Chowan Club Organized.

The Chowan Club was organized at the home of Mrs. J. A. Williams by Miss Esther Wynn November 4th, 1914.

There were but only 9 former pupils of Chowan College present, but each was glad of an opportunity to prove their loyalty to their alma mater.

We are striving to give the unfortunate girl a chance to educate herself. By doing this; each member gives a fee of $1.00 per year which is known as the Alumnae Loan fund. In electing of officers, Mrs. R. L. Phelps, Pres.; Mrs. C. G. Powell, Vice-Pres.; Mrs. J. A. Williams, Sec. and Treas.; Mrs. Mary L. Britton, Reporter.

We decided to meet at each members home alphabetically first Monday in each month.

On the afternoon of December 7th the club met at the home of Mrs. Mary L. Britton. Owing to the inclement weather only 7 of the members were present.

The programme was very interesting as Mrs. J. A. Williams had a most enthusiastic paper on the Alumnae Loan fund, and should cause each old girl to want to join the club and add her dollar to enable her neighbor to gain an education which otherwise would be impossible. Each member especially desire that every former pupil of Chowan College in and around Ahooskie to join the Chowan Club.

Mrs. Mary Britton read a paper on what Chowan College means to her.

On motion the club adjourned to meet with Mrs. M. D. Curtis, January 4th, 1915.

RAILROADS APPEAL TO PRESIDENT

The Common Carriers Ask for Relief—President Wilson Directs Attention of Public to Their Needs.

The committee of railroad executives, headed by Mr. Frank Trumbull, representing thirty-five of the leading railroad systems of the nation, recently presented to President Wilson a memorandum briefly reviewing the difficulties now confronting the railroads of the country and asking for the cooperation of the governmental authorities and the public in supporting railroad credits and recognizing an emergency which requires that the railroads be given additional revenues.

The memorandum recites that the European war has resulted in general depression of business on the American continent and in the dislocation of credits at home and abroad. With revenues decreasing and interest rates increasing the transportation systems of the country face a most serious crisis and the memorandum is a strong presentation of the candle burning at both ends and the perils that must ultimately attend such a conflagration when the flames meet is apparent to all. In their general discussion the railroad representatives say in part: "By reason of legislation and regulation by the federal government and the forty-eight states acting independently of each other, as well as through the action of a strong public opinion, railroad expenses in recent years have vastly increased. No criticism is here made of the general theory of governmental regulation, but on the other hand, no ingenuity can relieve the carriers of expenses created thereby."

President Wilson, in transmitting the memorandum of the railroad presidents to the public, characterizes it as "a lucid statement of plain truth." The president recognizing the emergency as extraordinary, continuing, said in part:

"You ask me to call the attention of the country to the imperative need that railway credits be sustained and the railroads helped in every possible way, whether by private co-operative effort or by the action, wherever feasible of governmental agencies, and I am glad to do so because I think the need very real."

The conference was certainly a fortunate one for the nation and the president is to be congratulated for opening the gate to a new world of effort in which everyone may cooperate.

There are many important problems in our complex civilization that will yield to co-operation which will lend themselves to arbitrary rulings of commissions and financing railroads is one of them. The man with the money is a factor that cannot be eliminated from any business transaction and the public is an interested party that should always be consulted and happily the president has invited all to participate in the solution of our railroad problems.
