FIRE DESTROYS STORE BUILDING

Fire, probably originating from sparks dropped from the stove in the interior of the building, destroyed beyond repair the wooden frame store building owned by Woodard Willoughby, colored, Tuesday. The shoe shop, on the corner of Main and Maple streets, adjoining the building, was saved from the flames only by the prompt action of the local fire department. As is usually the case, the alarm was given the fire siren by the time the building was half consumed by the flames. The total loss incurred by the fire is small, owing to the nature of the building. However, a little more prompt action on the part of the fire fighting force might have diminished the loss considerably.

PROTECTION THAT PROTECTS

Mr. J. E. Odum, Agent, The Equitable Life Insurance Society, Ahooskie, N. C.
 Dear Sir: I want to thank you for the very prompt attention the Equitable gave me in the settlement of all the benefits accruing from the policies held by my deceased husband.
 The proofs of death were forwarded to the Home Office on 20th of May, 1922, and on the 27th May, the Society delivered to me its check for the full amount of my husband's insurance.
 This settlement was very satisfactory, and the promptness with which the claim was paid was very pleasing to me.
 Respectfully,
 MRS. CORA LEE HILL.

$100.00 REWARD

TO THE VOTERS OF AHOSKIE TOWNSHIP:
 It has just come to my knowledge that some slanderous person has designedly circulated the report that I wanted to get on the Road Board for the purpose of increasing road taxes to $10 or ten days work on the roads. THIS IS ABSOLUTELY FALSE. I never thought of any such thing in my life and if elected and such a motion were made before the boards, I would fight it with all my might.
 I will give $100.00 in cash to anyone who will bring before me the person who started any such report or that I ever so much as intimated any such thing.
 That is one of the things I want to get on the Road Board for is to help reduce road taxes in every form possible.
 When a bad person can't carry his point by fair means he will not hesitate to resort to lying, so my friends do not be misled by any misrepresentation you may hear for you are entitled to know, as I said in the statement issued last week, how I stand any question pertaining to the office of Road Commissioner as I have nothing to conceal.
 Respectfully,
 J. R. GARRETT.

ADVANTAGES OF THE SMALL TOWN

In the winter, when the water pipes and pumps are frozen and we get up in the morning in a cold house and wade through snow drifts to the office we are sometimes inclined to envy the city dweller with his steam heated houses and streets swept clean of snow. But this time of year, with the green fields and trees to meet our eyes in the morning and the open spaces and clean air, the shoe is on the other foot. We are sorry for the poor devils that arise in the morning and look out upon the solid masonry of the buildings and the paved streets simmering in heat that the night air was unable to cool.
 This time of year, also, the roar and clamor of traffic is jarring on sensitive nerves in the city and the quietness of the small town is appreciated. Of course there are many advantages enjoyed by the city dwellers that is denied to residents of the little burghs, but in the springtime—and the summer—the balance is in favor of the latter, and those so fortunate as to be located in a small town should be duly grateful.

"No More Ruined Shirtwaists for Me," said Mrs. Southlee

"I've discovered a most wonderful water softener"

A group of young housewives were discussing washing materials. One said that her clothes had been fairly eaten to ribbons by patent washing fluids and chemicals.

"No more of that in my home," said Mrs. Southlee. "I've discovered a most wonderful water softener that does not harm the fabric. My maid says it makes the washing easier than anything she has ever used. She just dissolves a 1/2 teaspoonful of Red Seal Lye in each bucket of water. This softens the water, and makes the clothes snowy white. She uses less soap too."

"That's quite true," chimed in another. "I've always used Red Seal Lye as a water softener, but that's only one of its many uses. Red Seal Lye makes an excellent soap. I tell my cook to have all the waste grease. One can of Red Seal, when mixed with grease and water, makes enough soap to last several months for all laundry and scrubbing purposes. It's really quite fun to make. The directions are in the can."

There are many household uses and recipes for Red Seal Lye described in the Red Seal Booklet, which will be mailed you free. Send for it today.

Ask your dealer for the old reliable granulated Red Seal Lye. Get the genuine. Take no other.
