a long-stroke motor—two years ago.

Just two instances of Hup advanced design.

High grade steels, careful design, precise manufacture—you get all these in the Hup.

It's cheap only in the sense that it's cheap to run.

Any Hup owner will tell you how much less the Hup costs—for gasoline, oil, tires and repairs.

You get everything that makes a car worth while—everything that makes a car economical.

And back of every Hup is a complete organization.

VICTORY UNDER SHERMAN LAW.

Railroads Give Up Stock in Coal Mines Valued at 3,750,000.
Cincinnati, O.—Stock in Ohio and West Virginia coal mines valued at $3,750,000 passed into the hands of John S. Jones, a Chicago coal operator, as a result of an entry made by three Federal judges here in a suit brought by the government against the New York Central and the Chesapeake & Ohio Railway Company, their subsidiaries and various coal companies they control.

The case was brought under the Sherman law and federal officials declared it was the most sweeping victory ever accomplished under the act. The case has been known as the "East Ohio and West Virginia bituminous coal case."

Attorneys for both the railroads and the government appeared before the court with an agreement that the properties of the railroads be disintegrated and ownership dissolved.

"If You'll Go, I'll Go."

Say that to some friend when you leave him, Saturday night. Of course you will mean that you will go to church Sunday if he will go too. That's a fine way to start off. If you are undecided as to which church to attend, select the one your mother used to go to. You can't go far wrong. Any fellow's mother's religion ought to be good enough for him. So next Sunday give up the lazy hour in bed. Have your best clothes ready. Put 'em on and start out with your head up and your shoulders back. You're doing one of the best things you ever did in your life and if you keep it up you will never be sorry. And you'll be surprised to see how good it feels to be in church. And above all things if there is congregational singing, SING. Don't merely hold the book and bluff at singing. Fill up your lungs and let out the music. You'll know it, all right. You may have forgotten the words but the tune, never. Why your mother used to sing it! She will be a happy woman when she knows that her boy was at church.—Exchange.
