Entered as second-class matter February 25th, 1910, at the post office at Ahsokie, N. C., under the Act of March 3rd, 1878.

Little was heard by the Editor of the political races in Hertford County, but a casual glance at the paper of last week points conclusively to the fact that something in the field of politics has been working full time.

"Jimmie" Vinson, depleted Manager of the HERALD, officially announces his safe arrival in Camp Jackson. His friends, even his former co-worker and writer of this squib, rejoices with him in having gained a "Commission of Buck Private." The one time combination of "Vinson and Parker, Manager and Editor" has been changed to read, "Private Vinson and Seaman Parker, Trench Fighter and Sea Dog."

A steady stream of young sailors are every day going to sea for the first time at the Naval Base, at which the Editor is stationed.

The work now assigned to me is that of filing the cards of every sail or in Camp, "pulling the cards" of all those out to sea, and refiling them. Being every day engaged in this business, the names of all recruits and every list of drafts first pass through my hands then on to various and sundry other desks.

The HERALD is just now working on a real wartime scale. The fact women must take the places of the men who are now members of military units finds a reality in the continuance of the County paper actively edited by the sister of the Ex-Editor, at present Contributing Editor. Mayon Parker, who for a long time served as office Devil, has risen to the office of Manager and will henceforth captain this journalistic enterprise over sea beset with the crafty and annoying "submarines" in the form of inexperience and apprenticeship.

The presence of Submarines off the Coast has only hastened the day when Kaiser Bill will humble himself before the Allied nations. It has served to speed up ship construction, aided recruiting, and above all, it has instilled in the breasts of those sturdy sailors of Uncle Sam's a still keener desire to get on sea and help be among the heroes who shall sweep the waters clear of submarine and force the Hun back into the very narrow limits of his own selfish, greedy and barbarous Country. Further submarine raids can but intensify the determination of the United States to Beat Germany and beat her good.

Cholera Morbus.

This is a very painful and dangerous disease. In almost every neighborhood some one has died from it before medicine could be obtained or a physician summoned. The right way is to have a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic and Diarrhoea Remedy in the house so as to be prepared for it. Mrs. Charles Eneyart, Huntington, Ind., writes: "During the summer of 1911 two of my children were taken sick with cholera morbus. I used Chamberlain's Colic and Diarrhoea Remedy and it gave them immediate relief."

Sour Stomach.

This is a mild form of indigestion. It is usually brought on by eating too rapidly or too much, or of food not suited to your digestive organs. If you will eat slowly, masticate your food thoroughly, eat but little meat and none at all for supper, you will more than likely avoid the sour stomach without taking any medicine whatever. When you have sour stomach take one of Chamberlain's Tablets to aid digestion.
