

FREE BARBECUE DINNER AT SUFFOLK, MAY 20

A big free barbecue dinner will be served the peanut growers at Suffolk Saturday, May 20th, when they come together to hear Mr. Sapiro and Senator Carraway of Arkansas. Several thousand growers are expected to attend this big rally, which it is proposed to make the most memorable day in the history of the Peanut Growers Exchange.

This big meeting for May 20th had been arranged for in advance of the stockholders' meeting last Wednesday. As this was the only day Mr. Sapiro could be secured. Not only is this great friend of the farmers in their organization work to be here that day, but he is coming with a special message that no peanut grower can afford to miss. Senator Carraway, the other speaker, is a member of the Senatorial agricultural "bloc" and one of the most entertaining speakers in America. While his speeches bristle with wit and humor of the rarest kind, he brings a message of hope and faith and good common sense that inspires his hearers to action.

The annual stockholder's meeting at which the directors were re-nominated last week, was such a big success that the growers are greatly encouraged over the outlook for the Exchange and public sentiment is rapidly changing in favor of this great forward movement on the part of the growers. Their subscribing $93,000. that day towards a $200,000. loan fund is a striking proof of their loyalty. This subscription has now been increased to $100,000 by C. W. Martin, who secured the very next day subscriptions from Conway amounting to $7,500. A most significant event in the raising of such a large sum at the stockholder's meeting was the tendering of a $10,000 Liberty Loan Bond to the manager by M. C. Braswell of Battleboro, V. President of the Exchange, to be used on this loan fund. Forty other growers subscribed $1,000 each.

In order to accommodate the big crowds Saturday, May 20th, both the Academy of Music and the Fotosho have been secured and the speakers will do a "double-header" stunt. While Mr. Sapiro is speaking in one building, Senator Carraway will be speaking in the other. At the end of an hour, they will swap places and speak again to the other audience. Arrangements will be made to accommodate the overflow of these two buildings.

From 8:30 to 10:30 a. m., when the speaking begins in the two buildings, there will be free movies for the growers in the Fotosho. Some most instructive and entertaining and entertaining films have been secured for these free movies.

Immediately after these meetings are over, the growers will form in a long parade and march to the grounds where the big free barbecue dinner will be served them. This big treat has been made possible by the merchants of Suffolk taking such liberal advertising space in the Peanut Grower to be sent out this week. So, this is their big treat to the growers of the surrounding counties, who should come here by the thousands Saturday to share in the good things in store for them. Not only are the growers themselves invited, but they are urged to bring their wives along with them, so that they may also share in the joys of this great occasion.

TO THE TAXPAYERS AND VOTERS OF HERTFORD COUNTY

Since I have announced myself as a candidate for Road Commissioner of Hertford county, I feel that the public is interested as to how I stand on certain questions, and I want to say briefly, that:

First of all, "equal rights to all and special privileges to none," and shall pay no henchman by trying to take care of him by giving him a position on the road force.

Second, I am for good roads and voted for the bond issue but stand unalterably opposed to wasting the people's money.

Third, I am against building new roads, at this time, unless it is absolutely necessary and the public demands it.

Fourth, I am opposed to employing a guard or overseer to work convicts, hired labor, or other road hands, who uses profanity instead of decent language. If one of our boys should be overtaken in a fault and have to serve time on the road, we would not like to have him subjected to profane abuse simply because he was where he could not defend himself. We have a statute making it a misdemeanor to curse and swear or to use vulgar and indecent language on the public road in the presence of two or more persons and public decency demands that this law be observed and Christian civilization demand that it be enforced.

There are other things that I stand for which the public is entitled to know and if the voters wish to question me at any time, I will be only too glad to let them know my position. Now, if you stand for the things I stand for, then I solicit your support.

Respectfully,
J. R. GARRETT.
