Alathenian Literary Society Entertains And Gives Greek Myth

B. Y. P. U. AIMS TO BE LISTED AMONG LEADERS

Chowan College, Oct. 18.—The old members of the Alathenian Society entertained the new members of the society last Saturday evening at a banquet. Attractive place cards with appropriate quotations on them furnished a good deal of amusement. As the guests were leaving the society song was sung.

Interest In Athletics
Much enthusiasm is being manifested on the Athletic field. The Junior-Fresh team will play the Senior-Soph one day this week. Also the two society teams will have a match game before long.

Founder's Day
Founders Day was a great success at the College. Visitors from far and near were present to celebrate the seventy-fourth birthday of this great institution. The entire morning was devoted to the business meeting of the Alumnae. At one o'clock dinner was served in the dining room where every one had a good time in general. The college girls gave yells and college songs between bites. At three o'clock representatives from the student body presented a pageant after which Rev. E. N. Gardner gave a splendid address. In the evening the faculty gave a recital.

Early Morning Hike
On Monday morning about a dozen girls hiked to Lawrence's Spring where they cooked breakfast. Miss Caldwell and Miss Robinson chaperoned the bunch.

B. Y. P. U. Active
A very interesting B. Y. P. U. program was rendered on last Sunday evening in the college chapel. Miss Marie Griffin was leader for the evening. It is the aim of the Union to do away with the use of quarterlies altogether and on this occasion there was not a single quarterly in evidence. The Union hopes to be classed with the A-1 unions of the state as it was last year. Miss Catherine Fleetwood is the efficient president of the Union. Mr. Perry Morgan, B. Y. P. U. secretary of the state is expected soon.

New Members Welcomed
The Ann Hasseltine Circle of the Y. W. A. on last Sunday evening welcomed the new members into the Circle with a very impressive initiatory service. The auditorium was held just at dusk. Miss Genevieve Taylor, President, in a very fitting speech welcomed the new girls into the Circle after which Miss Nancy Parker sang a solo.

Present Play
The Alathenian Society presented the old Greek myth "The Rape of Proserpina" in the Amphitheatre last Monday night, at six o'clock. The cast of characters was as follows:
Proserpina Catharine Skinner
Ceres Elizabeth Turnley
Mercury Beryl Souter
Patulo Willie Mae Horton
Fairies, elfs, etc. Page Morehead,
Ruth Holloman, Ella Mae Parker,
Adalia Futrell, Mary Eakins, Myra Benthall, Catherine Fleetwood,
Jewell Askew, Moella Askew.

Plans For Four County Fair Fast Taking Shape

Secretary Lem Jordan Says It Will Be a "Jim Dandy" This Year

"If widespread interest and sectional pride are tokens of how the Greater Four County Fair will be patronized, it will be a jim dandy," said Secretary Lem P. Jordan, when asked how plans were developing.

"This fair has been planned on a basis which if we carry through successfully will make every citizen of the Four Counties feel proud of the achievements of his community, and this big annual event is a portent of bigger and better things for this section of Virginia for the future," he continued. "Mr. Ralston, of the Staunton, Va., Fair, told me that when their fair was organized ten years ago they had less than twenty-five head of registered cattle in Augusta county, and that there are now nearly two thousand, several of which won sweepstakes at the Chicago Cattle Show last fall. What a properly conducted fair has done for the Valley, it is going to do for Tidewater," said Mr. Jordan.

"As to entertainment features, our program will compare with any I have seen, and I have looked over the largest. We have four brass bands—Montagna's Military Band, of Ocean View and Norfolk, and the Suffolk Community Band for the Grand Stand and track, Murphey's Concert Band of 18 pieces, and Prof. Eph. Williams, colored Jazz Band of 12 pieces for the Midway. Then there will be Radiophone concerts from the broadcasting stations, Victrola music and Soloists in the Merchants Exhibit Tent.

There are six free acts—one from Hagenbeck-Wallace Circus, one from Luna Park, Coney Island; one from the N. Y. Hippodrome and three booked independently.

Every night there is a lavish display of fireworks, worth coming miles to see, and the program is changed each night.

Of racing there will be plenty. Three harness races daily and pony races for the boys and girls, and on Saturday fast and furious automobile races with professional drivers and special cars, the first ever held in Suffolk.

The Midway company is one of the five largest in the United States, with 32 big feature shows, five riding machines, autodrome, wild west, cowboys and cowgirls and genuine Texas steers, wild animal arena and numerous other attractions that will entertain and amuse in a clean wholesome way.

Indications point to many entries of Live stock of all kinds and I believe every pen and stall will be filled. I am urging every prospective exhibitor to get in their entry blanks before the 17th so we will be able to handle the business with despatch.

Excursion rates will apply on all railroads and we are making special arrangements for parking the machines of those who travel in autos.

I have no hesitancy in saying that this fair will be one of the hanner attractions of Eastern Virginia and we will do all we can to take best possible care of visitors."
