What Would You Do in a Case Like This

Discussing sales, collections, etc., the sales manager for a prominent New York firm who was in this section a few days ago, told this story:

"We sold a bill of goods to a merchant at a little cross road village in one of the Southern States, and when the goods arrived at the village he refused them. The firm prepared to institute suit for collection, and wrote to the railroad agent at the village for information concerning the arrival of the merchandise, to the president of the bank for information concerning the financial standing of their customer, to the mayor of the city asking him to recommend a good lawyer to handle their case, and to the customer, threatening suit if he did not make payment at once. They received a reply reading something like this:

"I received the letter telling me I had better pay up. I am the railroad agent here, and also received the letter you wrote to the agent. I am president and sole owner of the local bank and can assure you as to my financial standing. As the mayor of the town I hesitate to refer you to a lawyer, since I am the only member of the bar in this vicinity. If I was not also pastor of the Methodist church I would also tell you to go to ———."—Yorkville Enquirer.

IN MEMORIAM

On Monday, January 4, 1922, at half past twelve o'clock the death angel visited the home of Williams Lewis, Jr., and took from it the wife and mother, Lucy Weaver Lewis. She was 69 years of age, and for fifty years had been a member of the Murfreesboro Second Baptist church, and until the latter years of her life was a regular attendant, and ever loved the church and all work pertaining to God's kingdom.

As a wife she was most faithful and as a mother most devoted. She left to mourn their loss a husband, and eleven children, eight daughters and three sons, besides a host of relatives and friends.

The funeral services were conducted at her home by Rev. Creacy, her former pastor, and the remains were laid to rest in the burial ground at the home.

The pall bearers were her three sons, two son-in-laws, and two grandsons.

"We loved her greatly, but the Angels loved her best, and took her from her suffering into Eternal rest.

Husband and Children.

SHE IS "FULL OF PEP" THEY SAY

She Is Good-Looking and Gay and Is Always Ready for a Good Time

Why is a girl popular? Look around and see what a good time the good-looking one have all the time. Men seek them out and ask them to parties, the dances and entertainments and notice that it is not the doll-face type real men like most, but the red-blooded girl with "pep" and happy good nature. Any girl who is tired and languid and has a poor complexion and dull eyes can improve her condition and be far happier if she will simply take Gude's Pepto-Mangan until she has put her blood into good condition. Red blood means "full of life" and "full of life" usually means happiness.

Try Gude's Pepto-Mangan, and see how much better you feel. Doctors have used it for nearly thirty years for weak, run-down people. It helps them get well. Sold in both liquid and tablet form. Advertisement.

Miss LaRue Davis, of Chattanooga, Tenn., only weighed 76 pounds. After taking three bottles of Tanlac, she now tips the scales at over a hundred pounds and is enjoying the best of health. C. H. Mitchell.—Advertisement.
