

STATE NEWS IN DIGEST

There are more barbers in the city of Raleigh than members of any other single profession. Doctors are second in number and insurance agents are third.

Thousands of people gathered at the little town of Calypso last Thursday for the Community Fair. Some of the exhibits were equal to those seen at the larger county fairs.

Mrs. Palmer Jerman, head of the Women's clubs of the State, in a recent speech before the women of Henderson, strongly advocated the primary law of North Carolina. She counseled against a return to the old convention style of nomination.

V. B. Duncan of Whiteville died last week from blood poisoning due to a cut made on his heel by a hay mower.

Dr. N. A. Thompson, one of Lumberton's foremost citizens and beloved home physician, died last week.

This week is official Fire Prevention Week in North Carolina. Governor Morrison has asked all towns and communities to properly observe the week.

More than a million and half pounds of tobacco were sold on the floors of the auction warehouses at Greenville last week. Good prices prevailed.

Charlie Forlaw, veteran newspaper man of Kinston, died last week. He was managing editor of both morning and afternoon paper in Kinston.

President W. P. Few, of Trinity College, says the watchword of that college will be efficiency rather than increase in numbers.

According to figures published last week, the net income of entire state of North Carolina in 1920 was $266,077,606.

James Miller of Kinston, colored, has successfully eluded several posses and has made good his escape, after brutally killing John Sutton, a prominent farmer of Lenoir county.

General John W. Cotton, Confederate veteran of Tarboro, died last Sunday morning.

O. J. Sawyer, engineer on the Norfolk Southern Railroad, was terribly injured in a head-on collision at Eagle Rock Tuesday evening.

Wilson will soon have a new morning daily newspaper. A contract has already been let for the building and equipment ordered.

Internal Revenue Collector Gilliam Grissom says there are at least 30,000 persons in the State who have failed to make their 1922 income returns.

At a meeting of the Lions Club of Wilmington a movement was launched for the appointment of additional superior court judges in the state. Senator W. H. S. Burgwynn of Northampton County made a plea for more judicial districts.

Frank E. McCall has been employed by the North Carolina Extension Service as State Garden Specialist. He comes from South Dakota.

The 100th cotton mill opened in Gaston County this week.

Mrs. W. H. Felton of Cartersville, Ga., has been appointed a member of the United States Senate, to succeed the late Senator Tom Watson. She is the first woman member of the Senate.

State Senator Wiley M. Person of Franklin argued before the Supreme Court Tuesday for a mandamus to force the State Tax Commission to list for taxation all stocks and bonds of corporations doing business within the State.

The Reidsville tobacco co-operative warehouse was opened this week with a prayer by one of the local clergy.

Rev. G. T. Lumpkin of Suffolk, Va., has been mentioned as a probable appointee for the managership of the New Baptist hospital at Winston-Salem.

Democrats of Harnet County will stage an all-day meeting at Dunn today. Governor Cameron Morrison will be the principal speaker.

Forty half-gallon jars of "mountain dew" was discovered by Elizabeth police Monday. It was found tied to stakes in Pasquotank river.

The second annual conference of the North Carolina Tuberculosis Association was held in Goldsboro this week.

The railroads of North Carolina have lost their case whereby they were attempting to restrain the State of North Carolina from collecting the 1921 taxes under the last valuation. A stay has been granted the roads, giving them 90 days in which to make payment.

Congressman Weaver of the Tenth Congressional District has opened the campaign for re-election to Congress.

W. C. Hudson, a tabacconist of Wilson, ran amuck in his home last Saturday and attempted to kill his whole family. He was brought into submission after assaulting one of his little children.

No more paid coaches for high school athletic teams is the word that has gone out from the office of State Superintendent at Raleigh. Professor J. Henry Highsmith was the author of the resolution prohibiting paid coaches, alumni coaches or summer training camps. Coaching must be done by a member of the faculty under the new ruling.

All trains suspended by the Southern Railway on account of the strike have been put into operation.

Osteopaths of North Carolina and Virginia will hold a convention in Greensboro during the month of October.

The boll weevil is doing great damage in Alamance County lately according to reports made by farmers.

Headquarters of the Peanut Exchange have been moved from Suffolk to Norfolk. Officials in charge believe the interests of the Exchange can be better subserved by the removal.

More than five million ballots will be printed by the State Board of Elections for use in the November election.

Wake Forest College football team was handed a 62-3 defeat by the University team last Saturday. The game was played in Goldsboro, more than 5,000 persons witnessing the uneven struggle. A special train from Wake Forest carried the entire student body to Goldsboro.

A mass meeting of the affiliated unions of Asheville was held last Sunday, when union men went on record as favoring the impeachment of attorney-general Daughtrey.

The Atlantic Coast Line Railroad Company has announced the spending of approximately eight million dollars for new equipment. The purchases will include several large Baldwin locomotives, and a large order of improved type box cars.

A crude bomb of amateurish design was found in a Rocky Mount hospital last Friday. Officers destroyed the missile.

Fifty thousand dollars has been subscribed by Rutherford County people for the erection of an orphanage. Rev. O. L. Stringfield has charge of the campaign.

Several amateur fighters of Raleigh have been arrested and will go on trial for illegal boxing.

Odd Fellows of Raleigh are seeking funds for the erection of a ten-story office building in the Capital City. Enough funds have already been subscribed to assure the success of the project.

County authorities of Durham are taking steps to prosecute persons who have removed quarantine tags from houses and allowed diphtheria patients to come in contact with outsiders.

W. V. Guerard, former King Kleagle of the Knights of the Ku Klux Klan of North Carolina, has filed suit in Wake County Court against Dr. W. E. Thompson, personal representative of the Imperial Wizard, asking for damages in the amount of $135,000 for slander and libel.

Eight hundred dollars in cash was taken from the safe in Selma post-office last Friday night, when yeggmen blew open the safe. No trace of the robbers has been found.

Approximately five million pounds of tobacco have been sold on the floors of the auction warehouses at Rocky Mount during the present season.

It has been announced that contracts will be let this month for the construction of several miles of hard surfaced roads in Beaufort County. Commissioner Hart is authority for the announcement.

ADMINISTRATOR'S NOTICE

NORTH CAROLINA—Hertford Co.
Having qualified as administrator of the estate of E. W. Waters, deceased, this is to notify all persons having claims against said estate, to present them properly verified to the undersigned administrator, on or before the first day of September, 1923, or this notice will be pleaded in bar of any recovery.

All persons indebted to said estate will please make immediate settlement.

This 1st day of September, 1922.
A. C. WATERS, Administrator, of the Estate of E. W. Waters,
Powellsville, N. C.
Craig & Pritchett, Attorneys 9-1-6t.

Picnic and Free Barbecue

GIVEN BY

The Colored People of Harrellsville

AT

Old Boone-Harrell Ferry, The New Bridge

2 MILES FROM HARRELLSVILLE

October 10th, 1922

EVERYBODY CORDIALLY INVITED TO BRING SOMETHING TO CARRY THE ENTERTAINMENT. COME ONE! COME ALL!!

OPENS AT 9 O'CLOCK AND

CLOSES AT YOUR LEISURE

HORTON PERSONALS

Mr. and Mrs. P. H. Parker and children, Gates, visited relatives here Sunday.

We are glad to see little Miss Sophia Rawls out again after being shut-in for several days with diphtheria.

Mr. N. P. Odom continues very feeble.

Sorry to report Mr. J. Wince Parker on the sick list this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Williams spent Sunday with relatives at Roxobel.

Peanut digging has commenced on a few farms here.

North Carolina—Hertford County, in the Superior Court

Kelly Jenkins and Berta Jenkins vs.

Adele Caldwell and husband, L. C. Caldwell, and Theo Hedgspeth, Ila Hedgspeth, Collin Hedgspeth and Myrick Hedgspeth, minors.

NOTICE

The defendants above named, except Collin Hedgspeth, will take notice that an action entitled as above has been commenced in the Superior Court of Hertford County, North Carolina to partition the "Richard Jenkins tract of land" in Murfreesboro Township, said county and state, which land is now owned by the plaintiffs and defendants as tenants-in-common; and the said defendants are further to take notice that they are required to appear before the Clerk of the Superior Court of Hertford County at his office in the courthouse in the town of Winton, N. C. on the 14th day of October, 1922 and answer or demur to the complaint filed in this action, or the plaintiff will apply to the court for the relief demanded in said complaint.

This September 18th, 1922.

D. R. MCGLOHON,

Clerk of the Superior Court.
STANLEY WINBORNE, Attorney for Plaintiff. 9-22-4t.

SALE OF LAND UNDER DEED OF TRUST

Pursuant to the provisions of a deed of trust executed by Eva Outlaw and husband, Dorcas Outlaw to H. C. Sharp, trustee, on the 5th day of December, 1918, and duly recorded in office of Register of Deeds of Hertford County, N. C., in Book 64, page 430; default having been made in the payment of the bond therein secured and at the request of the holder thereof, the undersigned will sell at public auction for cash in the town of Harrellsville, N. C., in front of the Postoffice on the 4th day of November, 1922, the entire small tract conveyed by said grantors, known as the Eva Outlaw place and bounded by the lands of Alex Cobb, George Bellamy's wife and the Harrellsville-Colerain public road, and containing 7 1-2 acres, more or less.

This October 2, 1922.

10-6-4t H. C. SHARP, Trustee.

The World Series baseball championship began in New York City on Wednesday. The Giants won the first game by score of 2-3. The second contest went ten innings and resulted in a tie score, each team making three runs.

A racking nervous headache? MENTHOLATUM chases it away.

OLD AT 30 OR YOUNG AT 60?

The choice is largely up to you. If your blood lacks red corpuscles, you're going to be fagged and dragged out, you're going to lack "pep," to look sallow and unhealthy, to grow old before your time.

DR. MILES' TONIC

actually increases the number of red corpuscles in the blood. It makes the cheeks plump and rosy, stimulates the digestive organs, creates a healthy appetite, and leads to increased vigor and vitality. First bottle guaranteed to help you or money refunded.

ASK YOUR DRUGGIST

NOTICE OF SALE!

I will sell on the 4th day of November, 1922, at 1 o'clock, p.m., for cash to the highest bidder to satisfy repair bill and storage on one Overland automobile, Maxwell automobile and one large refrigerator.

Place of sale—In front of Horton & Vinson's shop.

This 4th day of October, 1922.

10-6-2t. B. VINSON & BRO.

Only thirty days which to take advantage of the dollar-a-year offer. Get your money in during October.

NOTICE OF SALE

On November 9, 1922 at 10:30 a. m., at the residence of the late Delia Powell of Hertford County, I will offer for sale at public outcry, the personal property of the late Delia Powell, including household and kitchen furniture, a piano, carts, wagons, mules, and all other personal property belonging to said estate.

Terms: CASH.

Time of Sale: November 9th at 10:30 a. m. Place: Delia Powell's old home.

This September 27, 1922.

J. U. VAUGHAN,
Executor of the Estate of Delia Powell.

LINCOLN
Get Behind the Wheel

The Phaeton

$3800
F.O.B. DETROIT
Ten Body Types

Beyond contradiction, Lincoln occupies first place in every consideration of quality in automobile construction. It is easier riding, smoother running, sturdier under hard service, more readily handled, more flexible under control than any other car, regardless of price or claims.

These outstanding elements of superiority are the result of greatest mechanical accuracy ever realized in motor car construction.

GEO. J. NEWBERN & CO., Agents, Ahoskie, N. C.

Roanoke - Chowan Fair

WOODLAND, N. C.

October 31, November 1, 2, 3, 1922

Four BIG DAYS and NIGHTS

HORSE RACING FREE ACTS

A BIG MIDWAY

Full of High Class Up-To-Date Attractions

Admission: ADULTS - - - 55 Cents
CHILDREN, 5 to 12 - 30 Cents

Except on Tuesday, Educational Day, all white school children, bona fied students of any school in Northampton, Hertford and Bertie Counties - - - 15 Cents

On Friday all colored school children of the three Counties - - - 15 Cents