MODLIN-HAYES

News of the marriage of Mr. Herbert Modlin, of near Ahoskie, and Miss Ruby Hayes, a member of the local high school graduating class of this year, was received by their many friends and acquaintances among the younger social element in Ahoskie with something akin to surprise, the event being of an unexpected nature. The wedding took place in Norfolk, Sunday, May 14th. The bride is well known in the social circles of Ahoskie, whereas the groom is a prosperous farmer of near Ahoskie. After their tour, the couple is expected to return to Ahoskie for their future home. In the meantime, their large circle of friends wish them a "bon voyage", etc.

REV. ISENHOWER PROVES HIS METTLE

Rev. E. J. Isenhower, local Baptist minister, in one of the most timely and effective sermons delivered in the Baptist church for some time past, Sunday, only served to increase the general belief among the church-goers of Ahoskie that he is the "man for the place." Mr. Isenhower has made deep inroads into the affections of local Baptists since his acceptance of the pastorate some time ago. The subject of his sermon Sunday was; "Mother," a theme which was manipulated in a masterly and forceful manner, full of interest and sentiment to his many hearers. It is the general opinion that the local evangelistic field will be touched by Rev. Isenhower; in the next few months; that great efforts will be made to reach the non-church-goers and others in Ahoskie, who are at present, uninterested in church work, of which the number per capita in this town exceeds that of other towns of similar size.

ICE CREAM PLANT AT FULL CAPACITY

The ice cream plant, recently installed by Mr. Z. V. Bellamy, is now in operation, with a steadily increasing output, supplying the dealers in Ahoskie, as well as furnishing those in the surrounding territory with ice cream at a material reduction over the prices formerly paid the Norfolk dealers. Mr. Bellamy says that the business admits of enlargement at any time, thus enabling him to build up a monopoly on this product in this section. The product is on par, to quality, with that of any of the larger corporations, and it is expected that this will be one of the foremost enterprises in Ahoskie in the near future.
