NOTED EVANGELISTS AT BARACA-PHILATHEA CONVENTION.

Dr. J. Wilbur Chapman and Dr. Alexander World Wide Evangelists to Attend State Baraca-Philathea Convention.

The program is about completed for the coming Baraca-Philathea Convention which meets in Goldsboro, April 27-30. This will probably be the greatest Convention of organized Sunday School classes ever held in North Carolina. The Baraca-Philathea movement for several years held its Conventions on the free entertainment plan, but when the number of delegates in attendance approached 1,500 it was seen that there is no city in the state able to meet the strain, and now entertainment is offered in private homes at a dollar a day or at reduced rates in hotels. Some of the strongest Sunday School leaders of our whole country have been secured. Among the speakers from a distance who have accepted invitations to take part are Dr. J. Wilbur Chapman, World Wide Evangelist, Dr. Chas. D. Bulla, Superintendent of the Wesley Adult Bible Class Department of the M. E. Church South and Miss Henrietta Meron first vice president of the World-Wide Baraca-Philathea Union. Many prominent leaders of social and Sunday School work in North Carolina will take part, among these being Mrs. J. T. Alderman, Henderson; prominent social worker and teacher of the oldest Philathea class in the South; Hon. W. A. Devin, Oxford, Judge of Superior Court; and a number of others who are known throughout the state for the part they have played in her social and religious life.

The Baraca-Philathea movement is unique in the Sunday School world. It is interdenominational, but strives to build up as thoroughly as possible each denomination. It seeks no control, and exercises none. There are no obligatory dues; and it is rapidly becoming more popular, even with those who are interested in denominational work alone. Its growth is phenomenal, there being more than 11,000 Baraca and Philathea classes representing nearly 2,000,000 members. There are more in North Carolina than in any other state in the Union, for it is estimated that there are 65,000 or 78,000 in this state in more than 2,000 classes.

All Baraca and Philathea classes, City and County Unions, are urged to send delegates to this coming great Convention. Sunday School workers, regardless of what their relation to the Sunday School is are invited to be present and help in the campaign to put the Sunday Schools of our state on a more efficient basis. Correspond with A. R. Williams, Greensboro, N. C., for further information.

TRIBUTE OF RESPECT.

Mr. J. W. Barnes departed this life February 19, 1916, at 10:45 a. m., age 41, after a long illness, which he bore with patience. He was ever ready to greet his friends with a smile, all of whom were attentive to him during his illness.

Mr. Barnes professed faith in Christ and united himself with the Holly Grove Baptist Church at the age of fourteen. He moved in our community about ten years ago with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Barnes from near Hexelena. Then he moved his membership to Mars Hill Baptist Church, where he remained a consistent member until God saw fit to take him away.

He was a member of our Sunday School and prayer meeting. He always took an active part, loved to help sing praises to God, was always ready to help young people's social amusements, and seemed to enjoy them in a quiet, pious way. In his habits he was temperate. He was ever willing to

IN MEMORIAM.

Great sorrow fell upon our town on March 25th, when death claimed for its victim Mrs. Martha Vann Holloman, wife of Mr. Robert Holloman, aged 61 years, who was stricken a few days previous with pneumonia, and was unable to combat the disease. But death to such as this was robbed of much of its sorrow. She was a good woman and had doubtless finished her tasks, and then went home.

She was a faithful member of the Ahoskie Baptist Church, where she held fast the religion and died in the faith. From the beginning of her christian life to the end she was a devoted follower of Jesus, and we know she is with the Angelic hosts, therefore why should we mourn? As we mourn not as those who have no hope. Her life was one of unselfishness, always ready to leave her own duties to relieve the suffering.

She was devoted to her Lord, her church, and her family, and was a friend to her pastor at all times. Her home was the preacher's home, where he always found welcome. Mrs. Holloman was an active worker in the Sabbath School W. M. Society, and any places where duty called, therefore was greatly loved and honored, always drawing friends about her, as they placed great confidence in this good woman, and many tears of sorrow were shed when the news spread abroad that she had passed to her reward.

All that could be done to prolong her life was done by skilled physicians, trained nurse and untiring efforts on the part of her devoted husband, children and other loved ones. But she heard the summons, "it is enough, come up higher," and without fear or regret, she answered the voice, and ended her course with a glorious assurance.

Those who are best fitted to live are best prepared to die. She has left an influence for good, which will make her name a precious memory. Indeed, she will be missed, but she has just passed over the river and joined the hosts that have gone before; and may those she left behind so dear to her heart meet her in that city "not made with hands eternal in the Heavens."

On Monday at three o'clock the funeral services were conducted at the church by her pastor, Rev. C. L. Dowell, assisted by Revs. Watson and C. W. Scarborough in a very impressive manner among a large concourse of sorrowing relatives and friends, after which her remains were laid to rest in the cemetery, to await the resurrection morn.

The floral tributes were many and beautiful, proving the love and high esteem in which this good woman was held.

Our heartfelt sympathy goes out to the grief stricken family, and loved ones in this sad hour of bereavement; but we commend them to an all wise Father, knowing if they put trust in him, he will shelter them under the shadow of his wing, and it will be a reunited family in the mansions above.
E. M. B.

help his friends. He loved his home, and was devoted to his parents.

We extend our heartfelt sympathy to his aged parents, sister, and four brothers. And our prayer to them is to put their trust in Him who has promised never to forsake thee.

Brother, thou was mild and lovely, gentle as the summer breeze, Pleasant as the air of the evening, as it floats among the trees.

Peaceful be thy silent slumber, peaceful in thy grave so low. Thou no more will join our number; thou no more our songs shall know.

NEWS OF INTEREST FROM AULANDER.

Another Evidence of Deadly Effects of Cupid's Dart—More Prizes for High School—Personals

The members of the Philathea Chas of the Aulander Baptist Church Sunday School were delightfully entertained on last Monday evening by Mrs. Walter Johnson at her home on West Main Street. The first part of the evening was devoted to the regular monthly business session, after which refreshments were served by Mrs. Johnson, the delightful hostess of the occasion.

Mesdames W. H. Lassiter and A. T. Castellow spent last Wednesday in Norfolk.

Mr. W. Dare Boone, a young attorney of Winton, was in our city on business one day last week.

Mrs. Wiley Early of near Aulander was on last Wednesday called by telegram to Norfolk to attend the bedside of her husband who is critically ill in one of the Norfolk hospitals. As this letter is being written, the condition of Mr. Early remains unchanged, but his friends and relatives still entertain hopes for his recovery.

Mr. W. H. Early of this city spent several days in Suffolk last week on business.

The Aulander Correspondent is glad to report another consumation effected through the omnipotence of Hymen and the continued activity of Cupid. The sixth marriage of the "present series" was solemnized last Thursday morning at ten o'clock at the bride's home, when Miss Bessie Britton, the attractive daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Britton, became the bride of Mr. Elijah L. Morris, a young business man of this city. Mr. and Mrs. Morris left immediately after the ceremony for northern cities, and after an extended wedding trip they will make their home in Aulander.

Mr. T. J. White was in Norfolk one day last week on business. Mr. D. E. Henderson of Newbern was in Aulander last Wednesday.

Mrs. Raphael Myers, the mother of our popular barber, Mr. W. N. Myers, died at her home near Aulander last week. We extend our deepest sympathy to Mr. Myers.

Miss Clorine Parker, the daughter of Mr. W. M. Parker of this city suffered an attack of appendicitis last Tuesday and was taken to Norfolk for an operation Tuesday afternoon. The writer understands that the operation was successful and that the patient is improving.

Miss Effie Herring has been visiting friends in Greenville for the past several days.

Representatives of the Aulander High School won further honors last week when they journeyed to Greenville and brought back two medals. Miss Ernestine Peeler won the recitation medal, while Mr. Boyce Herring was awarded a medal for being the best speller.

Mr. A. T. Castellow, a student of the State University, spent the week end here.

Mrs. S. O. Williford has returned from Windsor where she has been visiting friends and relatives for some time.

The writer wishes to make a correction. In last week's letter there appeared the statement that Dr. Bolton of Rich Square had purchased a new Overland machine from the Aulander Live Stock and Supply Company. Dr. Jacobs of Roxobel was the purchaser of this machine instead of Dr. Bolton.
