

LOCAL NEWS OF AHOSKIE

Rev. J. J. Barker made a business trip to Drum Hill Thursday.

Mr. T. B. Cooke spent Monday in Norfolk on a business mission.

Mr. A. J. Vinson of Woodland was among the visitors in Ahoskie on last Saturday.

Mr. E. R. Evans of Harrellsville was a business visitor in Ahoskie on Wednesday.

Mr. J. T. Matthews of Murfreesboro spent last Friday in Ahoskie on a business mission.

Mr. and Mrs. B. N. Sykes and little boy were among the visitors in Ahoskie last Tuesday.

Mr. R. B. Watson, proprietor of Watson's Garage at Murfreesboro, spent last Friday here on business.

Dr. and Mrs. P. H. Mitchell, and Mrs. Carl Mitchell spent last Friday and Saturday at Washington, D. C.

Mrs. T. B. Cooke of Route No. 2 was the guest of her sister, Mrs. J. T. Harrell, at Mars Hill Monday and Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Phaup and son Haywood, and Mr. J. M. Valentine were visitors in Richmond, Va., the past week end.

Among last Saturday's visitors in Ahoskie was Mr. A. L. Peele of Aulander, one of the oldest subscribers to the HERALD.

Mr. Talmage Baker of the Peanut Exchange at Norfolk, Va., spent the last week end in Ahoskie with relatives and friends.

Mr. G. L. Newsome of this city is spending this week in Raleigh and is attending the State Fair, incidentally to visiting friends.

Mrs. Mattie J. Freeman left last Monday for South Norfolk, where she will spend several days as the guest of relatives and friends.

Mr. J. A. Eley, the Delco-Light man, left early Tuesday morning for Newport News, Va., where he will be for several days attending to business matters.

Mr. Wayne W. Browne, who has been working with the Southern Railway at North Wilkesboro, spent a few days this week in Ahoskie as the guest of his parents.

Mrs. E. M. Wooten left Monday for Raleigh, where she will attend the State Fair. While in that city, she will be the guest of her daughter, Miss Iola Wooten, who is a student at St. Mary's Institute.

Get in on that One Dollar a year offer before it is too late. There are only a few more days left in which to get the paper at such a low cost. Come in while the going is good and get a whole year's reading for One Dollar.

Mrs. Julian Parker went to Rocky Mount last Monday and spent several days with her sister, Miss Lena Moore Rawles, who was recuperating from a recent operation for appendicitis. She returned to Ahoskie on Wednesday.

Among those from Ahoskie who are attending the North Carolina State Fair this week are Messrs. Sam Boyette, Eric Garrett, Charlie Conger, Lee Copeland, and G. C. Britton. They left here Wednesday at noon by automobiles.

A few more days are left during which you can get a year's subscription to the HERALD for one dollar. Be sure that you get your money into this office before the first day of November if you wish to take advantage of the liberal offer.

Mr. R. B. Taylor of Virginia Beach was a visitor in Ahoskie last Monday night. He left for his home early Tuesday, after having appeared as a witness in the case of state against William Henry Johnson, colored, who was tried in the Hertford County Superior Court Monday afternoon.

Among Wednesday's visitors in Ahoskie was Mr. W. C. Baker of Harrellsville. While in town he called at the HERALD office, and took advantage of our special One Dollar offer. Mr. Baker is one of the charter members of the Herald family, having been a subscriber since the very first issue of the paper.

Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Leary, Mrs. S. H. Leary, and Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Myers motored to Roper last Sunday and spent the day with relatives. Mrs. S. H. Leary remained in Roper to spend some time with relatives and friends. According to Mr. Leary, the approaches to the Roanoke River bridge at Williamston are in bad shape on account of the recent heavy rains.

Many Attend Court

Through muddy roads with Henry Ford's products as the chief mode of travel, Ahoskie citizens are attending the regular October term of Superior Court at Winton this week. All of the local attorneys are in attendance. Mr. S. F. Bowers was a member of grand jury, which concluded its work late Tuesday afternoon.

Return After Operation

Misses Lena Moore Rawles and Mabel Claire Hoggard, who are recuperating from operations for appendicitis, have returned to their homes here from Rocky Mount and Norfolk hospitals.

New Peanut Stand

Z. V. Bellamy has installed a new system peanut roaster on the streets of the town. The new roaster furnishes fresh, hot roasted peanuts any time during either day or night. A hand full of shelled peanuts are secured by dropping a nickel in the slot.

Addition To Theater

Another entrance and stairs has been added to the Richard Theater of which E. L. Garrett is proprietor. The stairs lead to the gallery which is now open to negroes. The entrance is entirely separate from that used by white people.

Several Diphtheria Cases

According to Dr. L. K. Walker, County Health Officer, eighteen cases of diphtheria had been reported to him by the county physicians during the first seventeen days of October. Forty-two cases were reported during the month of September.

TELLS HOW TO DRESS IN BECOMING ATTIRE

To Know Desirable Color Pick Out Strongest Note of Color About You

(BY MISS MYRTLE SWINDELL)

The color of your clothes should harmonize with the predominating color of your head.

If the hair is of striking color, select your clothes to harmonize with it. If your eyes are of unusual brilliancy, have color of clothes to conform to them.

The power of white in dress is because of its reflection of light, and its power to enhance the brilliancy of the eyes, teeth, and the high lights of the skin. Black on the contrary increases the depth of the shadow by contrast with the high lights with the skin and teeth. The shadows and lines being deepened, the face looks older or more tired, if sorrow, sickness or age have already made shadows. Only healthy, happy, joyous, high colored people should wear black. All with delicacy or coloring or faded coloring should avoid black, because black absorbs all the remaining color.

To know what color to wear find out the strongest note of color about you and dress in what you are or its complement. Your clothes express your personality. If a woman goes to seek a business position she must be dressed suitably. The human head is the center of interest and emphasis should be placed on it. Colors and the feet will draw attention away from the face. We do not want attention anywhere but in the face; for it is by far the most important thing about us. Our clothes should not be more brilliant than our faces, but should be so subdued as to enhance and beautify them.

All of us wish to dress becomingly and stylishly, none of us should wish to dress in extreme fashions. If we cannot have a number of dresses it is wise to have all of them made simply; so that they may be suitable for different occasion. Elegant materials need little trimming. Cheap, gaudy things are in bad taste.

BETHEHEM NEWS

Mr. G. W. Gowers is spending a few days with his father who is quite sick at his home at Greenville.

The Betterment Society met on last Friday at Bethlehem with Miss Myrtle Swindell. Three new members were added to the roll. The demonstration was quite interesting.

Mr. Jim Dilday and son-in-law, Mr. Leonard Phelps of Yale, Va., spent last Sunday at his home near here.

Mr. and Mrs. Brode Dilday, Miss Essie Dilday, Messrs. Willie Godwin, Loney Dilday, spent Sunday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Eddie Williams near Center Grove.

Mrs. Daniel Lowe is on the sick list this week.

Little Arthur Brinson Dilday who underwent an operation at St. Vincent's hospital at Norfolk, is reported as doing as well as could be expected.

Mrs. C. A. Godwin continued ill at the home of her son Mr. A. J. Godwin near here.

We regret to know that Mr. and Mrs. M. V. Wilson are leaving this neighborhood to make their home in Ahoskie.

The great rural interests are human interests, and good crops are of little value to the farmer unless they open the door to a good kind of life on the farm—Theodore Roosevelt.

R. Savage land.

This the 20th day of Sept., 1922. 10-18-4t. JNO. E. VANN, Trustee.

A Wish

"I have taken Cardui for run-down, worn-out condition, nervousness and sleeplessness, and I was weak, too," says Mrs. Silvie Estes, of Jennings, Okla. "Cardui did me just lots of good—so much that I gave it to my daughter. She complained of a soreness in her sides and back. She took three bottles of and her condition was much better.

"We have lived here, near Jennings, for 26 years, and now we have our own home in town. I have had to work pretty hard, as this country wasn't built up, and it made it hard for us.

"I WISH I could tell weak women of Cardui—the medicine that helped give me the strength to go on and do my work."
