E. L. Banks, of Winton, was in Ahooskie Wednesday.

Paul Harrell, of Colerain, was in Ahooskie Sunday evening.
S. P. Watson spent the past week end with his parents in Wilson.

Mr. and Mrs. S. B. Carter spent Sunday with relatives in Reynoldson.

Mrs. J. O. Carter is spending the Thanksgiving holidays with her parents in Norfolk.

Miss Carol Sharp, of Belhaven, was the guest of Mrs. R. H. Jernigan a few days this week.

B. C. Banks has returned to his home in Ahooskie, after having been at work in Norfolk during the past three weeks.

Hon. Francis D. Winston, of Windsor, was in Ahooskie Tuesday morning on his way to Raleigh on legal business.

Miss Helen Johnson left Wednesday to spend Thanksgiving holidays with her sister, Miss Agnes Johnson in Spring Hope.

Messrs. J. D. Sessom, J. O. and Ernest Carter, and V. D. Strickland were guests of friends and relatives in Gates County, Sunday.

Miss Margaret Sessoms, who has accepted a position as teacher at Harrell's School, spent Saturday and Sunday with her parents here.

Mr. and Mrs. Hunter Taylor and little daughter Janie Walton, of Harrellsville, spent Sunday in the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Baker.

Christmas is almost here, and holiday advertisers are asked to get their copy in early, and give us sufficient notice of your wants.
A delay at this time is dangerous.

Mr. E. W. Baggett, of Menola, was a visitor in Ahooskie Tuesday.
Mr. Baggett visited the Herald Office before leaving and had his name enrolled on our subscription books.

Dr. C. G. Powell and family were called to Potocasi this morning on account of the sudden death of Dr. Powell's brother's son, R. L., Jr. The young boy was accidentally killed by a peanut picking machine.

Miss Ruby Myers, who underwent an operation for appendicitis in a Norfolk hospital a few weeks ago, has returned to her home here.
She has almost recovered from the effects of the operation, and is now able to walk around.

Mr. C. A. Parker, of Drum Hill was in Ahooskie last Monday. While here he called at the Herald Office, and entered his name for another twelve months of Herald. Mr.
Parker says that he can ill afford to miss an issue of his old home paper.

Mr. L. C. Williams, attorney, left for Fort Thomas, Kentucky, last Saturday night to enter military service as 1st-Serjeant. Although he failed to receive a commission at the Second Officers Training Camp held at Fort Oglethorpe, Mr. Williams is still fixed in his determination to "mop up" with Kaiser Bill.

Attorney W. H. S. Burgwyn, and Dr. E. H. Lewis, of Jackson, and Mr. Barrow of Suffolk, Va., were in Ahooskie Tuesday. They came here on business connected with the new railroad that is in process of construction between Jackson and Ahooskie. The force has almost reached Lasker.

You can not afford to do without your County paper during these newsy times. It carries to you each week a message of what your own people are doing, and gives you a splendid digest of the world of moving events. The agricultural service provided by the Herald can hardly be beaten.
Have your name enrolled on our list today.

Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Phaup and little boy, Haywood, left last Friday afternoon for Richmond, Va. Haywood will undergo treatment at a Richmond hospital for an infection of the ear. Mr. Phaup returned to Ahooskie the first part of this week to close out this season's tobacco business. After spending a few days at their home in Richmond, Mr. and Mrs. Phaup will leave for Kentucky to be on the tobacco market.

The peanut market at Ahooskie has been on a standstill for the past ten days. Buyers are buying very lightly, and prices have declined several points. However, the price of cotton has been advancing for the past few days. The Hertford County ginner's report in the Herald this week reveals the fact that this County is woefully behind in the yield of cotton this year.

Chowan Club to Meet.

The Chowan Club will meet in the home of Mrs. W. J. Mitchell, Monday, December 3, at three o'clock. Every member is urged to be present.

Tongue and Needle Club.

The Tongue and Needle Club will meet at the home of Mrs. J. W.
Godwin Thursday afternoon, Dec.
6th.

WHAT? WHEN? WHERE?

A bazaar to be given by the Woman's Betterment Association of the Ahooskie High School on Friday evening, December 14, in Copeland's Store building on Main Street.
Ahooskie, N. C. All good things to be eaten will be on sale. In fact, the good women of the town are preparing to satisfy the desires of most fastidious person in town.
Watch the columns of the Herald for further announcements and do not forget the time and place.—By Press Agent.

Notice of Meeting.

The Hertford County Farmers Union will hold its regular quarterly meeting at Ahooskie on Wednesday after the second Sunday in December.

All locals will please take notice and send delegates, as this will be a very important meeting; election of officers and other things that will need your attention.

Place: Ahooskie, N. C.

Time: Wednesday, Dec. 12, 1917.

Jas. H. Mitchell, Sec.

Rev. C. E. Stevens at Baptist Church.

Rev. C. E. Stevens, of Selma, occupied the pulpit at the Baptist Church Sunday night, and delivered a strong sermon on "Soul Winning." He filled this appointment upon the invitation of the pulpit committee.

The members of the Baptist Church are being canvassed to ascertain what amount can be raised to secure a pastor for full time.
Over nine hundred dollars was subscribed at the conferences Saturday and Sunday and by less than fifty members out of a total of over four hundred. The committee and many others believe there should be preaching in Ahooskie every Sunday, and they hope to secure sufficient pledges to enable them to call a pastor for all his time. The prospects are at least encouraging.

Meeting of Winton Township Progressive League.

Winton, Nov. 27.—The newly organized Winton Township Progressive League enjoyed an enthusiastic and very instructive meeting in the Bank of Winton building Monday night. The feature of the evening was a talk by R. G. Hill, Horticultural Expert, of Raleigh, who advised the farmers and others present on how to store and warehouse sweet potatoes, one of the principal food crops of this section.

Mr. Hill is connected with the N.
C. Experimental Station, and his ideas embodied the best that are obtainable on the subjects taken up by him. In addition to his advice on the storing of potatoes, he offered many valuable suggestions on the care of orchards, a factor that must be given attention in these times of greater food production and conservation.

The League will hold a meeting next Monday night in the Grand Jury room of the Courthouse building, and will have as its guest Dr.
F. M. Register, of Northampton County. Dr. Register will talk on health work, in which he is actively engaged himself, being the whole time health officer for Northamp-County.

Everybody is invited to attend what is sure to develop into an interesting meeting, as Dr. Register is one of the foremost Health Officers in the State. It will help you gather something worth while from the experience and work of others.
All future meetings of the League will be in jury room; and it is hoped that the interest in this organization will steadily increase.
