

CHRISTIAN HARBOR NEWS

Mr. R. P. Hoggard of Norfolk, Va., spent the week-end with his mother Mrs. George Hoggard.

Mr. and Mrs. B. N. Sykes and Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Mason were guests of Mrs. N. S. Hoggard Sunday.

Mrs. Walter Evans and children spent Wednesday and Thursday with Mrs. W. J. Holloman.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Jim Beacham, a girl, on May 1st.

Misses Essie and Nannie Coleson of Scotland Neck are visiting their sister Mrs. W. J. Holloman.

Mr. and Mrs. R. P. Blythe and Mr. and Mrs. N. S. Hoggard were guests of Mrs. Saunders of Norfolk, Va., is the daughter, Mrs. B. P. Wilson.

Messrs. George Myers and Polk Felton were callers in our community last Sunday.

The play, "The Rustic Romeo," given at Christian Harbor by the Colerain school last Friday, was splendidly carried out and enjoyed by all present.

Misses Fairless and Forehand have returned to their homes after teaching Christian Harbor Graded School for the past term.

Miss Lila Butler, school principal, lefts last Thursday to visit friends in Suffolk before returning to her home in Clinton, N. C.

A large crowd attended the fish fry at Mt. Pleasant Wharf last Tuesday. Each lady carried a nice lunch and all thoroughly enjoyed the day.

Mrs. Ella Evans was the guest of Mrs. R. H. Holloman and is now visiting Mr. and Mrs. Billie Burch.

Mr. E. V. Grissom made a trip to Ahoskie last Thursday.

Miss Maggie Holloman was the guest of her sister, Mrs. J. T. Coleson, Jr., last Sunday.

"Dust of the Earth," the play given by Christian Harbor School, will be given at Riverside School Friday, May 12th. Everybody welcome.

Mr. J. L. Blythe made a business trip to Ahoskie last Thursday.

There will be preaching services at Christian Harbor next Sunday morning. The Woman's Missionary Society will meet next Thursday afternoon. All members are urged to

IT COMES BACK

Money invested out of town is gone forever, but the money that is invested with your local merchants comes back to you in the comfort assuring pay envelope.

The erroneous impression that large corporative monopolies give something for nothing has a tendency to stunt the pay envelope by crippling local commercial conditions.

Before you send your next mail order to a "catalogue house" just ask yourself the following questions:

Where did I get this money?

Do the people to whom I send it contribute in any way to the comfort of my home?

Do these people show a spirit of leniency toward me with reverses?

Would they tide me over if my husband was to be laid off from his work?

Would my fellow town folks think as well of me as they do now if they knew I am one of a party who are aiding in crippling the business conditions of this community?

Are we doing right by sending our earning out of the community when such a course jeopardizes our home interests?

Do I save money or get better goods by dealing with catalogue houses?

Am I going to prove myself an ingrate by violating my reciprocal duty to my friends and benefactors?

Isn't this action of buying from out-of-town mail order catalogue houses one of perverted economy?

Have not I an honorable obvious duty to render my home town by lending my aid and contributing my mite for its advancement?—Morganston News-Herald.

be present.

Mr. W. J. Holloman went to Ahoskie last Saturday.

Clarence, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Will Newsome, is very ill at this writing.

Mrs. Dinnie Blythe spent Friday afternoon with Mrs. B. F. Wilson.

Mrs. Lulu Horton spent Saturday night at the home of Mr. and Mrs. N. S. Hoggard.

THE FUNERAL OF A TOWN

A town that had once been lively, progressive and prosperous, suffered an attack of civic anaemia and declined until it reached that condition where it was generally referred to as "a dead one."

Hiram Hogtal, whose motto, "Get it While the Gettin's Good" is sufficient introduction, dug the town's grave.

The firm of Pinhead, Pessimist & Crepe Hanger embalmed the remains.

The firm of Selfishness & Swine-snout, who had always been so busy feathering their own nest that they never had any time for town affairs, donated the shroud.

Pinchem & Pennysqueezer, who never believed in advertising, furnished the coffin.

Old Pompous Purseproud drove the hearse and a select quartet from the Chique Club sang the Doxology.

The Rev. Mr. Mossback preached the funeral sermon.

Mr. Home Town Knocker donated the tombstone and old Billy Belly-acher carved the epitaph.

Messrs. Doolittle, Croaker, Putty-head, Beatback, Wetblanket and What's-the-Use acted as pall bearers.

The only person who had no official part in the obsequies was Mr. Live Wire, who got off the train by mistake and attended the funeral because there was nothing else to do between trains.

Weights 67 1/2 lbs. Folds and fits in a neat carrying case.

$50

CORONA
The Perfect Writing Machine

We have an opening in this locality for someone to represent us and sell CORONA Typewriters.

OFFICE SALES AND SERVICE CO.
Norfolk—Virginia
"Distributors"

Notice of Administration

Having qualified as Administrator of the estate of Paul Fennel, deceased, late of Hertford county, North Carolina, this is to notify all persons having claims against the estate of the said deceased to exhibit them to the undersigned, duly verified, on or before the 7th day of April, 1923, or this notice will be pleaded in bar of their recovery. All persons indebted to said estate will please make immediate payment.

This the 31st day of March 1922.

D. C. BARNES, Administrator.
4-28-6t-pd.

We carry a fresh line of fancy groceries. We have FRESH BREAD on MONDAY, WEDNESDAY, and FRIDAY...Friday is also our CAKE DAY.

We make a specialty of special orders on Cake and Bread for Pic-nics, birthday, and Wedding Cakes. We take the lead.

Any one wanting a special cake, see me two or three weeks before date of delivery.

Our motto is, "One price to all and do for you as we would have you do for us."

W. H. NEWSOME
202 Main Street
AHOSKIE, N. C.

Taste is a matter of tobacco quality

We state it as our honest belief that the tobaccos used in Chesterfield are of finer quality (and hence of better taste) than in any other cigarette at the price.

Liggett & Myers Tobacco Co.

Chesterfield
CIGARETTES
of Turkish and Domestic tobaccos—blended

"They Satisfy"

20 for 18c
10 for 9c
Vacuum tins of 50 - 45c

New Job Type Just Received

We have recently added to our Job Printing Department three complete series of new type. The addition of this new type with our modern machinery and skilled workmen puts the Job Printing Department of the HERALD on par with any printing office to be found in eastern North Carolina including towns two and three times the size of Ahoskie.

Our aim is quality and service at a reasonable price. Quality in character and style of work done and paper used. Service in printing when you want it—delivered on time. No exasperating waits and delays, we make a specialty of this feature.

Our prices are based on the Franklin fair price list and will compete with good printer's prices anywhere.

If you want some good stationery, send us your idea and we will make up a form for your approval. We can handle anything from a visiting card to a form 30 inches wide and 44 inches long.

Hertford County Herald
Printers and Publishers
Ahoskie, North Carolina