Japan Trying To Beat Germany To Toy Trade.

Hope to Crowd Germans From Chinese and American Markets.

Not content, says the Japan Times, with worsting Germany in arms, Japan is trying to beat her in the toy trade also. How great is the determination of her toy merchants and how strong their confidence in their ultimate victory is shown by what the chairman of the Tokio Wholesale Merchants' guild has to say.

The two great fields where they are trying to extend their activity are China and America. The fact that Japanese and Chinese are "coracials and colaterals" makes China a highly promising field for the toy merchants here.

Their very origin entitles Japanese toys to be regarded as great curiosities by the Chinese, so that their manufacturers need exercise but little ingenuity to make the goods suitable for the Chinese market.

The case is not so simple with America, however, where juvenile tastes or inclinations are very different from those in Japan. And yet the naucity of the varieties of toys ordered from beyond the Pacific has been more than compensated for by their value in dollars, so that America has been Japan's best customer in juvenile playthings.

"Germany is not the unique toy-maker she is commonly supposed to be in our country," says the chairman. "They do not know the actual condition of the trade who say that Japan can not even dream of equalling, much less excelling, Germany in the production of ingenious playthings."

"At Nanking and Hankow, for instance, it appears to be generally recognized that Japanese toys are not only equal to the German ones in quality, but are decidedly cheaper and therefore preferable."

"It is true that German articles are used for window shows; but they never sell. Those that sell best are Japanese toys sold at second and third rate stores. This is but natural, considering their price and quality."—EX.

More Anti-Typhoid Work.

Five more counties have provided for anti typhoid fever campaigns this summer. This is both surprising and gratifying to the State Health authorities. It is expected that other counties would decide to have such campaigns after work in the first set of five counties had gotten under way. Edgecombe, Halifax, Iredell, Wilson and Wayne didn't wait. Now it develops that several other counties were quietly planning to offer to co-operate with the State Board of Health a little later, but the limited funds of the State will probably prevent further anti-typhoid work this summer. Free anti-typhoid vaccine and free anti-typhoid literature will continue to be distributed.

Work in Wake, Buncombe, Henderson, Northampton and Cumberland will begin June 21 and continue six weeks. It is expected that from five to ten thousand people in each of these counties will avail themselves of the free treatment.

A Doctor's Prescription for Cough An Effective Cough Treatment.

One-fourth to one teaspoonful of Dr. King's New Discovery, taken as needed, will soothe and check Coughs, Colds and the more dangerous Bronchial and Lung Ailments. You can't afford to take the risk of serious illness, when so cheap and simple a remedy as Dr. King's New Discovery is obtainable. Go to your Druggist to-day, get a bottle of Dr. King's New Discover, start the treatment at once. You will be gratified for the relief and cure obtained. Adv.

Medics Meet.

State Society in Session in Greensboro.

The State Medical Society is in session in Greensboro for three days this week. The meeting begins on Tuesday. On Monday preceding, the meeting will be on a one-day session of the State Health Officers' Association. Dr. J. B. McBrayer, of Sanatorium, is president of the Health Officers' Association.

Many new phases of modern medicine will be discussed. It is expected that the Society will adopt some strong measures against the narcotic drug evil which seems to be rapidly on the increase in North Carolina.

Wanted to be Intoxicated.

Many and varied are the questions being asked health officers these days about anti-typhoid vaccination. The newest one to floor us from a very unassuming man who queried as follows, "Say, kin you all-ll, kin you all intoxicated me for typhoid?"

J. W. DAVENPORT, ESQ.

This strong young lawyer of Windsor spent several hours in Ahoskie, on legal business, last Friday.

Mr. Davenport is easily one of the best lawyers in the State to say nothing of the short time he has been at the bar and his legal brethren have accorded him a high place in the profession without question. He is a wise counselor and an astute manager of a legal contest.

Last year the democrats of Bertie made him Chairman of the Democratic Executive Committee, and his management showed that he possesses a keen insight in politics. The Herald has its eye on this rising young gentleman and the public had as well take knowledge of his growth.

Correspondent.

Misses Addie and Kate Jenkins will give a recital in the Woodmen Hall on Friday evening June 18th, at 8:30 o'clock. The entertainment will include vocal and instrumental music and recitations. The Misses Jenkins come here under the auspices of the local Chowan College Alumni, and the proceeds of the entertainment will be donated to Chowan College. These young ladies are daughters of Mr. W. E. Jenkins formerly of this place, and have been attending Chowan College where they received instruction in music and elocution. The admission will be 15 and 25 cents with reserved seats 35 cents.

The baseball team has been given a good start and several games have been played, the last being with Ahoskie resulting in a score of 8 to 1 in favor of the locals. Several games have been arranged for the near future. Most of the players of last season are again on the team.

Messrs W. M. Parker, Alex Lassister and W. S. Dunning were in Windsor last week on business.

Mr. W. T. Heckstall, County Tax Assessor of Windsor was here last week in connection with tax listing.

Members of the local Tennis Club are preparing to present a play here in a short while. They will probably take it to Windsor also.

Mr. H. L. Early made a business trip to Windsor last week.

Architects have submitted plans for a handsome school building to be erected on the site bought for the Farm Life School. The plans of the Architects and the funds of the Board however do not make connection, so the Board will either arrange for additional funds or ask for bids on a less expensive building. It is probable that more funds will be secured, and the intention is to have the building ready for the fall term.

Mr. R. J. Dunning has returned from Florida where he sold over 17,000 acres of timber land for his company involving the sum of over $150,000. An English syndicate bought the timber, probably the majority of which will be used in shipbuilding.

Mrs. W. Fuller of Florida, formerly Miss Faddie Burden of this place, is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Ruden.

The new home of Rev. M. P. Davis is complete and Mr. Davis and his family are now located on east Main street.

A receiver was appointed for the Aulander Realty Company on motion of the plaintiffs at the last term of court. After the Supreme Court passes on the motion, the case will probably be tried at Windsor at the following term of the Superior Court.

It is with sincere regret that the friends and acquaintance of Mrs. S. B. Kennedy of Windsor, learn that she continues very ill in the home of her daughter, Mrs. F. D. Winton. It has been the good fortune of some of our people to know her, and to those who have had that pleasure, her illness is akin to a personal sorrow, and we feel for those near to her in their anxiety. We sincerely hope that she may improve and be spared to her family and friends.

Mr. Milton Burden made a visit to the County Seat last week.

Rev. R. L. Davis preached here on prohibition last week. A large congregation attended the services.

There will be a game of baseball here on July fourth. Efforts are being made to schedule two games in the afternoon with a strong team. Announcement will be made later.
