

MOVING VAN IS BUSY

Many home renters are this week "swapping" places. A few have braved the frigid weather of the first few days of this week, having already moved; while others will move within the next few days. Among some of the changes are or will be: Rev. Barker and family to the Wilson (nee Mrs. Overton) residence; Mr. Walter Parker and family to the Adkins residence, now occupied by Mr. J. W. Howard and family, who will move one door farther east, into the home vacated by Mrs. L. Bazemore and family. The latter have moved back to their old home in Bertie County. Mr. and Mrs. Will Copeland will move into the house occupied by Rev. Barker.

Among the business changes are the removal of Myers and Leary to the Parker store, E. J. Bell & Co. having moved into the Sessoms' building lower Main Street. Mr. L. T. Sumner will launch into the mercantile business at the old Myers and Leary stand. Other new or old firms are expected to open for business in the Sessoms' building.

MRS. MILLIE J. THOMAS

On December 26, at 6 P. M. death entered the home of W. D. Thomas, near Windsor, N. C., and took from it our beloved mother, Millie J. Thomas, in the 73rd year of age. Mother had been in failing health for several years, but she was up, seeming as well as ever. But when the summons came she was ready to obey; only five hours before her death she had said she was only waiting God's good will to call her and that the time seemed long to her. It is so hard for us to part from her; her chair is vacant; the home circle broken; and everything seems so strange to us now. But, while our hearts are bowed in sorrow, we have comfort in knowing she is not dead but sleepeth.

Life seems dark to us; the days seem long; but we know the one she loved and served and who was holding her hand leading her in the shadows of death, will not forsake us; for it was He who she looked to in all her troubles. The many lessons of goodness she has taught us will help us to try and be more like our precious mother and meet her where trouble never comes and there is only love. In Heaven, mother, you are gone; we can see you on earth no more. But may your silent watch hover over us, bidding us walk in your footsteps, that we may at last meet you again where there will be no more weeping, partings or pain.

You ask us why we're downcast; Why we whisper one sweet name. Only those who have lost a mother Know our anguish and our pain.

Time cannot heal our wounded hearts Or fill the vacant chair We miss your dear, kind smiling face We miss our mother everywhere.

LOVING CHILDREN.

MAKE MONEY IN PRODUCING BEEF

North of Ohio Cows and Purebred Era of Prime Importance in Making Start.

SELECT BEST HEIFER CALVES

No Method Adapted to All Farms and Conditions as Much Depends on Pasture Available and Year.

We are a nation of great eaters. The average American eats more than 140 pounds of this concentrated food each year. The importance of meat, particularly beef, is nowhere more emphatically brought out than at the great central stockyards, some of which cover nearly a square mile of ground. To keep the supply of animals moving through these yards, necessary to feed the millions of people, requires the raising of cattle, hogs, and sheep on hundreds of thousands of farms and ranches.

Improve Each Generation. In profitable beef production a herd of good cows and a good purebred bull are of great importance. Each generation of cattle raised should be better than the preceding one. This can be accomplished by selecting the best heifer calves each year to take the place of barren, shy-breeding, and old cows, and buying a better bull each two or three years. All other calves produced may be sold either as weanlings at six or eight months old, as stockers or feeders at one or two years, finished as baby beef at sixteen to twenty months, or as fat steers at an older age. The system employed depends largely upon the pasture and feed available, transportation costs, and the market price of milk and cattle.

The systems of handling beef-breeding herds which are most extensively practiced are "beef," "baby beef," and "dual-purpose." In the first two systems calves run with their dams until weaned, the cows not being milked. They differ in that cows intended for producing calves for baby beef generally receive better care because their calves are to be fattened shortly after weaning, which makes it necessary to give them a good start on milk.

The straight beef system is primarily adapted to the range country of the West and South, which is too rough, dry, or sandy for cultivation. Where the climate permits, pasture is depended on the year round. Some cottonseed cake may be used during unusually bad weather or periods of feed shortage. Where snow covers the range a part of the year, hay is put up for winter feeding. Little grain is fed, except where grain sorghums can be grown. From southern ranges the cattle are usually sold as stockers at early age from weaning time to maturity. Recently many fat calves have been going to the slaughterhouses. From the North and West a large part of the cattle go to market grass-fat as three-year-olds.

Baby-beef production is a highly specialized business and is adapted to regions where there is a plentiful supply of fattening feeds together with good pasture for the summer maintenance of the breeding herd and nursing calves. The corn belt is the best place for this system, but it is practiced to some extent in other places.

When to Finish Baby Beef.

If spring calves are to be finished as baby beefs, they should be taught to eat grain before they are weaned. They should go into the dry lot at the end of the pasture season and be ready for market by June or July. If possible, they should have good pasture for a couple of weeks after weaning. Fall-born calves should be kept on grain when they are turned on pasture in the spring. The quantity of grain should be gradually increased throughout the summer and fall so that they will be finished for market in December or January. When the pasture falls, hay and stubble should be supplied.

Stocker calves require some meal or grain during their first winter to keep them thrifty and growing. They can utilize to advantage much more roughage, such as stalk fields, meadows, clover, and straw than baby beefs. At weaning and two-year-olds they may be wintered on roughage alone, some clover or alfalfa hay being given available.

TURN HAIR DARK WITH SAGE TEA

It Mixed with Sulphur It Darkens so Naturally Nobody can Tell.

The old-time mixture of Sage Tea and Sulphur for darkening gray, streaked and faded hair is grandmother's recipe, and folks are again using it to keep their hair a good, even color, which is quite sensible, as we are living in an age when a youthful appearance is of the greatest advantage.

Nowadays, though, we don't have the troublesome task of gathering the sage and the mussy mixing at home. All drug stores sell the ready-to-use product, improved by the addition of other ingredients, called "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound." It is very popular because nobody can discover it has been applied. Simply moisten your comb or a soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning the gray hair disappears, but what delights the ladies with Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound, is that, besides beautifully darkening the hair after a few applications, it also produces that soft lustre and appearance of abundance which is so attractive. This ready-to-use preparation is a delightful toilet requisite for those who desire a more youthful appearance. It is not intended for the cure, mitigation or prevention of disease.

LOOK OUT FOR THE CARS

DO YOU know of anyone who is old enough to read, who has not seen that sign at a road crossing?

If everyone has seen it at some time or other, then why doesn't the railroad let the sign rot away? Why does the railroad company continue to keep those signs at every crossing?

Maybe you think, Mr. Merchant, "Most everybody knows my store, I don't have to advertise."

Your store and your goods need more advertising than the railroads need to warn people to "Look Out for the Cars."

Nothing is ever completed in the advertising world.

The Department Stores are a very good example—they are continually advertising—and they are continually doing a good business.

If it pays to run a few ads round about Christmas time, it certainly will pay you to run advertisements about all the time.

It's just business, that's all, to ADVERTISE in THIS PAPER

EAT LESS MEAT IF BACK HURTS

Take a glass of Salts to flush Kidneys if Bladder bothers you—Drink lots of water.

Eating meat regularly eventually produces kidney trouble in some form or other, says a well-known authority, because the uric acid in meat excites the kidneys, they become overworked; get sluggish; clog up and cause all sorts of distress, particularly backache and misery in the kidney region; rheumatic twinges, severe headaches, acid stomach, constipation, torpid liver, sleeplessness, bladder and urinary irritation.

The moment your back hurts or kidneys aren't acting right, or if bladder bothers you, get about four ounces of Jad Salts from any good pharmacy; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to flush clogged kidneys and stimulate them to normal activity; also to neutralize the acids in the urine so it no longer irritates, thus ending bladder disorders.

Jad Salts cannot injure anyone; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which millions of men and women take now and then to keep the kidneys and urinary organs clean, thus avoiding serious kidney disease.

SOUR STOMACH INDIGESTION

Theford's Black-Draught Highly Recommended by a Tennessee Grocer for Troubles Resulting from Torpid Liver.

East Nashville, Tenn.—The efficiency of Theford's Black-Draught, the genuine, herb, liver medicine, is vouched for by Mr. W. N. Parsons, a grocer of this city. "It is without doubt the best liver medicine, and I don't believe I could get along without it. I take it for sour stomach, headache, bad liver, indigestion, and all other troubles that are the result of a torpid liver."

"I have known and used it for years, and can do highly recommend it to every one. I won't go to bed without it in the house. It will do all it claims to do. I can't say enough for it."

Many other men and women throughout the country have found Black-Draught just as Mr. Parsons describes—valuable in regulating the liver to its normal functions, and in cleansing the bowels of impurities.

Theford's Black-Draught liver medicine is the original and only genuine. Accept no imitations or substitutes. Always ask for Theford's.
