Mr. and Mrs. Parker Give a Dinner
On Sunday, November 12, Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Parker were hosts to relatives in Murfreesboro and to neighborhood friends at a splendid dinner. It was really a Thanksgiving dinner in advance. In addition to variety of tempting dishes there were served two huge turkeys which Mr. Parker hunted and killed on his premises Saturday.

Fair Well-Attended
The Winton Fair was well attended by the people of Murfreesboro. Perhaps better than ever before. Many exhibits were furnished by the school students. Premiums were awarded to entries from each grade. The town also furnished exhibits, some of which won premiums.

On Thursday at the fair, the ladies of the Methodist church were in charge of a booth. Miss Sarah Vaughan, Mrs. I. A. Wiggins and Mrs. E. B. Hill were actively occupied all day serving lunch. Also peanuts and delicious home made candy was served.

Aid Society Entertained
On Monday afternoon Mrs. D. F. Payne was hostess to the ladies of the Aid Society. Twelve members were present. Mrs. Jesse Warren was received into the society as a new member. No very important business feature was proposed for immediate execution. After a short discussion of general business a delicious course of fruit salad was served by the hostess. The next meeting will be held with Mrs. O. A. Chetty.

Formal Opening Of Bank
Wednesday, November 15th, the First National Bank of Murfreesboro gave its public opening to the friends, patrons and general public. At 11 o'clock Hon. E. Frank Story of Franklin, Va., who was the speaker of the occasion, was introduced to the crowd. Mr. Story made a fine speech and in his reference to the beautiful building of the National bank, he gave a high tribute. At 12 o'clock a big dinner was served the public on the grounds west of the bank where improvised tables had been made. Useful souvenirs were given to all who attended the occasion. And the same gift was reserved for any interested person who might call for it in the

ASKS HELP FROM THE PEOPLE OF HERTFORD

A pre-campaign appeal to the good people of Hertford County for Near East Relief funds to help keep alive the 800,000 refugees suddenly pitched on them by the Smyrna horror, was made this week to our citizens by Col. George H. Bellamy, state chairman, and members of the North Carolina executive committee of that great humanitarian organization.

While this emergency appeal cannot be allowed to interfere with the regular campaign for the support of North Carolina's 3,334 orphans, now safely housed in the five Tarheel orphanages at Trezibond, yet unless the nation does its share many of these unfortunate people will be dead by Christmas.

Col. Bellamy, in speaking of the horrible tragedy, says: "Eight weeks ago these people were living a tranquil life, going about their business, worshipping on Sunday, planning for the future and educating their children." Suddenly Constantine and Kemal Pasha have differences, the Turkish hordes overrun the land—murder their men, carry their young and beautiful women off to vile Turkish harems, burn the Biblical City of Smyrna and destroy the entire countryside.

Colonel Bellamy and the state committee, which is headed by Joseph Daniels, ask that checks be sent to the local county chairman, or to Robert A. Brown, state treasurer, 901 Citizens Bank Building, Raleigh, N. C. to aid in the problem of taking care of these 800,000 homeless and near-naked, starving victims.

REPAIRING BRIDGES

Several bridges that have long been in need of repair are being attended to by the city administration during this week. Clinkers and sand will also be hauled on some of the town's streets.

VISITS ELIZABETH CITY

E. L. Garrett, manager of the local moving picture theater, left on Thursday morning for Elizabeth City. Mr. Garrett will investigate the moving picture situation there with the end in view of opening a moving picture house.

DOCTORS WILL MEET

Folder programs are out announcing the Twenty-Seventh Annual Meeting of the Seaboard Medical Association of Virginia and North Carolina. It will be held at New Bern, December 5, 6, and 7, in the Gaston Hotel. Many prominent physicians and surgeons of the two states are on the speaking program.

TOBACCO MARKET TO CLOSE

Announcement was made Thursday that the Basnight Warehouse for the sale of leaf tobacco would close with Friday's sale. Although final official figures are not available, it is estimated that two million and a half pounds will have been sold here this season when the warehouses close this week.

HERTFORD COUNTY COTTON

According to figures tabulated by Jno. A. Parker, special reporter for the Department of Commerce, there were 2,905 bales of cotton ginned in Hertford County, from the crop of 1922 prior to November 14, as compared with 2,704 bales ginned prior to November 14, 1921.

Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Willis, Miss Carol Willis and Mr. Russell Willis of Washington were the week-end guests of Mr. and Mrs. T. M. Eure. Mrs. J. C. Brett of Raleigh is the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Benthall.

Waters Sale
On November 17th the sale of the late E. W. Waters was held at the home where all the household, kitchen and chattel property was sold to the highest bidder. The sale opened at 11 o'clock and continued without interruption until after 5 p. m. The property was auctioneered by Mr. P. C. Parker and the sales registered by Mr. H. C. Waters of Powellsville, the administrator was in charge of the affair and was the supreme dictator. The sale was attended by people from Ahoskie, Powellsville, Mapleton and sections around Murfreesboro. Several pieces of perfectly good furniture, besides chattel property were bought by local attendants.

MR. MERCHANT
You Need the Newspaper

The newspaper of today is the most powerful medium of advertising on earth. In the old days the merchant may have thought he was a benefactor and that he was contributing his bit "as a public-spirited citizen" when he carried a two-inch space in the village paper every week in the year and generally without change of copy. Possibly he was.

But that is changed now. A new order has arrived. People read advertisements. Many find their greatest interest in looking over the advertising pages to get news that will save them money, and take it from John D. Rockefeller, the way to save your dollars is first to save your pennies.

Advertisements today are right up to the minute. They are as fresh as the news of the world or the latest baseball score. Live merchants cater to live people and they know they must not alone be up to the minute, but they must be some distance ahead. They must anticipate the wants of their customers.

And they do. Turn to the advertisements in this paper right now. Just read what the merchants are offering. Notice the invitations for you to do business with them. Notice how attractively the advertisements are set up and how inviting they are.

Do you know that some firms think so much of a style of type that they buy series of it just for their advertisements? You can never mistake B. Altman's advertisement. As soon as you see the open type you know it is Altman's advertisement without looking for the name. This is true of many firms.

Business men—that is the successful ones—know advertising pays big returns. Unsuccessful men don't advertise because they are unsuccessful. That's the answer. Look over your town right now and pick out the big firms. They're the advertisers. Advertising is the tonic that puts dividends in the banks.

Everybody reads advertisements today. Mr. Merchant, is your advertisement in this newspaper?

December 13 to 16 is the date of the big poultry meeting at Greensboro. Dr. B. F. Kaupp says it will be the largest and best in the South this year.
