Mr. and Mrs. Dukes Entertain

Mr. and Mrs. Paul E. Dukes delightfully entertained a number of their friends Saturday evening, April 1st, from nine until twelve at the home of Mrs. Dukes' parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Rawles. The guests gathered a few minutes after nine o'clock and were invited in the parlor which was beautifully decorated with green and yellow crepe paper. Conversation was engaged in for the first hour with several selections of piano music by Miss Earle Lawrence, after which a baseball contest was engaged in. Miss Louise Basnight and Mr. James I. Crawford were the winners, the prize being an April fool package. At eleven o'clock a two course luncheon was served consisting of chicken salad and crackers and crackers, blocked ice cream and cake. At 12 o'clock the guests departed voting Mr. and Mrs. Dukes as delightful hosts.

Those present were: Miss Dorothy Benton of Suffolk, Misses Eva Bones, Lurline Brown, Louis Basnight, Earle Lawrence, Feye Geroch and Lena Moore Rawles. Messrs. E. E. Garrett, C. A. AHOSKIE TEAM WINS FIRST GAME OF SEASON

The local High School team composed of some of the "liveliest stuff" that Ahoskie can produce, when it comes to baseball, won from Lewiston in a lively game played on the latter's diamond Wednesday afternoon. The final score was 4 to 2 in Ahoskie's favor. As indicated by the score, neither team loafed on the job, but put out some real stuff, considering the fact that this is the season for spring fever, and early for baseball birds. Thus the second nine, or High School team, opened Ahoskie's baseball season for 1922.

It remains for Ahoskie's first nine to begin "sawing wood", and get busy. No reason why we can't lick 'em all; the material is in Ahoskie.
