On June 13th, Miss Omega Langston quietly passed away in the seventy-eighth year of her age. She had been a great sufferer for about fifteen years. In her early life she was baptized into the fellowship of Meherin Baptist church. Those left to mourn their loss are two sisters, Mrs. Kittie Parker of Richmond, Va. and Mrs. Ozella Vaughan of Menola, and a brother, Mr. Alpha Langston of Indiana besides a host of relatives and friends. The funeral services were conducted by Rev. J. W. Whaley of Murfreesboro. The body was laid to rest in the Langston burial lot near Murfreesboro, and the mound was covered with beautiful flowers, the loving tributes of relatives and friends.

There is no death! The stars go down To rise upon some distant shore; And bright in Heaven's jeweled crown They shine forever more.

AMERICAN MUSIC

American music is what Art Smith of New York City, who is staying with us this week, calls his piano medleys. Mr. Smith features melody, taking the latest hits, recomposing and enriching them with many original effects. Of Jazz there is just a touch, of melody no end. The result, his playing is gay, breezy and occasionally irreverent, immensely gratifying and artistically complete.

In addition to playing a number of his latest Broadway hits, Mr. Smith sings several of his new song successes which are going big through the Sunny South. Mr. Smith gained his reputation as a pianist of originality while playing with his Melody Boys, and he promises to return this fall to play for dances, with his entire orchestra.

ONE REASON FOR MAIL ORDERS

A farmer carrying an express package from a Chicago mail order house was accosted by a local merchant. "Why didn't you buy that bill of goods from me? I could have saved you the express and besides you would have been patronizing a home store which HELPS TO PAY THE TAXES and build up this locality."

The farmer looked at the merchant a moment and then said: "Why don't you patronize your home paper AND ADVERTISE? I read it and DIDN'T KNOW you had the stuff that I have here."—Worth County Local.

AMERICAN ASSOCIATION OF STATE HIGHWAY OFFICIALS
W. C. MARKHAM, Legal Representative
838 Munsey Building, Washington, D. C.
June 28, 1922.

Hon. Hallett S. Ward,
House of Representatives,
My Dear Mr. Ward—On behalf of the 48 State Highway Departments of the Union which I have the honor of representing, I wish to express to you our appreciation for the interest you have taken in the legislation concerning road building as recently passed by the Congress. Your establishment of a three-year program is very heartening and will do much toward stabilizing the situation in the States and giving the State Legislatures an opportunity to plan in an economic way.

Again thanking you for your interest and co-operation in this great work, I am,
Sincerely yours,
M. C. MARKHAM,
Legislative Representative

You need this in your home

Prevents Disease, Saves Soap, Labor and Time

Housewives who have trouble in keeping their refrigerators clean and sanitary should use Red Seal Lye. Just dissolve one tablespoonful of Red Seal Lye in a bucket of water. This solution will clean your refrigerator better than a big bar of soap; not only will it be shining clean, but it will be odorless and absolutely sanitary. Red Seal Lye means death to germs. Washing clothes in ordinary water is an extravagant waste of soap. The best way to save soap is to first soften the water with a little Red Seal Lye.

Red Seal Lye is a high test base. It contains no filler or adulterations whatsoever and will, therefore, last longer and work quicker than ordinary lye. Red Seal Lye will save you money in many other ways. It makes a splendid soap for kitchen and laundry. Simply take one large can of Red Seal Lye and mix it with grease and water. No boiling or tiresome labor. One can will make twenty cakes of pure soap.

The Red Seal Booklet describes many household uses, such as "How to prevent drain trouble," "Disagreeable cleaning made easy," "Soap making," etc. This valuable booklet will be mailed you free. Write for it today. Ask your dealer for the genuine Red Seal Lye. Take no other.
