PRETTY MARRIAGE AT UNION CHURCH

Miss Bettie Williams Tayloe Becomes Bride Of Mr. Aylor Holland

A pretty wedding was solemnized in Union Baptist Church on Thursday, September 21, at 2:15 o'clock, when Miss Bettie Williams Tayloe, daughter of Mrs. A. W. Miller and the late Dr. John Taylor, became the bride of Mr. Aylor Jobe Holland of Holland, Va. The church was beautifully decorated with potted plants, the ceremony took place under a white trellis entwined with ivy and illuminated with pink and white cathedral candles. Rev. Braxton Craig of Monroe officiated.

Miss Helen Winborne of Como rendered the wedding music. Miss Claud Stephenson of Severn sang, "Because," and "At Dawning."

The ushers were Messrs. Hugh Jones of Cofield, John Vinson of Suffolk, I. A. Luke of Holland and J. M. Darden of Union. Miss Janie Parker of Woodland was maid of honor. She wore rose kitten sac crepe and carried pink Killarney roses. Little Misses Eloise Holland of Holland, Va., and Frances Tayloe of Ahsokie, were flower girls. They were attired in fluffy ruffles of white taffeta and carried white baskets of dahlias. They preceded the bridal party and opened the gates to the trellis for the bridegroom. Then came little Dorothy Dean Brown wearing a dainty little frock of pink taffeta, carrying the ring on a white satin pillow, followed by the bride on the arm of her brother John W. Tayloe, who gave her away.

They were met at the altar by the groom and his best man, Dr. Gilmer Holland, brother of the groom. The bride was attired in a handsome going away suit of midnight blue with accessories to match. She carried an arm bouquet of bride's roses and lilies of the valley.

The bride is a very accomplished young lady and has a wide circle of friends. The groom is the son of Dr. and Mrs. J. G. Holland, of Holland, Va., and a prominent business man of that place.

They were the recipients of many handsome and useful presents, consisting mostly of cut glass and silver. An informal dinner was served and out of town guests present.

Those attending the wedding from a distance were: Dr. and Mrs. Rainey Parker of Burlington, Dr. and Mrs. J. G. Holland, Rev. Lightbourne, pastor of the groom; Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Holland, Mrs. Wilson Holland, Mrs. Nell Langustum, Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Holland, Mr. and Mrs. Quinton Peele, Dr. Gilmer Holland and Mr. I. A. Luke of Holland, Va., Dr. and Mrs. George Williams of Gatesville; Mrs. Lill Beaton of Florida; Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Rawls of Gates; Mr. John Vinson and Miss Topsy Holland of Suffolk, Va.

COLERAIN FOLKS SHOW INTEREST IN EDUCATION

Rev. R. B. Lineberry of Colerain, who was in Ahsokie Wednesday morning enroute to Chatham County to attend the 164th annual meeting of the Sandy Creek Baptist Association, at the Rocky River church, brought to the HERALD news of renewed interest in development of the Colerain school.

According to Reverend Lineberry the trustees of the school visited Hobbaville Tuesday, and inspected the school building now under construction there. The Colerain folks are planning to have a handsome new structure ready for the 1923-24 session, and are beginning early to arrange finances and adopt plans for the structure.

Already $19,000 has been realized from the sale of bonds, and an additional $5,000 has been received from the County. Two thousand dollars will probably be spent on the purchase of a site, and another $2,000 for repairs to the present plant.

The trustees of the school will seek to secure from the State $10,000 or $15,000 to supplement the local budget; and thus lay plans for the erection of a building to cost about $35,000. The present plans are tentative and are subject to alterations.
