IN MEMORIAM

Mrs. Cora Savage departed this life on June, 7th 1920 at Lake View Hospital Suffolk Va. after an illness of two weeks, aged 51 years and 6 months. She was married 31 years ago to Mr. L. S. Savage of Ahoskie N. C., where they have made their home for fifteen years. Mrs. Savage joined the M. E. Church South. when quite young and since then has been a faithful worker in all church work feeling it her christian duty to do what she could.

She was one of the most faithful members of the woman's missionary Society and was never called on to read or offer a prayer that she did not cheerfully respond. She was a true friend and most excellent neighbor, a fine christian character.

Those in sickness or trouble in her community found in her a faithful friend and helper. She was never too busy with her own affairs to leave them and go to a neighbor in need all who knew her will praise God for the noble christain life that she lived. We find it difficult to think of being deprived of her welcome presence sweet face and unselfish service in the home, church and community, yet we rejoice that we have as her legacy to us, the record of a pure noble life and christian influence, may her beautiful life ever live in the hearts of those who loved her and her Godly example be an inspiration to each and every one.

When she was taken so very ill, it was there the devoted husband gave up all, and sat by her bed side where he ministered to every need with a gentleness never surpassed. Suffering as she did with no hope of relief, made helpless by the disease that had smitten her, she longed to go to that fair land where there is no more pain, yet she would have lingered in weariness extreme, that her gracious presence might bless and comfort the devoted husband of her youth, whose love had been absolutely consecrated to her and laid as a living sacrifice upon the altar of her suffering, that if by any means and at any cost he might have the joy of seeing her lifted out of her suffering into gladness and strength of restored health, but alas! it could not be and when the end came, for which she was prepared, how calm and restful, free from all pain, as death had set his silent seal upon her unnumbering lips, she passed into the great beyond, with her eyes in those of her husband and her hand clasped in his, they, clasped hands at the bridal altar, again in death and may they clasp them again in the great judgement day.

Believing that he would meet her again in the beautiful city of God, She slipped away into the silent of the night to find the gates of dawn and there she waits, whilst he desolate and alone sits amid the hush of the Evening twilight, listening for a voice that is still, and sometime, some how in God's own way may they clasp hands and love will claim it's own.

On Wed. June 9th at the home of her sister Mrs. R. C. Harrell of Suffolk her funeral services were conducted by her Pastor Rev. J. J. Barker assisted by Rev. Ball of Ahoskie and Revs. Johnson and Staley of Suffolk, also Rev. Edwards of Whaleyville in a beautiful and impressive manner among a large crowd of sorrowing relatives and friends after which her body was laid to rest in Suffolk Cemetery to await the resurrection morn. About fifty friends from Ahoskie attended the burial. The floral tributes were many and beautiful which proved the love and esteem in which this good woman was held.

To the grief stricken husband, aged father and mother, sister and other loved ones, we extend our deepest sympathy and pray God's blessed promises will sustain them in this hour of their bereavement. "I can not say and I will not say That she is dead, but just away! With a cheery smile and wave of the hand

She wandered into unknown land. I think of her faring on, as dear In the love of there as the love of here, Think of her still, as the same; I say She is not dead—she is just away." —E. M. B.

R. F. Erwin Regarding His Troubles

"A year ago last winter I had an attack of indigestion followed by biliousness and constipation. Seeing Chamberlain's Tablets so highly recommended for stomach troubles I bought a bottle of them and they helped me right away" writes R. F. Erwin, of Peru, Ind. If you have any trouble with your digestion give these tablets a trial. They do you good.—ad.

Watch that label on your paper. To be on the safe side it would be better that the last two figures were 20.
