

GREATEST OF PICTURES TO BE SHOWN HERE

"OVER THE HILL," the picture which is hailed throughout the world of motion pictures as the greatest of them all, will begin a run at the RICHARD THEATRE, June 2, and will continue for two days, at least, with a high probability of the run being extended indefinitely. This remarkable photoplay, produced by William Fox, has been taking the country by storm and is smashing every previous record for continuous runs wherever it is shown.

It is safe to say that no picture ever shown here has created the interest aroused by "Over the Hill." Local motion picture devotees have seen it many months, and its engagement here is the method Manager Garrett of the RICHARD THEATRE has taken to keep faith with his patrons, whom he had promised the very best pictures the screen affords.

This production does not dazzle the eye, it does not owe its huge success to the fact that an immense amount of money was spent in its production; but the story is one that goes straight to the heart and makes the spectator live again his childhood days—it takes him back to those golden hours with mother.

Aside from the motion picture "fans" who have been insistent that "Over the Hill" be shown here, it is expected that hundreds of persons will see the photoplay because of their love for and familiarity with the poems of Will Carleton, known as the "Farm Poet," whose popularity was as great at one time as that of James Whitcomb Riley today. Carleton's poems were recited at every school commencement or other public gathering for years; in fact, no program of twenty years ago was complete without the poems on which this picture is based, or other such familiar pieces as "I've Gone With a Handsomer Man" or "Betsy and I Are Out."

The popularity of the picture has made Mrs. Mary Carr, who created the role of Ma Benton in the picture, probably the best known actress on the screen today. Although she has been extremely busy in new pictures at the Fox studios, a widespread demand for personal appearance has compelled her from time to time to abandon her studio work temporarily and make tours so that people could see in the flesh the woman they

THE HOME PAPER

The Exchange has nothing to say about its splendid constituency, its clientele of loyal readers and subscribers, its progressive band of loyal advertisers, and friends generally, except to in a feeble way express its appreciation of the loyalty and generous praise of the good people of the town and county that inevitably find their way to this office, in some form or other. We work hard, we do not do the best we can, but we try to make your newspaper worth while. We reprint the following in justification of the splendid interest that readers of this paper take in it and its work:

"Anybody who can read the Lord's Prayer should take the home paper."

"The newspapers and the public schools are the universities of the people."

"I believe the reading of the news of your own neighborhood, as well as that of the world at large, is one of the primary requirements for an educated man or woman."

"If I were blind, deaf and dumb, and could not read, I would take the newspaper and have it thrown at my gate, so that people passing my house would say, 'There is one person who is interested in the welfare and up-building of his own community.'"

"Good schools, good newspapers, and good roads mean a country that will always stand first among the nations of the world."—Laurinburg Exchange.

had come to love by reason of her work in "Over the Hill."

"Over the Hill" was many months in the making. The idea for a picture based on Will Carleton's poems was conceived by William Fox himself. Much of the humanly sympathetic detail is the product of his keen-sightedness and knowledge of human nature, inspired by his love of "just plain folks and a desire to give them a picture which every man, woman and child would like. He entrusted the directing of the picture to Harry Millarde, who worked from a scenario written by Paul H. Sloane.

As an example of the demand for this picture, "Over the Hill" recently played simultaneously in twenty-six theatres at every performance.

Although unusual crowds are expected to attend the run of the picture in this city, their comfort will be safeguarded, Manager Garrett declares, and he has added extra attendants to his staff.

NO CRITICISM IS MADE OF THOSE TOBACCO FARMERS, WHO AFTER GIVING THE MATTER DUE CONSIDERATION SIGNED THE 5 YEAR POOL, BELIEVING IT BEST TO DO SO, BUT CRITICISM IS MADE, AND JUSTLY SO, OF THOSE WHO INDUCED FARMERS TO SIGN, TELLING THEM IF THEY DID NOT SIGN THEY WOULD HAVE NO PLACE TO SELL THEIR 1922 CROP OF TOBACCO. IN SUCH CASES, OUR OPINION IS THE FARMERS ARE NOT BOUND TO DELIVER THEIR TOBACCO TO THE POOL. WHY IS IT THAT THE OFFICERS OF THE CO-OPERATIVE ASSOCIATION HAVE GIVEN ORDERS THAT ANOTHER DRIVE MUST BE PUT ON TO GET MORE TOBACCO FARMERS TO SIGN THE 5 YEAR POOLING CONTRACT, WHEN CLAIM AFTER CLAIM HAS BEEN MADE THAT THEY HAVE ALREADY SIGNED UP FROM 60 TO 95 PER CENT OF THE TOBACCO? ARE THEY AFRAID TO HAVE THEIR SYSTEM TRIED OUT SIDE BY SIDE WITH THE AUCTION SALE OF TOBACCO WHICH HAS PREVAILED FOR 30 YEARS? WE SUGGEST TO THE TOBACCO FARMERS AND BUSINESS MEN GENERALLY THAT NOTHING IS FAIRER THAN HAVE THE CO-OPERATIVE METHOD OR ANY OTHER METHOD TRIED OUT BY THE SIDE OF THE AUCTION SYSTEM AT THE SAME TIME. IF THIS NEW SYSTEM GIVES THE FARMERS MORE DOLLARS FOR THEIR TOBACCO, THEN OUR FARMERS AND BUSINESS PEOPLE ARE INTELLIGENT MEN AND WILL SOON FIND IT OUT. IF THEIR NEW SYSTEM GIVES THE FARMERS LESS DOLLARS FOR HIS TOBACCO THEN IT SHOULD AND WILL QUICKLY BLOW UP. FARMERS IN EASTERN NORTH CAROLINA HAVE BEEN READING CLAIMS THAT THE KENTUCKY POOL HAS BEEN MAKING FINE SALES FOR THEIR TOBACCO SOME AS HIGH AS 29c, BUT UP TO THIS THEY HAVE ONLY PAID THE FARMERS ABOUT 7 or 8c IF THEY SHOULD GET 7 OR 8c MORE WHICH WOULD BE MUCH LESS THAN AUCTION PRICES, WHAT HAS BECOME OF THE MILLIONS OF DOLLARS HELD BACK? DOES ANY THINKING MAN BELIEVE THAT ANY TOBACCO WAREHOUSE HAS BEEN TURNED OVER TO THE ASSOCIATION BECAUSE THE OWNERS WANTED TO HELP THE FARMERS? IF YOU WILL LOOK OVER THE LIST OF WAREHOUSES OFFERED YOU WILL FIND MANY WHICH HAVE NOT RUN FOR YEARS, OTHERS HAVE BEEN RUNNING AT A GREAT LOSS, OTHERS WHOSE BUSINESS GREATLY DECLINED IN 1921 AND PROSPECTS OF A GREATER DECLINE IN 1922. SO WITH PROMISES OF BIG PRICE, BIG RENTAL AND BIG FAT SALARIES THEY WERE FINALLY PERSUADED TO HELP (?) THE POOR FARMER BY LETTING HIM FURNISH THE TOBACCO OUT OF WHICH TO PAY THESE BILLS. GENTLEMEN LOOK OVER THE LIST OF WAREHOUSES OFFERED AND YOU WILL BE CONVINCED THAT THE POOR FARMER WAS NOT SO MUCH CONSIDERED AS SELF, AND SELF ALONE, IN DISPOSING OF THEM TO THE ASSOCIATION. LET'S WAIT AND SEE WHICH SYSTEM PAYS THE TOBACCO FARMER MOST MONEY.
