

F. G. TAYLOR FOR COMMISSIONER

As a prerequisite for any man seeking public office he should have among other things at least four qualifications.

- 1st. He should not seek public office for personal interest.
2. He should represent no petty faction.
3. His aim and purpose should be constructive and not destructive.
4. He should be either a Democrat or a Republican.

F. G. Taylor has served the public for three years as County Commissioner, therefore, is not coming before the voters of our County as a stranger and untried. He is a man who does his own thinking and is not influenced in his services to the public through malice, but on the other hand, stands always ready to serve.

Mr. Taylor is not an extravagant man in either public or private affairs and has been during his services as Commissioner the "watch dog" of the county funds, and see that these funds are spent in the most judicious manner possible, consistent with progress and good business. He is not a tax dodger and has never resorted to any secret methods to evade paying his just proportion of taxes. He has never been accused of possessing a taint of Republicanism. He is a natural born Democrat.

Go to the Court House at Winton and ask John Northcott to show you the minutes of the meetings of the Commissioners, and there you will find F. G. Taylor's name recorded against every measure which tends to the extravagant use of the public's money. He was one who defeated the dipping vat appropriation, thereby saving the taxpayers several thousand dollars.

But why does Mr. Taylor have opposition? The answer is quite obvious to every one in this Township. There is a certain element of real estate owners who had their property rates increased under the Revaluation Act in 1920, who have not succeeded in getting a nominal reduction in these rates. He has been able to escape taxes on his money in Virginia banks and elsewhere, but can't hide his real estate. What is the solution? Vote Frank Taylor out and vote Doctor Jesse Harrell Mitchell in. It's simple enough. Let's see. It's an undeniable fact that the Doctor has been Chairman of the Board of Education for several years. This Board spend over 60 per cent. of the people's tax money. Why has not the Doctor given us a fair sample of some reduction in his branch of the county government by cutting some salaries and extravagant expenditures of the county's money by his Board?

The Board of County Commissioners spend only 15 per cent of the tax money. The Doctor says openly that Mr. Northcott's salary ought not to be cut, and Sheriff Scull does not get enough money. How is he to reduce the taxes? Surely he does not propose to abolish the County Home? Vote for F. G. Taylor and re-elect him. He is working hard to get taxes lower and is just as anxious to see them low as any citizen in the county, but he is not willing to reduce them to such extent as to cripple the usefulness of the necessary institutions of the County. He will serve your interest best and not make much noise about it.

Vote for F. G. TAYLOR in the primary Saturday.

Respectfully,
J. N. VANN.

PHILATHEA SOCIAL

On Friday night, May 26th, the home of Misses Mary and Audrey Newsome, beautifully decorated, was the scene of a very interesting and thoroughly enjoyable Philathea social, given by the single members of the class in honor of the married members. Various contests were engaged in, the winner being Miss Helen Askew. Refreshments, consisting of ice cream and wafers were served from an attractively decorated booth. Rev. Isenhower and several deacons of the Baptist Church were guests of honor at the time of the refreshment courses. Promptly at 10:30 the guests, all members of Philathea Class, departed, voting the Misses Newsome and the single section of the class as most charming hostess.

Chicago is planning to establish a night marriage license bureau. Many persons actually cannot spare the time to obtain a license during the working hours and hesitate about taking associates into their confidence when asking for the time off.

A lemon 14 inches in circumference and five inches in diameter, weighing two pounds and containing one pint of juice, was picked near Houston, Tex., recently.

EXPORTED BOOZE MAY FLOW BACK

Liquor Sent Abroad Before Volstead Act Went Into Effect Has Chance to Return.

JOKER IS SEEN IN THE LAW

Permits Reimportation of Whisky Shipped Before Law Became Effective—Billions Dollars' Worth May Come Back.

New York.—Liquors having a value in the legitimate market of more than $300,000,000 and worth in bootleg channels more than $1,000,000,000, from the United States to foreign countries, eventually will find their way back to this country, under the provisions of the Willis-Campbell act passed by congress last November to supplement the national prohibition law, according to John D. Appleby, general prohibition agent in charge of New York and New Jersey.

Big Shipment Enters.
Already one big shipment has been made to this country under the provisions of the supplemental law. Gin valued in bootleg circles at $3,000,000 was reimported from Cuba about two weeks ago. The distillery which made the shipment had gone out of business, a fact that apparently was not discovered by the government agents until the gin had arrived here. A special permit had to be obtained from Washington before it could be stored in a local warehouse, pending its withdrawal for medicinal purposes on permits from the director's office.

Prohibition agents were mystified in checking up the cargo to note on the manifest 112 empty barrels. They have not yet been able to make out the reason for the empties, but Federal Prohibition Director Ralph A. Day regarded it as a suspicious circumstance.

The passage of the Willis-Campbell law, ostensibly for the purpose of killing medicinal beer, has made it possible for the thirsty to be supplied with good liquors for a much longer period than appeared likely before the measure was adopted, prohibition officials said. In some quarters the provision for the reimport of liquors was considered as a "joker."

Stored in Other Countries.
The law provided "that the commissioner may authorize the return to the United States, under such regulations and conditions as he may prescribe, any distilled spirits of American production exported free of tax and reimported in original packages in which exported and consigned for redeposit in the distillery bonded warehouse from which originally removed."

Liquors have been stored in France and other countries in large quantities, according to Mr. Appleby. The prohibition department plans to scrutinize carefully the applications for permits to reimport.

What is regarded as another "joker" in the supplemental law is the provision which exempts payment of tax and penalty for distilled spirits upon which the tax has not been paid which are "lost by theft, accidental fire or other casualty while in possession of a common carrier subject to the transportation act of 1920 or the merchant marine act, 1920, or if lost by theft from a distillery or other bonded warehouse."

Federal Postal Authorities Form Plan With British Officials for Delivery.

Washington.—The Post Office department has entered into an agreement with the British postal authorities for the delivery of regular mail matter and parcel post packages to various points in Russia. It was announced here by First Assistant Postmaster General Bartlett. Tons of parcels, containing clothing mostly, are being forwarded each week and, according to reports received here, 75 per cent of the packages are being delivered to those to whom they were addressed.

PROF. OUT AS COEDS POWDER

California University Instructor May Return if Girls Drop Vanity Cases.

Berkeley, Cal.—Diplomatic negotiations have been opened to have Alvin Thaler, associate English professor at the University of California, return to the freshmen class whence he abruptly walked out because certain girl students would not stop powdering their noses.

"Yes, I admit I walked out," Prof. Thaler said. "I asked them to put aside their vanity cases and attend to their work and they just giggled at me and powdered away all the harder."

The gigglers, it is reported, have agreed to park their vanity boxes outside and the professor is expected to return to the class at once.
