OLD FASHIONED QUILTING PARTY

"Ye olden times" were brought to the forefront in this latter day twentieth century era, last Thursday, when many of the friends of Mrs. C. E. Harris gathered at her suburban home, and for several hours nimbly worked away at the two quilts stretched before them in the large and commodious living room. The ladies gathered early in the afternoon, and, amid fun making and good old-time social conversations, sandwiched with a sumptuous repast at the noon hour, and a course of home made candy later in the afternoon, one large quilt was transformed into a finished product, while still another lacked but little being made ready for covering.

It was strictly a "hen party"—women who had "been there before". Through their good graces the "man of the house", Mr. Harris, was allowed to sit in with the quilters. (Somebody had to keep the big, red hot fire going.) Mr. Henry Miller joined the party at noon long enough to invoke the blessings of the Divine; and incidentally to partake of the spread.

Those present at the quilting party were: Mesdames W. E. Sessoms, J. A. Hill, F. D. Odum, C. R. Odum, H. P. Gatling, J. H. Jenkins, Anne Pierce, J. R. Garrett, M. D. Gatling, Jessie Johnson, J. T. Parker, D. L. Holloman, L. W. Sykes, Joe White, J. J. Askew, J. E. Jenkins, Henry Tayloe, Henry Miller, Edd Reece, and Misses Hughson and Pierce.

ROADS OF THE COUNTY IN TERRIBLE CONDITION

Automobile traffic has practically been suspended over Hertford County roads for some time—only the brave and hardy attempt to plow through the mud, piled high and deep upon the roads. The weather conditions since the advent of this year have been very unfavorable, and added to this is the ever increasing amount of traffic in the County; both of which have served to make the highways a sea of mud, gulleys, deep holes, and water ponds.

One of the ways to beat the elements of weather and to combat the muddy roads is to page the horses and mules, pull out the old harness, and hitch to buggy, cart or wagon. Many have turned to these rigs lately, but, even then, slow progress is made over the roads, team being unable to go at a trotting gait. Two-horse wagons have served court attendants this week; two and three loads have left Ahoakie each morning for Winton, and the most fastidious have not a word to say against the mode of travel. A few have plowed the mud with Fords; others have gone by rail to Tunica, and thence to Winton, by foot or Ford.

JUDGE ALLEN SAYS BONUS BILL MUST PASS

Judge O. H. Allen, who is sitting court in Winton this week, says Congress dares not fail to pass a sort of bonus bill for ex-service men. His Honor did not, however, state that he was an advocate of the measure. According to all logic, Judge Allen says the ex-service man must be satisfied; he believes there is no doubt about the final passage of a bill that will recompense the average man who served his country in the late war.

The jurist explained his reason for believing Congress will enact bonus legislation by pointing to the fellows, of the country and of moderate means in general, who are frank enough to admit that the "next draft" will never get them unless his majesty, Uncle Sam, recognizes the worth of their services in the late war; when many of the young men left lucrative positions to enter the military service. Returning after the war, these same soldiers who had been living the life of a combatant in war times found their elder neighbors had cleaned up financially and were in much better shape than before the war period—they had thrived while the service man had run the gamut of a bloody war upon the meagre salary of a soldier or sailor. Judge Allen remarked that you could never explain away the reasons for giving something to those men. Future protection depends upon their attitude towards the Government; and that attitude will not be one of further sacrifice, until they have received recognition of their former services to the Government.

MENOLA NEWS

On Wednesday afternoon of last week Mrs. H. U. Griffith and daughter, Miss Janie Parker, were hostesses at a "silver tea". The guests were members of the Missionary Society. The games and contests were all in keeping with Washington's birthday anniversary. Mrs. I. F. Snipes won the prize for best drawing of George cutting down the cherry tree and Mrs. O. P. Snipes received the booby. There was a contest to see who could make words from the word "Washington", Mrs. I. F. Snipes also won in that. Mrs. C. W. Parker furnished delightful music, both instrumental and vocal. A fancy little basket was conspicuous in the hall and all present dropped their silver offering in. After the contests were over the guests were invited to the beautifully decorated dining room where delightful refreshments were served. Those present were Mrs. Laura Parker, Mrs. Maggie Brown, Mrs. I. F. Snipes, Mrs. O. P. Snipes, Mrs. Harvey Vinson, Mrs. Dora Vinson, Mrs. Emil Anderson, Mrs. J. E. Griffith, Mrs. A. G. Otwell, Mrs. Harvey Snipes, Mrs. J. M. Eley, Mrs. C. W. Parker, Misses Deborah Brown, Annie Brown, Ada Vinson, Jannie Parker, Anna H. Griffith and Ida Belle Baker, all had a general good time.

On last Saturday, Joseph Anderson celebrated his twelfth birthday. He invited a number of his friends, and they all participated in contests and games, after which delicious refreshments were served. There was among other good things a big cake with twelve candles. The children all voted Master Joseph a charming host. Those present were Albert Gatling, Cola Parker, James Robert Brown, Elsie Cowan, Ida Belle Baker, Retha Cowan, Arra Snipes and Eunice Henley Otwell. Joseph was the recipient of gifts from all his guests.

QUIT MEAT WHEN KIDNEYS BOTHER

Take a glass of Salts before breakfast if your Back hurts or Bladder is troubling you.

No man or woman who eats meat regularly can make a mistake by flushing the kidneys occasionally, says a well-known authority. Meat forms uric acid which clogs the kidneys, they become overworked from the strain, get sluggish and fail to filter the waste and poisons from the blood, then we get sick. Nearly all rheumatism, headaches, liver trouble, nervousness, dizziness, sleeplessness and urinary disorders come from sluggish kidneys.

The moment you feel a dull ache in the kidneys or your back hurts or if the urine is cloudy, offensive, full of sediment, irregular of passage or attended by a sensation of scalding, stop eating meat and get about four ounces of Jad Salts from any pharmacy; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast and in a few days your kidneys will act fine. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to flush and stimulate the kidneys, also to neutralize the acids in urine so it no longer causes irritation, thus ending bladder weakness.

Jad Salts is inexpensive and cannot injure; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which everyone should take now and then to keep the kidneys clean and active and the blood pure, thereby avoiding serious kidney complications.
