Russian Red Goes on Hunger Strike in Prison.

Marie Spirideneva, Who Attacked Bolshevike, Escaped Prison and Was Recaptured, Nearly Dies From Lack of Food

leader of the Russian peasants. She was breit Siberia under the carist regime for bombing a provincial official.

She denounced the Brest-Litovsk treaty in the fifth all-Russian soviet congress because she said it robbed the peasants of food and clothing.

Spiridonova disappeared immediately after her inflammatory speech. Bol-shevist leaders caused the report to be circulated that she was mentally un-balanced and had been placed in a sanitarium.

She was confined for a time in a building in the Moscow Kremlin, but managed to escape, and was not heard of for a long while. The cheka discovered her living quietly in an obscure section of Moscow and she was again imprisoned. After repeated attempts possible to the erection of their to get released, Spiridonova started the hunger strike which came near ending her life. She has been afflicted with tuberculosis for years as a result of her prison experiences under the old regime. The lack of food aggravated her malady and it was necessary to move her to a hospital and administer nourishment forcibly.

Spiridonova was a school teacher at the time she became a terrorist, and while still in her teens took up the defense of peasants against the oppres-sions of government officials and land lords. She is now about thirty-five

FIND ANCIENT INDIAN RELICS

Warrier's Horse and Gun Had Been Buried With Him in Kansas.

Hutchinson, Kan,-While excavating southeast of Fowler recently, Charles Hill unearthed some relics from an ancient Indian grave. It appears that all the belongings of the brave were buried with him. An old and deeply corroded gun barrel of flint lock pattern was unearthed. The lock had all fallen in pieces and the gnawing tooth of time had made heavy inroads on the once shining What appears to have been a bridle bit of wonderful heft ornamented with chains is among the most interesting relics of the collections. A number of sterling sliver trinkets are practically intact. All that remained of the body of the old Indian were two or three

U. S. BUYS $100,000,000 TOYS

New York Bank Reports American Manufacturers Troble Output Since 1914.

New York.-More than $100,000,000 was spent by the American people for toys and games during 1921, the National City bank has figured. The factory value of toys manufactured in this country has more than trebled, it was estimated, since the war cut off the supply from Germany. The value of toys made here in 1919 was given as $46,000,000, compared with $14,000,000

Toy imports declined from $8,000,000 in 1913, to $1,000,000 in 1918, while imports rose in 1920 to $6,000,000 and to $10,000,000 in 1921. Exports of American toys jumped from less than $1,000,000 in 1913 to $4,000,000 last year
