yourself and with the world? Do you wonder what ails you? True sleeping well. Yet something is the matter! Constipation, Headache, Nervousness and Bilious Spells indicate a Sluggish Liver.

New Life Pills. Only 25c. at

The Quinine That Does Not Affect The Head Because of its tonic and laxative effect, LAXA-TIVE BRONCO QUININE is better than ordinary Quinine and does not cause nervousness nor ringing in the head. Remember the full name and look for the signature of Dr. W. G. BROWN.

The report of Superintendent of Health received and filed.

The following accounts presented and approved.

Old Hickory Chips.

This promises to be a good little quiet congress.

It is reported that the Kaiser has pneumonia. Well if he dies with it he can go down in history as the greatest murderer the world has ever produced.

Berlin will be interested in learning that French Parliament is to meet in Paris.

Another horror of war is the word "unneutral" which though useful is unpretty.

Probably subways will appeal more to European cities henceforth than they formerly did.

Gen. Carranza seems to be a man with a glowing future, which he never by any possibility over-takes.

Maybe in time Europe will be glad to have some neutral power come in and pull the combatants apart.

Send your Christmas socks to the Belgians they will find something to put in 'em.

It may sound paradoxical, but no sooner do the troops reform than they go to fighting again.

If Mr. Edison really wants to banish sleep, he'll have to cease his extended lectures on the subject.

If no other way opens up, the average Chicago Grand Jury can always make a coup by indicating itself.

Having come out boldly on the Mexican situation, the Colonel is almost within handshaking distance of Boise Penrose.

London's growing apprehension of a Zep raid ought to open up a good market for Kansas' Banner crop of cyclone cellars.

Europe's art galleries might have been saved if they had been converted into moving picture shows before hostilities began.

Love of country is a fine thing, but it gets people into a lot of trouble.

It looks as if the Chicago Police force had been taking lessons from that of New York.

Also people who live in glass dreadnaughts should not through booms.

Gen. DeWets short lived rebellion was a perfectly good one in the prospectus.

Battleships are useful in enabling manufacturers of torpedoes to make a living.

Early shopping is one of those ideal trades that benefit all parties concerned.

Bombarding the Krup Gun Works from the sky appears to be the height of impudence.

There is no war tax yet on marriage license and marriage certificates. Do your marrying early.

Many a preacher exhausts his congregation before he does his subject.

Missouri is complaining of the smoke from the Arkansas forest fires. If the wind doesn't change soon we may have another war of cultures.

Cotton is eighteen cents a pound in Germany. Would that not make you mad if you were a Cotton Planter with lots of cotton and no way to get it to Germany!

He is a fortunate man who can catch up with his ambitions and debts.

One can't always judge a man's importance by the angle at which he wears his hat.

Now it is reported that the German submarines evaded the fire of the British Battleships at Zeebrugge by driving, which is after all, just about what a submarine is built to do.

This war has apparently demonstrated that no fort is impregnable unless the enemy can be kept so far out of range that the fort itself can do no harm.

London is still in the dark, but its more on account of Zeppelins than lack of war news.

The play "Farm Folks" was presented here last Friday evening under the direction of Mrs. L. G.
Bullard and was enjoyed by a large crowd. Those taken part in the play, individually and collectively made a big hit with the audience and it was one of the best plays ever given here by the amateurs. This play will probably be taken to some of the surrounding towns in the near future.

The Baraca-Philathea convention met here on Saturday and Sunday 6th-7th., and was well attended despite the extremely bad weather. The program advertised was carried through with the exception of two numbers, a speech by Mr. J. H. Matthews and a song by Mr. A. C. Mitchell both of Windsor who were detained by the weather. Miss Byrd was present and made several interesting talks. Among the delegates present were Misses Inza Bridgers, Ruby White, Louise Baggett, Maud Mason Spives, Ruth Cooke, Fannie Darden Gatling, Mr. Von Foltz and mother and Mr. Joe Dempsey and Mrs. Dempsey of Windsor, Messrs Tom Peele and Garland Bazemore of Lewiston, and Linwood Hoggard of Republican. The Junior class of Lewiston was also represented. The convention was a success in all particulars.

Miss Lizzie Pritchard was elected Editor of the Baraca-Philathea class last Sunday.

Mr. Aurelius Joyner was painfully hurt at the oil mill last week.
Mr. Joyner was caught by machinery and was badly bruised about the head and arm before getting out. His wounds were dressed and he is now doing nicely.

A strange negro went into the drug store of W. G. Mitchell last Saturday night and purchased some articles without paying for them. When Mr. Mitchell remonstrated with him, the negro used abusive language and cursed the proprietor. Mr. Mitchell and his clerk, Jim Nichols made for the negro, who in return got out his knife and started for Mr.
Mitchell, in the mix-up, Mr.
Mitchell's coat was cut through the breast and he was otherwise inconvenienced. Several men ran up to the scene and succeeded in getting the negro away and delivered him to the Constable. At the trial the negro was bound over to the Superior Court. During the night the jail containing the negro was burned to the ground. It is supposed that the occupant was cold and started a fire to warm, or else thought he could burn his way out of jail. In any event the negro was burned to death when parties discovered the fire and put it out.
The corner was sent for but reserved a decision for Monday morning when the jury will be selected. It is regretted that the negro came to such an untimely death. No one knows who he is or where he came from. It was reported that the darkey was half crazy later, but no one had noticed anything peculiar in his actions.

The Graded School will give an entertainment here next week just before Xmas.

Miss Inez Bridgers of Windsor spent the night with friends here last Friday and left on the early train for Norfolk.

Some of the stores are showing Xmas goods to attract Santa Claus. Business seems to be going on about as usual for this time of year.
