Why Do They Do It?

What makes people fill one theater night after night for 443 nights for one play and stay away from another theater with another play, as though it were a plague spot?

One play is doubtless as widely advertised as the other and the casts of both are probably equal in ability. And yet the crowd goes to one and stays away from the other.

Of course the answer is plain. One is good, the other is not. The play which is to be given on the Chautauqua program is one of the few good ones, the few which have had exceptionally long runs in New York and Chicago, this proving without a doubt that "they have the goods."

"Turn to the Right," ran 443 nights in New York, and 319 nights in Chicago. It is called "the comedy that will live forever." It has the heart interest of the ever-compelling story of mother-love. It is clean. People who are familiar with the Chautauqua type of play agree that this is a fine example of the type.

A special single admission price of $1.00 is announced for the attraction, but season ticket-holders will escape this extra tax. This looks like an opportunity for lovers of drama, especially comedy-drama.

RED PEPPER FOR COLDS IN CHEST

Ease your tight, aching chest. Stop the pain. Break up the congestion. Feel a bad cold loosen up in just a short time.

"Red Pepper Rub" is the cold remedy that brings quickest relief. It cannot hurt you and it certainly seems to end the tightness and drive the congestion and soreness right out.

Nothing has such concentrated, penetrating heat as red peppers, and when heat penetrates right down into colds, congestion, aching muscles and sore, stiff joints relief comes at once.

The moment you apply Red Pepper Rub you feel the tingling heat. In three minutes the congested spot is warmed through and through. When you are suffering from a cold, rheumatism, backache, stiff neck or sore muscles, just get a jar of Rowles Red Pepper Rub, made from red peppers, at any drug store. You will have the quickest relief known.

EXQUISITE CREPE FROCKS OF THE GENTLEWOMAN TYPE

WE ARE gradually coming into a new era of dress. Those who look into the future see silhouetted against the background of fashion a certain refined mode of the gentlewoman. Two of the signs which tell are the lengthened skirt and the princess drape, which outlines the figure in graceful lines. Paris is draping most of its gowns at present.

Perhaps this exquisite type is more appealing because it contrasts so decidedly to modern sports apparel, which in its riot of color and excess design reflect the joyousness of outdoor life and recreation. When afternoon comes and courtesies of call and five o'clock tea follow, we love to slip into a frock of silken caress, which we know reflects feminine charm and refinement in every detail.

For the chic afternoon frock, graceful, clinging crepes remain first choice. These range from georgette to crepe de chine and heavy marocain. Many of these crepe frocks are beaded in separate motifs all over the gown. This idea is illustrated in the white crepe de chine frock shown to the right. By the way, the pure white crepe afternoon frock is a favorite.

Sleeve vagaries are also depended upon to enhance the silken frock for informal wear. Notice the strap effect on the short-sleeved gown in the illustration. The idea of the attractive elbow strap is the basic thought for various sleeve improvisations.

The wing sleeve is also a great favorite, particularly as its contrasting lining gives opportunity for attractive color effects. The exquisite heavy brocade crepe above, in the original is rust color lined with a light copper crepe de chine.

It will be welcome news to many that figured foulard is again in fashion. Printed crepe de chine in Dolly Varden bouquets is also shown among latest fabric displays.
