

MURFREESBORO NEWS

It snowed beautifully here on Tuesday morning. The scene furnished a poem. The trees were dressed up so stiff in white that their grace of movement was lost. An old fashioned snow! But lo, about noon the sun slowly appeared and the scene too quickly changed.

Mr. W. C. Ferguson spent a few days last week in Suffolk, Va. He was accompanied by his little daughter, Frances and she made a special visit to her grandmother, Mrs. C. F. Ferguson, who is spending the winter in that city.

Mr. and Mrs. Rufus Brett, and two little children of Meola spent the week at Mrs. Brett's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Futrell.

Mr. and Mrs. Donald Waters of Ahsokie spent Thursday evening and Friday here with the former's parents.

Mr. Phillip White arrived in town from Norfolk last Friday to join his wife in the home of Mr. Thomas Hunter.

Mrs. David Gatling and her daughter, Bessie, have moved to Norfolk, where they will reside in the future.

Mr. and Mrs. Lorney Jenkins who lived about two miles outside of town, have moved into Murfreesboro and are occupying their new home next to the Sewell House.

Stewardship Institute at Murfreesboro

Beginning Sunday evening, January 12, at the Baptist church, the Stewardship Institute of the West Chowan Association will be held, for a two day session, ending on Tuesday at noon.

With the great personalities, Drs. Charles E. Maddrey, Corresponding Secretary of the State Baptist Convention, Walter N. Johnson and A. C. Hamby, who will conduct the Institute, there is promise of both pleasure and spiritual benefit. The inspiration that may be derived from this institute and the presence of its able leaders may result in rare benefit to many.

The Institute is open to all the pastors, Sunday School Superintendents and leaders of the church organizations being especially invited to attend and they will be entertained by the Murfreesboro and Meherrin churches.

The Senior B. Y. P. U. of the Meherrin Baptist Church

Murfreesboro, Jan. 30.—We organized our union on July 1, 1921, with a membership of 30, but soon we grew to forty members. We went to work with a heart full of love for the work.

During the first three months after we were organized we were placed on the Standard. We kept our record for the following three months, again going on the Standard with honors. We had eighteen to go on honor roll both in attendance, and in Bible readings, during the second quarter.

At the close of the year 1921 we had with us the Junior State Secretary, Miss Elma Farabow, who organized our juniors into a union, who are now doing great work. We are proud of them.

We, the Senior Union, reorganized on January 1st, 1922, with the following officers:

President, Theo Liverman; Vice-President, Alta Chitty; Secretary, Julia Vinson; Corresponding Secretary, Letha Carter; Treasurer, Lila Warren; Librarian, Laura Ruth Parker; Pianist, Suddie Warren; Chorister, Vernon Warren; Quiz leader, Nannie Vinson; Group Captains; Gary Vinson, Tommie Vinson, Thomas Griffin, William Brown.

We have the most wonderful pastor to be found. He is wide-awake and loves his young people, is ever working among and looking out for the interest of we B. Y. P. U. boys and girls. To him we give all the honor for our B. Y. P. U. success. (Miss) Letha Carter, Corresponding Secretary.

Soft Horses and Hard Tractors

Horse flesh does not improve with winter idleness. Like athletes out of training, horses are soft and have to be worked carefully in the spring.

But the sturdy Fordson keeps fit. Through the winter there are tasks for it to do and in the spring it is on the job early with the Oliver Plow to do the plowing on time and well.

This spring, though farm help may be cheaper, every efficient method must be used to insure economical production.

There is a special Oliver Plow to use with the Fordson for every farming need.
